

Today's Weather
Fair. High, 58; low, 36.
Yesterday: High, 59; low, 46.

THE ATLANTA CONSTITUTION

The South's Standard Newspaper
Associated Press United Press
North American Newspaper Alliance

VOL. LXX., No. 145.

ONLY MORNING NEWSPAPER
PUBLISHED IN ATLANTA

ATLANTA, GA., THURSDAY MORNING, NOVEMBER 4, 1937.

Entered at Atlanta Postoffice
As Second-Class Matter

Single Copies: Daily, 6c; Sunday, 10c.
Daily and Sunday Weekly, 20c; Monthly, 60c.

NEW BID FOR JAPAN TO ATTEND PARLEY CONSIDERED AS BRITAIN, FRANCE BACK U. S. PLAN FOR DIRECT TALKS

PARTIAL ITINERARY OF DUKE REVEALED BY AGENTS IN U. S.

Atlanta Is Set as Southernmost Tip of Journey;
Florida and Hollywood
Are Definitely Ruled
Off as 'Pleasure Spots.'

SEVERAL-DAY TOUR OF DIXIE PLANNED

Two Weeks, at Least, To Be Spent on Eastern Seaboard; California
Jaunt Also Mapped.

NEW YORK, Nov. 3.—(AP)—A partial itinerary for the Duke and Duchess of Windsor's United States tour was revealed today by their official representatives here, with Hollywood and Florida definitely ruled off the time table.

At least the first two weeks of this modern "grand tour," now arranged to span 37 days, would be spent on the eastern seaboard from upper New York probably as far south as Atlanta.

But no farther. Florida and Hollywood were described as essentially "pleasure spots" by the former British monarch's spokesmen (Arthur Kuden, Inc.) and, therefore, were not included in the itinerary. The Windsors were coming, so the Duke had said, on a serious mission to study working and housing conditions in industrial areas.

California Visit.
They planned to go to California, however, possibly visiting both Los Angeles and San Francisco.

The partial itinerary disclosed today:
November 11—Debar from liner Bremen in New York and leave immediately for Washington.

November 12—Still in Washington. Dinner at the British embassy. Luncheon with President Roosevelt may be on this day or about a week later. Possibly a trip to Greenbelt, Md., housing project.

November 13, 14, 15—New York city, probably staying at a hotel.

November 15 to 18 or 19—Industrial centers of the Mohawk Valley from Albany, N. Y., possibly as far west as Rome, N. Y.

Continued in Page 2, Column 5.

Gallup Foretells Election Winners

The people of New York and Detroit voted officially Tuesday for new mayors. But Constitution readers had the results of an unofficial vote taken by the Institute of Public Opinion in both New York and Detroit when they received their morning paper last Saturday.

An exclusive story on Page One in The Constitution Saturday gave the results of the New York and Detroit special mayoralty polls.

That story stated Fiorello La Guardia was running approximately two to one ahead of Jeremiah T. Mahoney. The story also stated that Richard W. Reading was leading Patrick H. O'Brien in Detroit by about two to one.

The pre-election polls of the American Institute of Public Opinion given to Atlanta and Georgia readers by The Constitution again were as amazingly accurate as they were in the Roosevelt landslide of 1936. Dr. George Gallup's "America Speaks" polls are showing the politicians and the public how America feels. They are printed exclusively in Atlanta in The Constitution.

'Lung' Victim Finds Life Is Good; Smaller Respirator Being Devised

MIAMI BEACH, Fla., Nov. 3.—(AP)—Fred B. Snite Jr. has been living in an iron lung for 19 months but he finds life interesting, he said today. "I have a lot of time to figure things out."

The 27-year-old infantile paralysis victim laughed and joked as he played chess with his father, drank water through a glass tube and read his fan mail for cameramen. The breathing device in which he traveled from China by way of Chicago, was rolled out on the sun patio of his father's estate for the occasion.

"Freddie, do you find life interesting?" asked Dennis R. Scanlan, who is experimenting with a smaller respirator for the invalid.

"I sure do," said young Snite,

Medical Leader Passes

DR. A. W. CALHOUN.

DR. A. W. CALHOUN DIES AT HIS OFFICE

Heart Attack Is Fatal to Emory Faculty Member and Noted Physician.

Dr. Abner Wellborn Calhoun, 40, Atlanta physician and faculty member of Emory University Medical School, died unexpectedly yesterday morning of a heart attack. He was stricken about 11 o'clock while at his office in the Medical Arts building. His home is at 106 Inman Circle.

Born in Atlanta April 9, 1897, Dr. Calhoun was the son of the late Judge Andrew E. Calhoun and Mrs. Carabel Heidt Calhoun. Mrs. Calhoun died October 21.

He attended Boys' High school here and later was a student at the University of Georgia. He was graduated in 1919. He studied medicine at Harvard University Medical School and became a doctor of medicine in 1923.

Dr. Calhoun served his internships at Boston hospital and Peter Bent Brigham hospital, at Boston, Mass. He then became resident physician at Grady hospital.

In 1928 he began private practice of medicine. Dr. Calhoun was a charter member of the Atlanta Clinical Society, a member of the Fulton County Medical Society, the Medical Association of Georgia and the American Medical Association.

Dr. Calhoun was second lieutenant of the army aviation corps. He was trained at Kelly field, San Antonio, Texas.

Surviving are three brothers, James V. Calhoun, of Atlanta; Andrew B. Calhoun, of Anderson, S. C.; and John Calhoun, of San Antonio, Texas; an aunt, Mrs. A. W. Calhoun, of Atlanta; and several uncles.

Funeral arrangements will be announced by H. M. Patterson & Son.

In Other Pages

Classified ads. Pages 20, 21
Comics. Page 10
Daily cross-word puzzle. Page 10
Editorial page. Page 6
John Temple Graves III. Robert Guillen Westbrook Pegler. Ralph T. Jones
Friendly Counsel. Page 14
Health Talks. Page 14
"Hurricane House." Page 10
My Day. Page 19
Pleasant Homes. Page 17
Radio programs. Page 13, 14, 15, 19
Society. Pages 13, 14, 15, 19
Sports. Pages 16, 17
Tarzan. Page 20
Theater programs. Page 8

TAMMANY'S ROUT LIFTS LABOR BLOC TO KEY POSITION

ALP Becomes Powerful Third Party by Handing LaGuardia 500,000
of His 1,345,000 Votes;
Mahoney Polls 890,000.

MOORE IS VICTOR BY WIDE MARGIN

Lehman Terms Democratic Loss of Assembly
Power 'Calamity'; Party Sweeps Philadelphia.

By The Associated Press.

The loosely-knit Republican-Labor-leftist coalition headed by Mayor F. H. LaGuardia held historically Democratic New York city in triumphant capture yesterday after an election that struck a punishing blow at the power of old Tammany Hall and pushed a new party to a place of prestige.

Into office with LaGuardia went Thomas E. Dewey, 35-year-old special prosecutor for two years had been hitting hard at the underworld.

Dewey epitomized the magnitude of the defeat of Tammany and the rest of the city Democratic machine—a machine never before licked twice in succession by a "reform" ticket.

He was elected district attorney of New York county (Manhattan) stronghold of the wigwag for a century and a half, by a plurality of more than 100,000 over his Tammany opponent, Harold W. Hastings.

ALP Polls 500,000.

The American Labor party, unheard of until a year ago when it delivered some 240,000 votes for President Roosevelt, turned in double that amount for LaGuardia to help him win the highest aggregate ever given a man for mayor of this city—about 1,345,000 to 890,000 for Jeremiah T. Mahoney, his Democratic opponent.

"ALP" thus became, on the basis of the returns, a powerful third party in the city which might claim with logic to hold the reins of power between the customarily winning Democrats and the usually second-running Republicans.

Bruce Barton, author and advertising man, was elected a member of the house from New York.

Continued in Page 4, Column 7.

RIVERS MAY CALL SESSION EARLIER

Plans To Convene November 22, So Solons
Can Aid in Holiday Fete

Governor Rivers revealed yesterday that he now plans to convene the special session of the general assembly on November 22, the Monday before Thanksgiving Day, with a view that there will be a recess for the holiday, permitting the legislature to participate in the celebration at Gainesville in which President Roosevelt will take a leading part.

The chief executive said he hoped to have a definite announcement on the date following a conference today with Senate President John B. Spivey and Speaker of the House Roy W. Harris.

Anxious to Work.

"I believe that the members of the legislature are anxious to get to work and that they will be just as satisfied to have the session open on Monday as any day later in the same week," the Governor said. "I believe that the president of the senate and the speaker of the house will be able to reflect the views of their units and intend to discuss the matter with them thoroughly today."

Preparatory to the opening of the special session, the Governor this week end will conclude a number of conferences with various groups on plans for the session.

At 10 o'clock this morning the chief executive will meet officials of the Georgia Municipal Association to discuss legislation desired by the cities, while at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon he will meet with a group of judges of the superior court, solicitors general and other interested persons for a discussion.

Continued on Page 12, Column 5.

Billion Dollar Cotton Crop Seen for 1937

Economists Predict Decline in Price To Be Offset by Production.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 3.—(AP)—Cotton growers will receive a gross income of about $1,000,000,000 from this year's crop despite low prices, government economists predicted today.

They said a decline in prices from nearly 15 cents a pound early this year to about 8 cents recently would be offset somewhat by the 42 per cent increase in the 1937 production over 1936.

Expected to Exceed 1936.
Income from the 1937 crop "is expected to equal or exceed" the 1936 figure which the economists estimated at $987,100,000.

The estimates made by the Bureau of Agricultural Economics, included money received from actual sale of cotton and cottonseed, from the loan and subsidy program on this year's crop, and from payments under the 1937 soil conservation program.

The bureau estimated gross income to producers from recent cotton crops as follows: 1932, $464,300,000; 1933, $896,100,000; 1934, $822,200,000; 1935, $858,000,000.

The bureau, in summarizing the "cotton outlook for 1938," forecast these trends:

Production Reduction.
A probably sharp reduction in production in this country.

A decline in the amount of cotton consumed in this country compared with the record domestic mill consumption for the 12 months ended with July.

A possible increase in foreign consumption of American cotton, which has been decreasing in recent years.

A record-breaking world supply of 50,800,000 bales for this (1937-38) season.

FIVE NAVY FLIERS KILLED IN CRASH

Small Service Plane Collides With Large Ship
3,000 Feet Above Field.

SEATTLE, Nov. 3.—(AP)—Five naval fliers were killed and two injured today in a collision of two fighting planes 3,000 feet above Boeing field.

Apparently trapped in the ruins of their big navy amphibian, the five fell to death. The other two were in a small, naval plane, leaped with parachutes. The dead: Lieutenant Henry B. Twohy, Spokane, Wash.

Aviation Cadet K. F. Schmidt, Springfield, Minn.

Aviation Cadet Kenneth Rhudy, Seattle, former star mile runner of the University of Washington.

Machinists Mate M. McCroddan, New Warrenton, Fla.

Radio Operator R. E. Reagan, Grand Rapids, Mich.

J. D. Goodsell, aviation chief machinists mate, Bremerton, Wash., and W. S. Bowman, seaman, Alexandria, La., received slight hurts in their parachute descents.

Civilian witnesses said the accident occurred while the planes were high above the airport, the larger plane circling while the smaller made repeated dives.

Goodsell said:

"It happened so fast I don't know what went wrong."

"Everything was going fine," he added. "We were up 3,000 to 3,500 feet over the field, right up near the clouds. Then, all of a sudden, something happened..."

Roosevelt's Power: Is It Too Great?

The American Institute of Public Opinion asked a cross-section of the nation's voters if they thought President Roosevelt had too much power.

Their answer is given today on the Editorial Page in a nation-wide poll.

America Speaks

The question asked concerns a subject that is being widely discussed today. Read what the nation says and see if your opinion conforms to the majority expression.

CHINESE BULWARK SHANGHAI DEFENSE UNDER HEAVY FIRE

Rumors Persist of Impending Large-Scale Shifts in Positions of Armies, But Defenders
Bolster Their Trenches.

AIRMEN CONTINUE WIDESPREAD RAIDS

Defenders Reportedly Are on Verge of Abandoning Industrial Pootung and Crowded Nantao.

By MORRIS J. HARRIS.

SHANGHAI, Nov. 4.—(Thursday)—(AP)—Chinese expanded and strengthened their positions today under pounding Japanese artillery fire despite intimations that the defense might abandon the Shanghai front.

Rumors of impending large-scale changes in the position of the contending forces in Shanghai persisted. Of increasing prominence was a theory that the Chinese were on the verge of evacuating Pootung, the industrial area across the Whangpoo river from the International Settlement, and the thronged native area, Nantao, south of the French concession.

The Chinese admittedly were formulating their strategy as developments unfolded and the belief was expressed that they might abandon the Shanghai peninsula entirely to Japanese control. There was no evidence, however, that such a step yet was under way as the Chinese entrenched themselves more firmly both to the south and west of the foreign area.

(The Chinese, by shifting their lines inland from Shanghai, still would obstruct the way of the Japanese westward toward Nanking.)

Defenses to West.
(When Chinese forces withdrew from Chang Kai-shek declared real defenses are to the west.)

Japanese air raiders in the interior, central and south China were continuing attacks on railroads and towns virtually from the Yangtze river to Canton, great south China port, Chinese declared. They reported additional scores of noncombatants killed in the bombardments.

A group of influential Chinese civic, educational, agricultural, labor and commercial organizations

Continued in Page 4, Column 6.

FASCISTS KILL 80 IN MASS AIR RAID

12 Bombers Release Complete Cargo on City 100 Miles From Barcelona.

MADRID, Nov. 3.—(AP)—Dispatches from Barbastro tonight reported an estimated 80 persons were killed and an undetermined number injured in an insurgent air raid on the city 100 miles west of Barcelona.

Twelve tri-motored bombers suddenly attacked Barbastro, only 30 miles from Lerida where 120 were killed in a similar raid yesterday, releasing a complete cargo of bombs.

Brief, Intense.

Reports from the city said the raid lasted only a few minutes, but was of terrific intensity.

(In the Lerida raid, 50 school children were among the victims.) Generalissimo Franco's insurgents launched a lower Aragon offensive today with a heavy attack on Fuentes de Ebro in a new drive apparently aimed at severing Madrid-Barcelona communications.

The insurgents reported their front ranks advanced to an important mountain position in the sector while an intense artillery duel was in progress.

Madrid Bombed.
Madrid was subjected to a light bombardment late today, but few casualties resulted from the insurgent shells.

An insurgent communique tonight reported that the Spanish government had ordered dissolution of all anarchist political committees in a move to restore discipline in the navy.

The communique, issued in Salamanca, said the government was reorganizing its naval arm to combat the insurgent blockade of government ports.

Cox Emphasizes Point in Fight on Wage Bill

Representative Eugene E. Cox, of Camilla, from the second Georgia district, emphasizes a point in his stand against the Black-Conspiracy wage-hour bill which is expected to come before congress at the coming special session. He is pictured as he spoke before a meeting of 150 Georgia industrial leaders yesterday. After he spoke, the organization began mapping a state-wide drive to oppose the bill.

South Would Be Prostrated By Pay-Hour Act, Cox Says

TWO TRIES TO KILL STALIN REVEALED

Enactment of the proposed Black-Conspiracy minimum wages and hours bill will prostrate agricultural and industrial activities of the entire south, pave the way for a CIO Communist labor despotism and produce national ills from which none can escape, Representative Eugene Cox, of the second Georgia district, who is a member of the powerful house rules committee, declared here yesterday.

The Cox address was a feature of a mass meeting of executives representing 60 Georgia industrial organizations during which a state-wide drive against the bill was mapped.

Cox, one of the nation's leading opponents of the proposed legislation, laid at the door of John L. Lewis, Sidney Hillman, Heywood Brown and other Lewis aides, President Roosevelt's intention to call a special congressional session. Cox contended that Lewis and his lieutenants are determined to force through the measure if possible before any further opposition develops.

"If white House blessings were removed from the wages and hours measure, agitation for it would collapse overnight," Cox said. "There had been an agreement between the President and the house and senate about an agricultural bill when congress meets in regular session next January. There is no immediate hurry for farm legislation, but there is by the Reds and Communists supporting the wages and hours law and that is why congress has been called."

Scott Russell Presides.

Scott Russell, Macon attorney, presided at the meeting held at

Continued in Page 2, Column 2.

Baby Died, Father Says, as Police Kept Him From Getting Medicine

MIAMI, Fla., Nov. 3.—(AP)—William Vance Harrell accused police today of holding him incommunicado on a minor charge and preventing him from obtaining medicine for his three-year-old son, who then died of diphtheria.

Inspector Frank Mitchell, of the auto-theft bureau, however, said Harrell reported the baby, Charles, was in the hospital merely because of a gnat in his eye and denied he was advised the illness was critical. Police Chief H. Leslie Quigg started an investigation.

A physician who tentatively diagnosed the child's case as diphtheria had given Harrell a prescription Monday with directions to administer the medicine and report the reactions within an hour. When Harrell did not call back, the doctor said, he assumed the child had responded to the treatment but made a routine check eight hours later and found the baby's condition so serious his life could not be saved.

Harrell, meanwhile, had been arrested charged with failing to pay a 30-cent lunch check at a drug store. Inspector Mitchell said he was held for further investigation when police suspected he was wanted in Asheville, N. C., on an automobile theft count.

Harrell declared he was not permitted to telephone his family. His wife and 17-year-old son, William Jr., said police disclaimed any knowledge of him when they inquired. After the baby died yesterday Mrs. Harrell called at headquarters and her husband then was released on his own recognition. The doctor said, he assumed the

3 POWERS AGREE ON COURSE TO END FAR EASTERN WAR

Italy Also Accepts Proposal With Reservations Against Anything in Nature of 'Sanctions' or of 'Moral Quarantines.'

LITVINOFF WARNS NOT TO WEAKEN

Conferences Degenerate
Into Tools of Attackers,
He Says; Davis Insists
Terms Must Be Fair.

Text of Norman Davis' Address on Chinese War in Page 12.

"Big Three" powers—United States, Great Britain and France—decide to call principal nine-power conference delegations to meeting to consider second invitation to Japan to attend Brussels parley; British and French delegates support U. S. appeal to China and Japan to seek peace by direct negotiations. (Page 1.)

Rumors persist that Chinese may abandon Shanghai front, although defending troops dig into new positions under heavy Japanese artillery fire; Japanese planes continue raids on interior cities; Japanese reports say Chinese divisions are in flight before north armies closing in on Shansi and provincial capital. (Page 1.)

Eighty persons reported killed and an undetermined number injured in an insurgent air raid on Barbastro, 100 miles west of Barcelona; Generalissimo Franco's troops launch offensive on Fuentes de Ebro in lower Aragon, in new attempt to sever Madrid-Barcelona communications. (Page 1.)

By JOHN LLOYD.

BRUSSELS, Nov. 3.—(AP)—A decision to call the principal nine-power conference delegations to a meeting for consideration of a second Brussels conference invitation to Japan was reached tonight by the United States, Great Britain and France.

The decision was made after a series of evening talks begun when British Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden dined with Yvon Delbos, the French foreign minister.

Delbos later called on Norman Davis, chief of the American delegation.

It was understood Maxim Litvinoff, Soviet Russia's delegate, had accepted an invitation to the meeting which would be attended in addition by the other signatory powers which have gathered in Brussels. Only Japan has stayed away from the peace sessions, and the meeting tomorrow would consider a second bid to the conference.

Will Act Anyway.

If Japan refused the invitation or if agreement could not be reached for extending the invitation, it was understood a committee.

Continued on Page 12, Column 6.

WEATHER

ATLANTA—One year ago today, Nov. 3, 1936: High 61, low 41.

SUN AND MOON FOR TODAY.

Sun rises 6:01 a. m.; sets 5:43 p. m.

Moon rises 7:20 a. m.; sets 5:43 p. m.

Georgia—Fair Thursday and Friday, somewhat warmer in interior Friday.

LOCAL WEATHER REPORT.

Highest temperature 89

Lowest temperature 42

Mean temperature 62

Normal temperature 58

Precipitation in past 24 hrs., ins.

Normal precipitation this mo., ins.

Deficiency since 1st of mo., in.

Total precipitation this year, ins.

Excess since January 1, ins.

6:30am Noon 6:30pm

Dry temperature 47 59 62

Wet bulb 42 44 46

Relative humidity 64 29 22

Reports of Weather Bureau Stations.

STATIONS AND STATE OF WEATHER.

Temp./Wind/Rain

12hrs.

ATLANTA, clear 52 59 .00

Augusta, clear 58 68 .00

Birmingham, clear 50 48 .00

Boston, clear 42 44 .00

Charleston, clear 54 70 .00

Chicago, clear 58 62 .00

Danvers, clear 54 62 .00

Houston, clear 62 74 .00

Jacksonville, clear 62 74 .00

Kansas City, clear 48 62 .00

Las Vegas, clear 62 74 .00

Memphis, clear 48 64 .00

Miami, pt. cldy. 72 90 .00

New Orleans, clear 62 74 .00

Pittsburgh, clear 34 38 .00

Raleigh, clear 48 58 .00

St. Louis, clear 38 48 .00

Savannah, clear 58 78 .00

Tampa, clear 68 78 .00

Thomasville, clear 58 72 .00

Washington, clear 48 58 .00</

CARD DISTRIBUTION NOVEMBER 16 OPENS COUNT OF JOBLESS

Blanks Already Have Arrived Here for Georgia's Part in Census.

Georgia's unemployed will get a chance to voice their desire for work November 16 when report cards will be distributed to every family in the state in connection with a nation-wide census to determine the number of unemployed. Postmaster Lon Livingston announced yesterday.

The census period begins on November 16 and closes at midnight on November 20. A card to be filled out will be made available to every person in the United States, and the cards must be returned before the deadline, Livingston said.

"If a person is employed, there is no need for him to fill out the card," the postmaster said. "We are going to reach everybody, including those in the most remote rural sections." The survey will concern the totally unemployed who are able to work and want work; the partly employed who want more work; and the Works Progress Administration workers or others employed by emergency relief agencies supported by public funds.

Anyone who needs help in filling out the cards may come to the postoffice or substation; Postmaster Livingston said. No publicity will be given to the individual who fills out the card, he added. Cards have already been received at the Atlanta postoffice and will be supplied to all second, third and fourth-class offices in the state. Results of the census will probably be made known shortly after November 26, the postmaster said.

The survey is sponsored by the Postoffice Department in co-operation with the National Unemployment Census.

WAGE BILL SCORED BY GEORGIA SOLON

Continued From First Page.

the Ansley hotel. About 150 attended. Following the address, congressional district meetings to cement Georgia opposition to the bill were scheduled as follows:

Savannah, November 15; Waycross, November 16; Albany, November 17; Columbus, November 18; Macon, November 19; Griffin, November 22; Conyers, November 23; Rome, November 24; Gainesville, November 25, and Augusta, November 26.

In presenting Representative Cox, Russell paid him tribute "because he, more than any other man in America, is responsible for the failure of the bill to pass at the last congressional session and thus has done the country a distinct service."

"I am not going to make a real speech here today because I already have agreed to present the entire picture at Nashville tomorrow," Cox said in opening his remarks. "I want to talk rather informally here today as I agreed to do."

"We are not disturbed merely about this bill, but we are all disturbed and made unhappy because we are compelled to see the direction in which we are going."

"No bill ever presented to congress, however, deserves more consideration or is more important in its sweeping application than this wages and hours bill."

"It is part and parcel of a general movement not only to regiment the working people of America, but to regiment and prescribe their lives as well."

"It is sponsored, fathered, and fostered by a socialistic movement wearing a labor face. Except for this organization, the bill would not be in congress at this time and no special session of congress would be pending."

Part of Terrorism. "It is part of the terrorism and political influence and general socialism which is attempting to sweep constitutional government out of America. Passage of this bill would be the greatest step ever taken towards centralized bureaucratic control."

"Local self-government is gone if that bill passes. Labor itself will be the greatest sufferer, along with the farmer. Administration of the bill will be placed in the hands of a hand-picked five-man board with John Lewis doing the picking. It will be partisan to what Lewis and his lieutenants demand. It will hire hordes of inspectors and snoopers and employ long lines of persons to carry out its mandates."

"It, like the National Labor Relations Board, will be a partisan board, and will subject every business, large and small, to bureaucratic domination."

"Passage of the bill means increased production costs, increased living costs and restricted production. No reputable economist denies that these things are true."

"The effects of the bill are incompatible with a democratic system of government. It will take from the people the right to live their lives in their own way and will subject them to the whims of those named to administer the act."

"It will be a far step in setting up a Red, labor influence in America to tear down our Christian institutions and to eliminate constitutional government in free America."

"So far as the Georgia delegation in congress is concerned, it will stand against the bill with one exception."

"It is natural when a proposition comes to congress under the blessings of the chief executive that a large number of congressmen should be inclined to support it. The chances for holding it up are very remote under such circumstances. It has been the recent custom for bills of this nature to be drawn by some employee of some bureau and for them to be passed to congress with a demand for their adoption."

"This is a bad practice. It is the business of congress to pass laws. This law, however, was drawn up by a young employee of the Department of Justice in collaboration with Sidney Hillman, of the CIO."

Communism Charged. "The CIO is a Communist labor group, an organization made up largely of old-time Communists, and they crowd every department in Washington. This statement shocks some people, but it is true."

"Lewis, Hillman, Heywood Brown and others are out of control. They are the Communists and Reds, but have undertaken to control publicity and in some cases have succeeded."

"So this bill is a product of the CIO so that the CIO may be placed in complete control of the government. It is a promotion of the political scheming of CIO politicians."

"If passed, the wages and hours bill will cost the south more than the Civil War and reconstruction thrown in."

"It has a dual purpose: 1. To put the CIO in control of the country, and 2. To stop industrial development in the south."

"Cotton-producing states of the south now expend about $1,000,000,000 more a year for commodities which they must buy than they get for the products they raise. If this bill is passed, it will mean that other hundreds of millions of additional dollars will be required to make the normal purchases."

"Organized labor as represented by the CIO does not want labor scattered. It wants to keep it

Governor First To 'Sign Up' for Poppy Day Drive

Louise Willnor, president of American Legion Junior Auxiliary Unit No. 1, pinning poppy on lapel of Governor Rivers' coat at the capitol yesterday, as first step in Atlanta's annual poppy day sale on Armistice Day.

Lorraine Mayfield, of West End Unit No. 147, also visited the Governor and found a most willing customer. Plans for the poppy day sale have been completed and indications point to a record day's receipts, according to managers of the drive.

in the highly industrialized centers of the east and mid-west. Organization would be more difficult in the south, so the CIO wants to keep labor grouped."

"If a minimum wages and hours law is passed in America under the proposed Black-Connery bill, it will give a board which we have no authority over, the right of life and death over every industry and business in the country."

"The little man will be forced to fold up and quit business. He can't compete. The south will have to quit developing industries because it cannot compete with freight rate differentials and industrialists cannot afford to pay as much southern labor."

"In addition, there will be a wild scramble for more machinery to take the place of men, and unemployment will be increased the country over."

Sop to Farmers. "The assertion that the bill will not apply to farms is a mere sop thrown to farmers. It was designed to disarm them, to prevent opposition by agricultural interests."

"What planter is so simple as to believe he can hire farm hands at a reasonable figure, when the worker can command 40 cents an hour in other lines of work? Why, under the provisions of the bill, labor would cost $100 a bale to produce cotton."

"No one in the entire country can escape the ills of this projected piece of legislation."

"Originally the bill called for a 30-hour week and 80 cents an hour. That is the bill first presented to the senate. At the senate hearing Hillman said the original bill was only a modest beginning. The senate finally amended it to provide a 40-hour week and 40 cents an hour."

"Except for politics that bill would never have been presented to congress at all. If there was a change in the attitude of the powers that be in Washington, it would go out of the windows overnight."

"Few members of congress are willing to support the bill on its alleged merits alone. It was passed hastily in the senate. The senate never knew what it meant when it passed the measure, and we don't know now except that it would be the biggest backward step this nation ever took."

"It seemed that it was headed for passage in the house, and proponents were shocked and astounded that anyone dared raise his voice in opposition to it because it had the backing of labor and the blessings of the President."

"Tremendous pressure was brought to bear on our committee to pass it. If there was a change in the attitude of the powers that be in Washington, it would go out of the windows overnight."

"We held on and I will be greatly disappointed if our rules committee does not continue to hold on to it. I know the caliber of those men. They are convinced it is not for the best interests of one percent of this nation, and they are going to fight. They have a profound conviction about it."

"When we refused to report the bill out, they tried to take it away from us. Congress would not do that. They then tried to get a party caucus, and Lewis, Hillman and the other sides of the CIO chain were there, but no quorum was obtained. They even called over the telephones attempting to get a quorum. Finally Lewis and his boys stalked from the building."

"Cox wound up his address with a warning that definite and concerted action is mandatory to prevent the combine from pushing the bill through the house."

J. W. Rowe, who ran for city council many years ago and who said he is a planter, asked permission to respond to Cox, but by a rising vote those attending the meeting decided overwhelmingly not to hear him. Rowe said that he operates a vineyard and that he formerly was affiliated with labor organizations, but is not now a member."

Major British Envoy To Entertain Wally First Time Since Marriage

Windsors To Be Luncheon Guests of British Ambassador to France, Who Got Permission From London and Will Call Duchess 'Your Grace.'

PARIS, Nov. 3.—(UP)—The Duchess of Windsor will be formally entertained by a major representative of the British crown Friday, for the first time since her marriage on June 3, when she and the Duke are luncheon guests of the British embassy prior to their departure for the United States.

The luncheon invitation was extended by Ambassador Sir Eric Phipps, who obtained permission from the British foreign office in London and who will greet Edward, Baltimore-born bride as "Your Grace."

The Duke and Duchess, who will sail for New York Saturday on the Bremen, will be dinner guests tomorrow of Ambassador William C. Bullitt at the United States embassy. The dinner will be attended by leaders of the diplomatic corps, French government officials and prominent persons of Paris and international society.

The Duke and Duchess were received informally by the British minister at Paris during their Austrian honeymoon but members of the Duke's entourage regard the embassy luncheon here as far more important since it involves recognition by a major representative of the British crown.

Several British officials are expected to attend the dinner, and the Duke of Windsor for coming to America with Charles Bedaux, "arch-enemy of labor," as his guide and expressing disfavor of the Duke's association with Chancellor Hitler, in Germany.

The resolution "warned" organized labor in Baltimore not to be "taken in" by slumping parties professing to help and to study labor."

It was introduced over the signature of Joseph P. McCurdy, president, and Frank Meeder, secretary, of the federation, an American Federation of Labor affiliate.

Of the Duchess of Windsor, formerly of Baltimore, the resolution said that she, while a resident here, "in no way showed the slightest concern nor sympathy for the problems of labor or of the poor and needy."

The Duchess of Windsor, formerly of Baltimore, the resolution said that she, while a resident here, "in no way showed the slightest concern nor sympathy for the problems of labor or of the poor and needy."

The Duchess of Windsor, formerly of Baltimore, the resolution said that she, while a resident here, "in no way showed the slightest concern nor sympathy for the problems of labor or of the poor and needy."

The Duchess of Windsor, formerly of Baltimore, the resolution said that she, while a resident here, "in no way showed the slightest concern nor sympathy for the problems of labor or of the poor and needy."

The Duchess of Windsor, formerly of Baltimore, the resolution said that she, while a resident here, "in no way showed the slightest concern nor sympathy for the problems of labor or of the poor and needy."

The Duchess of Windsor, formerly of Baltimore, the resolution said that she, while a resident here, "in no way showed the slightest concern nor sympathy for the problems of labor or of the poor and needy."

The Duchess of Windsor, formerly of Baltimore, the resolution said that she, while a resident here, "in no way showed the slightest concern nor sympathy for the problems of labor or of the poor and needy."

The Duchess of Windsor, formerly of Baltimore, the resolution said that she, while a resident here, "in no way showed the slightest concern nor sympathy for the problems of labor or of the poor and needy."

The Duchess of Windsor, formerly of Baltimore, the resolution said that she, while a resident here, "in no way showed the slightest concern nor sympathy for the problems of labor or of the poor and needy."

The Duchess of Windsor, formerly of Baltimore, the resolution said that she, while a resident here, "in no way showed the slightest concern nor sympathy for the problems of labor or of the poor and needy."

The Duchess of Windsor, formerly of Baltimore, the resolution said that she, while a resident here, "in no way showed the slightest concern nor sympathy for the problems of labor or of the poor and needy."

The Duchess of Windsor, formerly of Baltimore, the resolution said that she, while a resident here, "in no way showed the slightest concern nor sympathy for the problems of labor or of the poor and needy."

The Duchess of Windsor, formerly of Baltimore, the resolution said that she, while a resident here, "in no way showed the slightest concern nor sympathy for the problems of labor or of the poor and needy."

The Duchess of Windsor, formerly of Baltimore, the resolution said that she, while a resident here, "in no way showed the slightest concern nor sympathy for the problems of labor or of the poor and needy."

The Duchess of Windsor, formerly of Baltimore, the resolution said that she, while a resident here, "in no way showed the slightest concern nor sympathy for the problems of labor or of the poor and needy."

The Duchess of Windsor, formerly of Baltimore, the resolution said that she, while a resident here, "in no way showed the slightest concern nor sympathy for the problems of labor or of the poor and needy."

The Duchess of Windsor, formerly of Baltimore, the resolution said that she, while a resident here, "in no way showed the slightest concern nor sympathy for the problems of labor or of the poor and needy."

The Duchess of Windsor, formerly of Baltimore, the resolution said that she, while a resident here, "in no way showed the slightest concern nor sympathy for the problems of labor or of the poor and needy."

ISAAC SINKOVITZ, MERCHANT, PASSES

Noted Jewish Leader Had Made His Home Here for the Past 50 Years.

Isaac Sinkovitz, 67, retired merchant, of 583 Boulevard, N. E. died yesterday morning at a private hospital.

Final rites will be held at 11 o'clock this morning from the chapel of Sam R. Greenberg with Rabbi Harry H. Epstein and Cantor M. Landman officiating. Burial will be in Oakland cemetery.

Born in Russia, Mr. Sinkovitz had lived in Atlanta for about 50 years. Active in the Jewish community here, he was an organizer of the Congregation Ahavath Achim.

He is survived by his wife; four daughters, Mrs. Lee Stein, Mrs. A. Berman, Mrs. Meyer Jacobstein and Mrs. Andor Klein, all of Atlanta; three sons, Dr. S. J. Sinkovitz and R. A. Sinkovitz, both of Atlanta, and E. I. Sinkovitz, of Charlotte, N. C.; a brother, Nathan Sinkovitz, and a sister, Mrs. J. H. Leven, both of Atlanta.

SUIT DISMISSAL IS ASKED BY CIO

Hearing Date Is Set on Case Involving $800,000.

Charging that the Committee for Industrial Organization is not subject to suit as a defendant, attorneys for the Atlanta local of the CIO-affiliated International Ladies' Garment Workers' Union filed motions to dismiss eight $100,000 damage suits brought several weeks ago against the CIO and local officers.

The motion set out that Fulton courts lack jurisdiction to try the cases and that the CIO is an "unincorporated voluntary association of workers" not subject to be named as a defendant, unless every member of the CIO is named as a co-defendant.

The suits amounting to $800,000 were brought by eight women garment workers here who charged they had been ejected from a CIO-affiliate "without trials or notice" and had been kept out of work by "dictatorial" methods of the local Lodge 122.

Named as defendants were the CIO, the International Ladies' Garment Workers' Union, A. Steve Nance, as southeastern director of the CIO; John Martin, as a southeastern CIO executive; Atlanta Local 122 of the union, and Ross Jones as president of the local, Cora Hubbard as secretary.

Judge Virlyn B. Moore signed an order setting a hearing on the motion November 19.

FARM SCIENTIST TO SPEAK. ATHENS, Ga., Nov. 3.—Dr. H. T. Herrick, chief of the industrial farm products research division, Bureau of Chemistry and Soils, Washington, D. C., will address the University of Georgia Science Club Friday night in Dawson hall.

A delightful EXPERIENCE when visiting NEW YORK

OUR restaurants, ranking with the finest in the world, offer superlative cuisine and service. You will find it a delightful experience to dine in any of the several famous rooms. The Palm Garden Restaurant and The Della Robbia Room are but two very good reasons why epicures of international repute select The Vanderbilt when visiting New York.

Illustrated folder upon request

SINGLE FROM $4
DOUBLE FROM $6
SUITES FROM $10

The VANDERBILT HOTEL
PARK AVENUE AT 54th ST., NEW YORK

Fresh SEA FOODS

BUTTERFLY WHITING
Fillet	LB.	15c
WHOLE—FOR BAKING
Red Bass	LB.	15c
FRESH FISH
Roe	LB.	39c

Trout	YLA. SPOCKED	LB.	19c
Trout	VA. DRESSED PAN	LB.	17c
Fish Steaks	FANCY—FRESH	LB.	25c
Perch	FILLET—NO BONE	LB.	19c
Flounder	FILLET—NO BONE—NO WASTE	LB.	25c
Fillet of Haddock		LB.	17c
Northern Whiting		LB.	10c
Mullet	FRESH YLA. WEST COAST	LB.	10c
Croaker	VA. RED FIN	LB.	10c
Select Oysters	NEW JERSEY	PT.	43c
Shrimp	COOKED AND PEELLED	1/4 LB.	29c
Green Shrimp		1/4 LB.	15c
Crab Meat	FANCY—WHITE	1/4 LB.	29c
Lobsters	FRESH COOKED YLA.	LB.	25c

A&P MEAT MARKETS

"MY FAMILY loves waffles... but the cost of eggs scares me!"

"LADY... get Fixt Waffle Mix. My best eggs are already in it!"

Exit egg expense when Fixt enters! Because Fixt is different from every other waffle mix! It's ALL-FIXT... eggs, milk, sugar, everything. All you add is water! AND FIXT IS EASIER, SPEEDIER! No muss. No fuss. No failure. Ready in five minutes from package to plate! TASTIER, TOO. Top quality ingredients, scientific balancing, give Fixt waffles that famous Southern goodness! SO DELICIOUS YOUR FAMILY TONIGHT WITH FIXT!

SAY "FIXT" TO YOUR GROCER. "NOTHING ELSE WILL DO!"

WARREN'S

STORES OF QUALITY

95 BABY TURKEYS 19c
HENS AND TOMS
Avg. Wt. About 5 Lbs. Today Only
You can buy all these turkeys and triple your money in two months.

80 YOUNG FANCY TOM TURKEYS 20c

A FEW HEN TURKEYS 22c
Today Only

Genuine Fresh-shore
Naragansett Bay
OYSTERS
PINT
43c
In State Inspected Beds for Richer Flavor, More Solid Meat, Greater Health Value.

Extra Fancy Ocean
SCALLOPS LB. 35c

Fillet of
HADDOCK LB. 15c
Fresh Florida Spanish
MACKEREL LB. 17c

Ocean
WHITING LB. 10c

West Coast
MULLET LB. 10c
Fancy Cooked
SHRIMP 1/4 LB. 30c

PIGGLY WIGGLY

Genuine Fresh-shore
Naragansett Bay
OYSTERS
PINT
43c
In State Inspected Beds for Richer Flavor, More Solid Meat, Greater Health Value.

Extra Fancy Ocean
SCALLOPS LB. 35c

Fillet of
HADDOCK LB. 15c
Fresh Florida Spanish
MACKEREL LB. 17c

Ocean
WHITING LB. 10c

West Coast
MULLET LB. 10c
Fancy Cooked
SHRIMP 1/4 LB. 30c

PIGGLY WIGGLY

PARTIAL ITINERARY OF DUKE REVEALED

Continued From First Page.

The General Electric plant at Schenectady is an outstanding industrial center, but no particular places have been revealed where they will sightsee.

Week end of November 20—At least part of it, in Washington again.

Then several days, possibly until nearly the end of November, in the south, probably Richmond, Atlanta and North Carolina cities, the agents said.

The Windsors planned to travel in a private railway car, but whether the Duke would charter it or accept a loan of a car from some wealthy friend was undecided.

Prepare to Sail. In Paris the Duke and his American wife prepared to sail Saturday. She bought three medium large black hats and immediately copies were rushed to America.

The couple dined tonight as guests of Mrs. Frederick A. Sterling, wife of the American com-

GROUND FOR DIVORCE.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Nov. 3.—(UP)—Kenneth H. Gordon obtained a divorce quickly today when he testified "I had to get my own meals, sew my own clothes and my wife threw dishes and lamps at me."

The broadcast will be Edward's first since his farewell message last December 11 after his abdication.

In Washington, the Windsor's millionaire friend and escort-to-be, Charles E. Bedaux, conferred with government officials on plans for the tour.

There was one harsh note. Hannen Swaffer, columnist for the Daily Herald, the British labor party's official organ, said the Duke's proposal to study industrial conditions was "nothing but a publicity stunt."

"He's simply bored and wants to travel," said the lanky journalist.

HAPPY RELIEF FROM PAINFUL BACKACHE
Caused by Tired Kidneys
Many of those gnawing, nagging, painful pains or aches in the back or spine are often caused by tired kidneys—and may be relieved when treated in the right way.

The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking waste and poisonous matter out of the blood. Most people pass about 3 pints a day or about 3 pounds of waste.

Play ACCORDION

HAVE AMATEUR NITE AT HOME!
Be a member of...
Our Accordion Club
The School Orchestra
The Accordion Band

It's EASIER TO PLAY THE HOWELL-ARETTA WAY

The Howell-Aretta System of playing accordion, perfected by years of development, is taught here exclusively by graduate teachers of the Howell-Aretta Accordion Conservatory.

CABLE'S SPECIAL PLAN
A Small Down Payment—Balance $1.00 Per Week Secures the Following:
New Piano Accordion—Private Weekly Lessons.
Complete Howell-Aretta Course—42 Lessons in All.
Make a small down payment and take the accordion HOME. Come in and let us tell you about it. Receive a test lesson at no cost at all. See if you would like to play.

CABLE PIANO CO.
235 Peachtree St., N. E.

RUSH

your packages by dependable Railway Express, the one complete, nation-wide shipping service. Swift, through express trains—or super-swift Air Express, 2500 miles overnight, and grand for special "surprises". Low cost. Wise economy. Door-to-door pick-up and delivery in all cities and principal towns, with double receipts for sureness. For service, merely phone the nearest Railway Express or Western Union office to call. No extra charge.

89-91 Luckie St., N. W. MAIN 3471.
Depot Office—325 Mitchell St., S. W. MAIN 3471.
Atlanta, Ga.

RAILWAY EXPRESS AGENCY, INC.
NATION-WIDE RAIL-AIR SERVICE

CHILD KILLED BY TRUCK.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Nov. 3.—(P)—L. C. McDaniel, 7-year-old second-grade student, was killed today when struck by a truck while en route home from a nearby rural school.

HERBERT'S SON SUE.

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 3.—(P)—Mrs. Helen Meher Herbert filed suit for divorce today against Clifford V. Herbert, wealthy son of the late composer, Victor Herbert. They were married December 19, 1919.

6 Commission Candidates Compare Platforms Before Women's League

All Charge That Pressure Is Being Applied to Influence Votes of County Employees; Peck Proposes To Deprive Commission of Salary Powers.

Six candidates for the vacancy on the Fulton county commission matched their political platforms yesterday at a luncheon of the Atlanta League of Women Voters, who this week are launching another "get out the vote" campaign for the election of a commissioner November 9.

All of the 14 candidates were invited to attend the luncheon and expound their political views. Edgar Craighead, R. T. Dutton, Thomas Croom Partridge, George Starr Peck, Leo A. Sullivan and Nelson T. Spratt, all candidates from the North Side, struck a collective blow at courthouse politics in a charge that pressure has been brought to bear on all county employees to influence their vote.

Troy G. Chastain, Dr. C. W. Childs, Grover Clark, R. H. Everett, W. M. Milham, Byron Bellis Sr., W. D. Newman and C. O. Johnson, other candidates in the race, did not attend.

Rally Tomorrow Night. All the candidates have been invited to speak at 8 o'clock tomorrow night at the Forrest Avenue school at a meeting of the Fifth Ward Civic Association.

Two candidates last night announced plans for extensive campaigning the latter part of this week. Supporters of Chastain will hold a meeting at 7:30 o'clock tonight in the East Point city auditorium.

Childs notified the league that he was in the southern part of the county campaigning but that he was willing to answer any questions they might submit to him. He said he would readily prove charges he made Monday that courthouse politicians are attempting to swing county employees behind a chosen candidate. Speakers at the league meeting were limited to 10 minutes and spoke in alphabetical order.

"Pay Political Debts." Craighead led off with an attack on the commission for spending county tax funds merely to "pay political debts."

"Salaries of county employees should be equalized," Craighead declared, and termed the present scale as a "confiscation of your funds and mine." Advocating twice monthly payment of salaries at the courthouse, he declared that salaries should be adjusted and called for citizens of the county to "get out the vote."

Dutton criticized "lack of system" in conduct of county affairs. "We can operate the county at a cost 50 per cent less than what it costs today and much more efficiently," he declared. "There is in the making one of the biggest dictatorships ever set up right here in Fulton county. County cars and gasoline are riding around over the county election for the chosen candidate of the courthouse political 'ring'."

Partridge pledged a "fair and honest administration," if elected and asserted county officials should be the "servants" of the people, not the "masters." He said he was making no campaign promises other than to serve independently at all times.

"Heat at Courthouse." Peck cited his record of "service to the north side" and struck a blow at the "heat turned on at the courthouse."

Pledging "unrelenting warfare on the system which permits commissioners to hold the salary whip over the heads of county employees in other elective departments," Peck charged the commission with attempting to intimidate county employees by threatening to cut salaries.

Spratt declared recent grand jury presentments charging the county could save $250,000 annually with a revision of the salary scale was proof that county government is too expensive. He added that larger appropriations should be made by the county to hospitals in the city and asked for a "businesslike" conduct of the county's business.

Leo A. Sullivan, with a theme of economy, advocated a balanced budget and said the county should assume a "more equitable share of the cost of the city government."

Peck's Proposal. Following the meeting, Peck suggested a plan for "eliminating politics" from the commission. He said:

"The festering sore of our county politics commonly known as the 'ring' grows out of the one fact that the commissioners have the power of fixing the salaries of every subordinate in the other elective officers of the courthouse."

"It is high time the good people of this county were arousing themselves that this election is being stacked—that a bandwagon is being built up to make the people believe they want this 'ring' candidate, and that the 'ring' is trying to perpetuate their control."

"To correct this powerful political influence of the 'ring' I will unrelentingly advocate a change in the law giving county commissioners salary fixing power over individual subordinate employees in other departments."

"My remedy, unless a better one is offered, is to have commissioners annually, after consultation with heads of elective departments and appraisal of their needs, fix a budget for the total amount of the salaries necessary for each department, where not fixed by law, and pay this in a lump sum to the head of such department, who in turn will fix the salaries of his subordinates."

The Times' new daily and Sunday monthly rate is now $1.15, compared with 90 cents, the former price. Single daily copies are 5 cents, up from 3, while the Sunday issue remains at 10 cents.

NEWSPAPER RATES RAISED IN SEATTLE

Increase Laid to Mounting Cost of Materials.

SEATTLE, Nov. 3.—(P)—The Post-Intelligencer and the Times have announced that subscription rates have been increased due to mounting costs of labor, newsprint and other materials.

The Post-Intelligencer's daily and Sunday monthly subscription rate is now $1.15, increased from $1. Street prices remain unchanged at 5 cents daily and 10 cents Sunday.

GAS TAX SUIT WON

Louisiana Gets $142,915 From Standard Oil.

BATON ROUGE, La., Nov. 3.—(P)—The state won one suit against the Standard Oil Company of Louisiana for back taxes of $142,915.22 today and pressed another one for $750,000.

The state supreme court ruled that the $142,915.22 must be paid because the company illegally deducted 2 per cent of the gross oil handled by it from August 1, 1928, to December 31, 1936, in computing its severance taxes.

In the other suit, now in district court here, the state charges $750,000 is due because the company wrongfully deducted 3 per cent of gasoline taxes it collected for loss by evaporation and wastage in the last eight years.

ENTERS GRIFFIN RACE. GRIFFIN, Ga., Nov. 3.—(P)—Frank Pittman, Griffin funeral director, has announced his candidacy for the city commission post left vacant by the death of Emmett Powell. He will be opposed by W. B. Harris, former commissioner. The election will be held November 17.

IF YOU FAVOR RING SELF PERPETUATION
DON'T VOTE FOR STARR PECK
FOR COUNTY COMMISSIONER
IF YOU OPPOSE IT, VOTE FOR HIM AND HELP DEFEAT THE RING.

HOLD THAT HAIR LINE

If your hair line is climbing higher and higher on your forehead, you are surely becoming bald. Do something now—TODAY—to keep your hair line where it should be... to save your hair... or to grow new hair on the thin and bald spots.

"Do what?" you ask. Do as a quarter-million other men have done—consult Thomas. The reliable, proved Thomas treatment readily overcomes dandruff, stops abnormal hair-fall, and re-grows hair on the thin or bald spots. It is accomplishing these results for 1600 other men each day—and can do the same for you.

Come in today. You'll enjoy the quiet, restful dignity and privacy of a Thomas office. No charge is made for complete scalp examination nor for consultation. You are always welcome.

THE THOMAS'

World's Leading Hair and Scalp Specialists—Forty-five Offices Citizens & Southern National Bank Bldg.
(35 Broad Street, N. W.)
(Separate Departments for Men and Women)
Hours: 10 a. m. to 8:30 p. m., Saturdays to 7 p. m.

"SOCK" THAT COLD

before It Sacks You!

Don't take a cold lightly. Don't be namby-pamby in your treatment. A cold is an extremely serious thing and may end in something grave.

Treat a cold promptly. Treat it for what it is—an internal infection. Grove's Laxative Bromo Quinine (LBQ tablets) are what you want for a cold!

First of all, they are a distinct cold medicine, made for colds and nothing else. "Cure-alls" may be treacherous. Secondly, Bromo Quinine tablets are internal medication. They do an inside job, which is what you want.

Fourfold in Effect! Bromo Quinine tablets do four important things in the treatment of a cold.

First, they open the bowels. Second, they check the infection in the system. Third, they relieve the headache and fever.

Fourth, they tone the system and help fortify against further attack.

Don't Dilly-Dally! Don't procrastinate with a cold. As soon as you feel the first signs, go right to your drugstore for a box of Bromo Quinine tablets.

Taken promptly, these tablets will break up a cold in 24 hours, and that's the action you want.

Bromo Quinine tablets are nothing new or untried. They have been on the market for over 40 years and are the world's largest-selling cold tablets. That's proof of their dependability.

"Safety First!" Bromo Quinine tablets now come sugar-coated as well as plain. Both kinds are sold by all druggists, a few cents a box.

When a cold threatens, go right for Bromo Quinine tablets. Ask for—and insist upon getting—Grove's Laxative Bromo Quinine (LBQ tablets). Substitutes are never the real thing!

THE ATLANTA, BIRMINGHAM AND COAST RAILROAD

Has Good Central and Suburban Property
Let Us Assist You in Filling Your Requirements

DEVELOPMENT DEPARTMENT

WALNUT 1620 ATLANTA, GA.
ATLANTA, BIRMINGHAM AND COAST RAILROAD

Have You an Ambition to Write?

If so, you will find the "Writers' Packet" of three 24-page Booklets and three Bulletins available from our Service Bureau at Washington of great help. The individual who wants guidance in preparing and placing his stories or other literary product will find in these publications the answers to many of the problems of the writer just preparing to break into the literary market.

The titles are:

1. CORRECT ENGLISH
2. THE WORLD'S BEST BOOKS
3. MARKETS FOR LITERATURE
4. STAGE AND SCREEN WRITING
5. WRITING FOR MAGAZINES
6. COPYRIGHTS

If you want this packet, fill out the coupon below and mail as directed, enclosing 30 cents for return postage and other handling costs:

CLIP COUPON HERE—
Frederick M. Kerby, Dept. 50-4, Atlanta Constitution Service Bureau, 1913 Thirteenth Street, Washington, D. C.
I want the "Writers' Packet" of six publications, and enclose 30 cents in coin (carefully wrapped), or postage stamps:
NAME _____
STREET AND NO. _____
CITY _____ STATE _____
I am a reader of The Atlanta Constitution.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE—

Without Calomel—And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Ready to Go

The liver should pour out two pounds of bile into your bowels daily. If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas builds up your stomach. You get constipated. Your whole system is poisoned and you feel sour, sunk and the world looks punk. Laxatives are only make-shifts. A more bowel movement doesn't get at the cause. It takes these good, old Carter's Little Liver Pills to get these two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up". Harmless, gentle, yet amazing in making bile flow freely. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills by name. Stubbornly refuse anything else. 25c.

Today's Feature Events--- Style-at-a-Price Values FromDavison's Basement

"Last-Minute Fashions at Lower Prices"
Present Flattering Lines for Larger Figures!

Woman's Fur-Trimmed Coat

24.90

Opulent With Kit Fox—
Styled for Sizes 38 to 44!

A rough woolen coat along box-y lines—richly trimmed with kit fox! Its restrained swing is very, very becoming! Green or black—with black fur. A "first choice" for your casual occasions—this!

• 876 More "Last-Minute Fashion" Coats, for Miss and Matron—Lavish with Lovely Furs or Smartly Tailored.

13.90 to 38.90

Part Wool—and Wholly a Value!
Reversible Blankets

3.49

Not Less
Than 25%
Wool!

If Perfect,
Would Be
4.49!

70x80 inches of real comfort and value—these. Green and peach, blue and rose, orchid and green, blue and peach—the colors!

"Pepperell" Double Blankets

If perfect, would be 4.59 a pair! Big, bold block plaids in warm colors—25% wool! 72x84 inches. Pr.

3.49

November
Bull's Eye

One Day Only Sale!
Regularly 16.50!

Men's Topcoats
12.95

The Correct Weight for Atlanta Weather!

Double breasted, full belted models in serviceable tones of blue, oxford, brown and grey! Marvelously tailored for all sizes 34 to 44—and a one-day event that'll bring you men on the run—to save plenty!

Accessory Notes for Style - at - a - Price!

New Winter
Handbags
59c

Simulated leathers in dashing styles—for all the ladies! Black, brown, wine and green—lined and fitted.

Smartly Styled Fabric Gloves
69c

Slip-ons and novelties—in dark and accessory tones for winter costumes! All sizes.

Our Own Famous Budget Hose
59c pr.

2 PAIRS, 1.15!
First quality, full fashioned—sheer and clear! All silk, with double heel and toe—for longer wear. New shades, sizes 8 1/2 to 10 1/2.

"Atlanta's Smartest Low Priced Shoes"

Dress Styles in Ann Stevens
Shoes
2.97

Sizes 3 1/2 to 9!
Widths AAA to B!

We sketched a hi-front pump—with tricky patent trim—as just one example of the charm of these shoes—at a LOW price! Other styles in a wide variety—step right in for your winter shoes!

PUMPS MONK STRAPS TIES

in black, blue, brown or green suedes and combinations! *Exclusive with Davison's Basement

November
Bull's Eye*1.98 and 2.98 "Marcy Lee"
Daytime Frocks

Samples—Cottons and "Suava" Prints!

Sketched:
Right—Women's Print—with pleated sleeves. Sizes
38 to 44.
99c

Phone and Mail
Orders Filled!
Telephone
JACKSON
5700

Sketched:
Right—
Crisp Cotton
Print in navy with white red buttons and belt. Sizes
14 to 20.
99c

Sketched:
Right—
"Suava"
Print in dark shades with neat pattern and long sleeves. Sizes
14 to 20.
99c

November
Bull's Eye*3-Day Sale! Sleek*Satin Slips
1.38

Regularly 1.98!

- V-Top, Lace Trimmed
- V-Top, Embroidered
- V-Top, Tailored
- Tailored, 4-Cone Styles
- Cocktail Lacy Styles
- Guaranteed Taped Seams
- All Non-Twist
- Adjustable Straps
- All Fast Colors

Beautifully made slips of a satin and Bemberg weave that insures you longer wear—better looks! Tearose shades, sizes 32 to 44!

NEW POSTOFFICE TO BE DEDICATED

Ramspeck To Speak at Ceremonies as College Park Institution Is Opened.

Congressman Robert Ramspeck will be principal speaker at ceremonies dedicating College Park's new $65,000 postoffice at 3:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. Commissioner George H. Lou-gino, member of the Fulton county commission, will preside. Guests will be presented by Major Robert S. Rosser, of the Georgia Military Academy.

Students of G. M. A. will have charge of flag ceremonies and provide the music. A banquet will be given for Congressman Ramspeck at 8:30 o'clock by the College Park "30" Club.

Guests will include Governor and Mrs. Rivers, Mayor Hartsfield, M. H. Ackerman, postoffice inspector; mayors of near-by towns, judges of Fulton county courts, Fulton county commissioners, and representatives of the postoffice department from Washington. J. D. Conley, postmaster, and Mayor G. W. Harris will make short talks.

The new postoffice is a brick structure with interior of pink Georgia marble.

COAL HEATER BLAMED IN NEW STORE BLAZE

A fire at the Comfort Furniture Company, 150 Whitehall street, directly across the street from Tuesday's spectacular Carroll furniture store fire, was quickly extinguished yesterday morning by the fire department.

The fire, started by hot coals which spilled from a loose connection in a coal heater at the rear of the store, did only several dollars' worth of damage, Chief O. J. Parker said.

Chief Parker said that the $25,000 estimated damage to the Carroll firm was too high and said that it will run to about $15,000.

Fighting Japanese Under Hammer, Sickle

Behind almond eyes is death for any enemy unlucky enough to be within range of the American sub-machine guns so accurately handled by the Chinese Communists pictured above. This photograph was made on the northern front where the Chinese Red army is fighting with, instead of against, the troops of Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek.

Under the blood red banner of the Soviets, with its star and its hammer and sickle, these Chinese Communist soldiers are fighting Japanese in North China. Paradoxically, the machine guns were made in Germany, one of the nations most energetically opposed to Communism.

DEWEY WILL STRIKE WHILE IRON IS HOT

24-Hour Duty Staff Will Speed to Crime Scenes
Along With Police.

NEW YORK, Nov. 3.—(P)—District Attorney-Elect Thomas E. Dewey, one-time choir singer who won national fame as a "racket buster," tonight announced plans for putting the prosecutor's office "on the tail of the police wagon."

When he takes office on January 1, he said, the staff will be reorganized on a 24-hour basis, with investigators ready to speed to the scene of every crime committed in Manhattan borough, day or night, Sundays and holidays included.

Dewey's technique will be to get the evidence while it is "hot," and rush it before a grand jury.

With 8,629 assorted felonies and 15,526 misdemeanors reported in the borough last year, he acknowledged that everybody would be pretty busy.

"They're going to get it," "I promised the people of New York an honest, competent, non-political prosecutor's office," he said.

The 35-year-old nemesis of such notorious racketeers as Waxey Gordon and Charles (Lucky) Luciano predicted that half of the 15,000 practicing lawyers in New York would apply for positions on his staff. From such a field he indicated he would be able to select 63 assistants who could bear down hard on the people that Mayor LaGuardia refers to as "punks, chiselers and cheap tin horns," as well as on organized crime syndicates.

A $20,000 Position.

Dewey, the first non-Tammany district attorney since 1915, will go into the $20,000-a-year office, made famous by the late William Travers Jerome, with a record of 72 convictions out of 73 prosecutions as deputy assistant to District Attorney William C. Hodges.

Dewey, who came from Owosso, Mich., 14 years ago to study law and singing, served briefly as United States attorney before his appointment as special prosecutor. He is married and has two small sons.

LAGUARDIA VISITS PRESIDENT TODAY

Only Caller Listed During F.D.R.'s Gotham Stop.

HYDE PARK, N. Y., Nov. 3.—(P)—President Roosevelt will be visited by Mayor Fiorella H. LaGuardia at the chief executive's town house in New York city tomorrow.

White House aides announced tonight that the Republican-Fusionist victor for re-election in New York's mayoral race was the only one on Mr. Roosevelt's appointment list during his three-hour stay in the city, en route to Washington.

Although he was a Republican member of congress for many years and was the Republican candidate for mayor against Democrat Jeremiah T. Mahoney, LaGuardia has been an enthusiastic supporter of many Roosevelt policies and supported the President in the 1928 campaign.

JUNIOR RED CROSS GROUP MAPS PLANS

School Representatives To Fill Thanksgiving Baskets.

Approximately 250 members of the Junior Red Cross Council of city and county schools were getting a line on parliamentary procedure and public speaking yesterday as they met to map plans for filling Thanksgiving baskets for Red Cross families.

Representatives from city, county and private schools reported on activities in their schools and turned over large boxes of tin foil and empty bottles which will be sold to raise money to buy glasses for unfortunate school children and medicine containers for the tubercular clinic.

Officers of the city-wide council include Jack Urban, Couch school, chairman; and Frances Bessers, of Calhoun school, secretary. Miss Mary Fernigan is junior secretary of the Atlanta Red Cross.

It's a Wonderful Way to Soothe Itching Skin

Soothing, cooling Zemo usually relieves distress of itching skin. For 30 years, this clean, reliable skin lotion has been the favorite with millions. Excellent for the itching of minor skin irritations. Buy soothing, dependable Zemo today—to relieve the itching of Simple Rash, Pimples, Ringworm and Eczema. Tested and approved by Good Housekeeping Bureau. All drugists, 25c, 50c, $1.—(adv.)

OPINIONS CLASH OVER G.O.P. PARLEY

Landon Aide Terms Hamilton's Proposed Convention
'Major Blunder.'

CHICAGO, Nov. 3.—(P)—A projected mid-term convention of the Republican party stirred a clash of opinions today.

John D. M. Hamilton, national chairman, glowing with satisfaction over yesterday's elections, reiterated his belief that a conference to shape party policy was "advisable."

But Representative Joseph W. Martin, of Massachusetts, chairman of the Republican congressional committee, and floor leader for Alf M. Landon at the Cleveland convention, said such a gathering would be "a major political blunder."

The national committee will vote on the plan here Friday.

Martin said that more than 90 per cent of the 65 Republican congressmen who replied to a questionnaire on the issue were opposed to a 1932 party conference. He expressed the belief that similar sentiment existed among Republican senators.

The plan has been espoused by former President Hoover and Hamilton, but has drawn opposition from some Republican leaders. Landon, titular head of the party, has been noncommittal.

BORAH OPPOSES OFF-YEAR CONVENTION

WASHINGTON, Nov. 3.—(P)—Senator Borah, Republican, Idaho, opposed the idea of an off-year Republican national convention tonight, asserting it would be like a performance of Hamlet "with Hamlet left out."

"The voters would have no representation in that convention, simply the leaders," he said in a prepared statement. "Nothing could be more impolitic and nothing more calculated to affront the voters than a few distinguished men assumed to commit the party to a set of principles, or to outline the policy of the party."

Stone Lion Here Weighs 5 Tons In Foreign Story

A stone lion, native of Atlanta, grew so rapidly in transmission of news that in Bavaria it weighs five tons, Steffen Thomas, Atlanta sculptor, revealed yesterday.

Thomas said his parents, residents of Nuremberg, Bavaria, clipped an item from their paper which said someone had stolen a stone lion weighing five tons from an Atlanta park, leaving a $100 bill in payment for two weeks "rental" on the sculptured animal.

Seeking origin of such a story, Thomas learned that a stone lion, weighing several hundred pounds, had been "stolen" from its throne in front of an Atlanta apartment house early this year.

"But Atlanta is getting some swell publicity just the same," Thomas concluded. "It's getting the credit for having a five-ton lion."

MRS. E. J. ENTRICAN CLAIMED BY DEATH

Funeral Services Will Be Held at 2:30 Today.

Mrs. Elizabeth Jane Entrican, 53, died yesterday at the residence, 1017 1/2 avenue, S. W.

Funeral rites will be held at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon from the chapel of Henry M. Blanchard with the Rev. B. C. Goodpasture officiating. Burial will be in Crown Hill cemetery. The Atlanta Lodge No. 729, Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, of which her husband is a member, will be in attendance.

Besides her husband, T. L. Entrican, she is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Frank Wilson; four sisters, Mrs. W. L. Keith, Mrs. O. C. Tankersley, Mrs. Charles Smith, all of Henegar, Ala., and Mrs. W. M. Chambliss, of Cold Springs, Ky.; three brothers, J. J., W. H. and S. G. Bell, all of Henegar.

QUEBEC BARS "ZOLA" FILM. MONTREAL, Nov. 3.—(Canadian Press)—The Quebec board of censors temporarily banned from the province the motion picture "The Life of Emile Zola," an official of the board said tonight. No reason was made public.

Congratulations Pile on LaGuardia's Desk

New York's Mayor Fiorella H. LaGuardia is shown reading a pile of telegrams congratulating him on his re-election. Old Tammany took its second successive beating when New York voters re-elected Mayor LaGuardia by a record-breaking total. He defeated Tammany's Jeremiah T. Mahoney.

CHINESE BULWARK SHANGHAI DEFENSE

Continued From First Page.

Jointly besought the Brussels conference to take collective measures against Japan. They accused Japan of violating the nine-power pact to respect Chinese territorial integrity. Japan, they charged, should be recognized as the aggressor in the conflict and held responsible for all consequences of the war.

The Shantung front in North China was quiet. Negotiations through a third power to avoid endangering foreign and native noncombatants in the Nantao area, haven of increasing numbers of war refugees, were reported by a Japanese spokesman.

Apparent readiness of both sides to consider exclusion of the war at least from part of Nantao stimulated various hopeful theories that the conflict might move from war-beset Shanghai.

CHINESE FLEEING SHANGHAI ASSAULT

PEIPING, Nov. 3.—(P)—The jaws of a Japanese army vise closed on Shansi province and its capital today as Chinese defenses crumbled, adding that the retreat of the province's defenders apparently was general.

In a single night the Hsankow front was transformed from an impregnable, mountain-flanked position, against which the Japanese battered fruitfully for three weeks into a shambles with 15 divisions of Chinese troops in flight.

The North Shansi lines broke at midnight when a dare-to-die corps of Japanese engineers stormed machine gun nests only to find the Chinese already had retreated.

Atlanta Food Prices Drop 1.4 Per Cent

Food prices in Atlanta decreased 1.4 per cent between September 14 and October 12, figures from the Labor Department in Washington revealed yesterday.

Declines were noted in 14 southern cities, while increases were shown in two. Increases were reported in Jacksonville, Fla., 3 per cent, and Knoxville, Tenn., 2.1 per cent.

Figures for other cities showing decreases are: Baltimore, 1.5; Charleston, S. C., 2; Norfolk, Va., 2.9; Richmond, Va., 3.3; Savannah, 1.2; Little Rock, Ark., 8; New Orleans, La., 1.4; Birmingham, Ala., 2.8; Memphis, Tenn., 4; Mobile Ala., 1.2; Columbia, S. C., 11.8; Winston-Salem, N. C., 1.9, and Jackson, Miss., 2.8.

U.S. SAILOR TAKES SIDES WITH CHINA

Says American Navy Could 'Sew Up' Japan.

The United States navy could "sew up Japan so securely it would take her 50 years to unsew herself," according to H. C. Bailey, 22, naval radio operator aboard the U. S. S. Augusta.

Bailey is the brother of Al H. Bailey, of 1955 Palfox drive, N. E., and has been in the navy about six years. In a recent letter to his relatives he conveyed his views on the Sino-Japanese conflict.

"Every time a Chinese plane comes within sight or hearing of a Jap, the Jap turns tail unless the Chink is hopelessly outnumbered, and even then they don't put much into their scrap," he said in his letter. "They're afraid of the Chinese fliers."

Bailey said he "doesn't object to shipping arms to China because it would be a good thing to definitely side with them in order that Japan may be defeated and folded in her attempt to control China."

SPECIALS FOR HIGH'S BUYERS' AND MANAGERS' SALE ONLY

Permanent Waves

1/2 PRICE

Experienced operators to take care of you AND only the best materials used.

- $10.00 Permanent Waves $5.00
- $8.00 Antoinette Wave 4.00
- $7.50 Machineless Wave 3.75
- $5.00 Beauty Salon Wave 2.50

MORE DARING FEATURES

- SHAMPOO and Finger Wave 50c
- EYELASH and DYE, Reg. $1 50c
- FACIALS, Reg. $2.50-$1.00
- HAIR DYE, Reg. $5 $3.00

Phone—
WA. 8681

for an appointment

BEAUTY SALON
SECOND FLOOR

HIGH'S

High's Buyers' and Managers' Daring Sale!

Just 300! SAMPLE FALL HATS

Regularly $1.99
$2.98 to $10.00

We made a lucky purchase, and pass the daring savings to you. All exciting new hats that you have been waiting for! Included in the group are AUSTRIAN IMPORTED VELOURS and FINE FUR FELTS—all at this extremely low daring price—while quantity lasts!

MILLINERY
DEPT.
HIGH'S
SECOND FLOOR

NEW Super-Speed L C SMITH L C SMITH & CORONA TYPEWRITERS INC 62 Marietta St. Atlanta, Ga. WA. 0741-2 SEE THE NEW 1936 PACEMAKER CORONA "SPEED MODELS" AT YOUR DEALERS

Genuine Bayer Aspirin and Your Doctor

Each performs a vital function. Bayer Aspirin in relieving headache, neuralgia and other muscular pain. Your doctor in locating the cause and correcting it. Intelligent people do not hesitate to call on both.

● This may sound like strange advice for the maker of a headache remedy to give. But, nevertheless, we give it.

If you are subject to frequent headaches, go to your doctor and tell him about it. He may find the cause of your headaches, correct it... and make your life far more pleasant.

On the other hand, if you have an occasional headache, step into the nearest drug store; the moment you feel it coming on; and get a box of quick-acting BAYER ASPIRIN. Take one or two tablets with a glass of water, and see for yourself how quickly relief comes.

We refer to Bayer tablets as "quick-acting," for one reason, because they disintegrate or dissolve in the stomach almost instantly you take them. Hence are ready to start their work of relief very quickly.

Just drop a real Bayer Aspirin tablet in a tumbler of water and you'll get the point at once. You'll see it disintegrating before it reaches the bottom of the glass! And that's the way one acts in your stomach when you take it.

Try it... read BAYER Aspirin. Ask for it by its full name, "Bayer Aspirin" when you buy and not by the name "aspirin" alone. You pay only 15¢ a dozen—or a quarter for a pocket tin of two full dozen now in any drug store in the United States.

15¢

CAMELS — LARGEST-SELLING CIGARETTE IN AMERICA

BEGINS THURSDAY—NOVEMBER 4th

HIGH'S

Buyers & Managers

DARING SALE

HOWDY, FOLKS! Once again, I have been chosen as General Chairman of High's Semi-Annual Buyers and Managers Store-wide Sale — and realizing that our reputation is at stake, we the Department Heads, have carefully planned this event, in order that YOU may be justified in anticipating your needs and buying NOW with confidence, and receive the BEST VALUES in our history. In "daring you" to find better values in Atlanta, we realize WE MUST BE SINCERE, and that the merchandise and prices must be outstanding values — else we cannot make good. Be assured that we are keeping faith with you, and the values are here for you.

Sincerely,

J. Glover Bailey
Chairman
High's Buyers and Managers Sale

LETTER OF CREDIT gives you
5 MONTHS
TO PAY

DARING VALUE! Reg. $22.50 to $27.50

Men's Suits and Overcoats

Suits
• Plaids
• Checks • Stripes
• Serges
• Mixtures • Nubs

Overcoats

• Llama Cloths
• Angora Downs
• Cassimeres
• Meltons
• Cheviots

For Men of Every Build

Longs!
Shorts!
Regulars!
Stouts!

Blues!
Browns!
Oxfords!
Greys!

$16.85

EASY TERMS:
Club Plan
Letter-of-Credit
Lay-Away or 30-Day Charge
Account

Our clothing buyer DARES to excel all past successes! Not a suit or overcoat in this collection worth less than $22.50... many are $24.50 and $27.50 values! Overcoats of superlative warmth, yet of extraordinary lightness, in soft fleecy weaves, suitable for this climate. Big husky heavy coats, too, for full protection in extreme weather. Suits in ultra styles for young men, and more conservative models, too, in great variety.

Suits sizes 34 to 48, Overcoats 33 to 46.

HIGH'S STREET FLOOR.

HIGH'S

HUNDREDS OF DARING VALUES

We list only a limited few of the many bargains! Shop the whole store — Save in All Departments!

24-in. Dressed Dolls . . . 50c
$1 Milanese Silk Undies, 79c
Scottish . . . 14 ROLLS $1.00
$1 Silk Scarfs . . . 59c
Reg. $1 Neckwear . . . 55c
Reg. 59c Jewelry . . . 39c
75c Chateau Crepe . . . 59c
45c Finger Heathering . . . 39c
55c Crochet Cotton . . . 39c
$5.98 Over-Nite Cases $4.98
$2.98-$3.98 Fur Collars $1.94
Wrist Watches . . . $10.98
$1.98 Blouses . . . $1.29
Handkerchiefs, ea. . . 18c
Chiffon Silk Hose . . . 2 for $1
Girls' $7.98 Snow Suits $5.99
Girls' $1.98 Sweaters, $1.78
Girls' Felt Hats . . . $1.00
Girls' $2.98 Silk Dresses $2
Boys' Wash Suits . . . $1.00
Tots' Wool Sweaters . . . $1.00
Tots' $5.98 Ski Suits . . . $4.31
Infants' Handmade Wear 59c
Infants' Zipper Bunting $2
$1.85 Diapers . . . 12 for $1.39
Woodbury's Soap, 12 for 79c
$1 Woodbury Men's Sets 79c
83c Pond's Creams . . . 64c
Lucriferia Vanderbilt's
Face Powder 49c

Jergens' Tablets . . . 6 for 21c
Louis Philippe Lipstick . . . 66c
High's 39c Antiseptic . . . 25c
High's Almond Lotion . . . 25c
50c Woodbury's Creams 34c
50c Ipana Tooth Paste . . . 29c
50c Kelynos Dental Cream 29c
2 Tek Tooth Brushes . . . 39c
Master-Craft Ruffled
Curtains . . . $1.97
$2.49 Lace Curtains . . . $1.97
50c Mavis Duffing
Powder . . . 29c
$1 Djer-Kiss Sachets . . . 69c
Tussey's Eau de Cologne 24c
Pint Rubbing Alcohol . . . 10c
White Floating
Soap . . . 22 bars $1.00
$6.50 All-Wool Blankets,
Each . . . $4.97
$2.49 Plaid Blankets,
Pair . . . $1.87
$3.50 Comforts . . . $2.87
25c Turkish Bath Towels 15c
$3.50 Fluffy Spreads . . . $2.57
$1.29 2-Year Sheets, ea. 94c
$2.50 Linen Crash Sets $1.77
Women's Robes . . . $1.64
$3.50 Lace Cloths . . . $1.77
$2.98 "Sure-Fit" Slip
Covers . . . $1.89
"Sure-Fit" Davenport
Covers . . . $2.89

$1.98 Leather Bags . . . $1.69
$1.69 to $1.98
Umbrellas . . . $1.49
10c to 15c
Kerchiefs . . . 3 for 19c
$22.50 53-Pc.
Chest of Silver . . . $10.98
29c to 75c Buttons . . . 19c
Ironing Board . . . $1.39
Pad and Cover . . . 39c
59c-79c Shoe Bags . . . 49c
10c-15c Plated Flatware 8c
$5 Part-Wool Blankets $3.87
79c to $1.29 New Fabrics 47c
Men's Suits and
Overcoats . . . $16.85
Men's Pajamas . . . $1.08
Men's New Robes . . . $4.85
Men's Shirts . . . $1.08
$39.95 93-Pc. Set . . . $27.50
89c, 98c Ruffled Curtains,
Pair . . . 69c
Venetian Blinds . . . $1.49
49c 3x6 Window Shades 29c
$37.50 Axminster
Rugs . . . $29.98
$8 Felt-Base Rugs . . . $4.94
Boys' 3-Pc. Wool Suits $6.97
Boys' Wool Prep Suits $6.97
Boys' Jacket With
Pants . . . $3.99
Boys' Fine Shirts . . . 63c
$1.19 Girls' Tub Frocks 88c

Women's Flannel
Robes . . . $4.29
$3.50-7.50 Foundations $2.98
Moiré-Taffeta Coats . . . $1.99
Women's $7.85-$10.85
Dresses . . . $6.00
Women's-Misses'
Sweaters . . . 94c
Women's Skirts . . . $1.84
$1.98 Fine Satin Slips $1.59
$2.98-$3.98 Silk
Lingerie . . . $2.00
$5-$7.50 Holloware . . . $3.98
Women's $29.50-$35
Coats . . . $26
Women's Fur Coats . . . $45
$1 Smart New Handbags 79c
$2.98-$3.98 Kid Gloves $1.98
79c to $1 Ringless Hose 69c
Women's Wool Sports
Coats . . . $10.00
Women's Slender Line
Frocks . . . $3.89
Boys' Long Pants Suits $5.00
Girls' $7.95-$10 Coats $5.00
Women's Satin Slips . . . 82c
Women's $1.19 Pajamas 89c
Men's $3 Corduroy
Pants . . . $1.89
Men's 89c Knit Unions . . . 69c
Men's 79c Dress Shirts 57c
Full Fashioned Silk Hose 37c
$2.49 Double Blankets $1.89
$1.79 Colonial Spreads $1.39
"Laundrypruf" Sheets . . . 92c

HIGH'S

THE CONSTITUTION

CLARK HOWELL, President and Publisher
H. E. TROTT, V. Pres. and Business Manager
FRANCIS W. CLARK, Executive Editor

Entered at the Postoffice at Atlanta as second-class mail matter

Telephone Walnut 6665

SUBSCRIPTION RATES
By Carrier or Mail
1 Yr. 1 Mo. 3 Mo. 6 Mo. 1 Yr.
Daily and Sunday 25c 25c 25c 25c 25c
Daily only 20c 20c 20c 20c 20c
Single Copies—Daily 5c, Sunday 10c
BY MAIL ONLY
1 Yr. 1 Mo. 3 Mo. 6 Mo. 1 Yr.
Sunday 10c 10c 10c 10c 10c
Mail rates for R. F. D. and small or non-dealer towns for 1st, 2d and 3d postal zones only, on application.

KELLY-SMITH COMPANY, national representatives, New York, Chicago, Detroit, Boston, Philadelphia, Atlanta.

THE CONSTITUTION is on sale in New York City by P. M. the day after issue. It can be had: Holling's News Stand, Broadway and Forty-third Street (Times Building corner). Request a copy of The Constitution to be delivered to your room each day when you register at a New York hotel.

The Constitution is not responsible for advance payments to out-of-town local carriers, dealers or agents. Receipts given for subscription payments not in accordance with published rates are not authorized; also not responsible for subscription payments until received at office of publication.

Member of the Associated Press.

The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to use for publication all news and material of it or not otherwise credited to this paper and also the local news published herein.

ATLANTA, GA., NOVEMBER 4, 1937.

TUESDAY'S ELECTION RESULTS

The chief significance in the elections held throughout the country Tuesday is in the defeat of CIO-supported candidates in Ohio and Michigan and the crushing blow dealt to Tammany in the overwhelming re-election of Mayor La Guardia and the sweeping victory of Thomas E. Dewey for district attorney.

Ohio and Michigan were centers of the labor troubles precipitated by the CIO last spring and Tammany's defeat is their second consecutive loss at the polls.

In those races where the CIO was a predominant factor, the voters made plain that the majority of American citizens have no sympathy for an organization which employs the tactics which have been typical of the group headed by John L. Lewis.

The CIO has resorted to violence too often, it has too frequently violated its own agreements and it is too radical in its theories to win the support of any considerable proportion of American voters. Revolution, to which CIO tactics point, is repugnant to a nation which governs itself through the ballot.

In New York the fiery, vitriolic La Guardia, re-elected mayor, delivered a serious blow to Tammany Hall as it is now constituted.

Because it was the friendship of Tammany Hall which helped, more than any other northern influence, to bring an end to carpetbag government in the south after the close of the War Between the States, there has always been a sentimental interest in Tammany in this section of the country.

Despite this sympathy, however, it has been plain of recent years that Tammany Hall would have to clean house if it was to retain the respect and support of a majority of the electorate. This Tammany refused, or at least neglected, to do, with the inevitable result that the organization has been removed from a position of power in Gotham politics.

Tammany has become synonymous with municipal graft and corruption and, until it reforms itself upon lines which will command the respect of good citizens, it is well that the control of New York City politics will remain out of its grasp.

Linked with the downfall of Tammany is the fact that the new Manhattan district attorney, Dewey, won his public recognition because of his successful fight against racketeering in New York. No man has done more to smash the organized extortion gangs who preyed upon legitimate business.

SPAIN AND THE AMERICAS

The United States Department of State followed a wise course when it refused to join a group of Latin-American nations in a proffer of arbitration opportunity to the belligerents in strife-torn Spain. The proposal was made by the Cuban government.

There is sound basis, in sentiment at any rate, for any reasonable effort by the nations of Spanish descent, in Central and South America, to end the civil struggle in Spain. It is but natural that nations which consider Spain their own motherland should be dismayed by the horrors of modern war now inflicted upon that ancient land and should be eager, if possible, to enact the role of peacemaker.

The United States, however, would be placing itself in a precarious position if it took any part, other than that of a well-wisher, in any such move. Naturally, this country and all its citizens would rejoice to see peace return to Spain, and to co-operate in any way with our sister republics in Latin America, but intervention in the struggle between Spanish Loyalists and Insurgents is emphatically not a proper role for the United States.

In addition to diplomatic dangers in Europe, this country would face peril to its present happy relations with other nations on the American continents. The United States has no heritage of Spanish descent. This nation is an offshoot of other national stocks. By that very fact there would be the danger, if it took part in a movement based upon Spanish origin, of suspicion by others of its motives.

If the Cuban proposal results in shortening the period of the Spanish war, the United States will be the first to rejoice. It extends to the plan its every good wish for success. But it cannot take part in the proceedings, which are no direct concern of this government.

THE DAVIS SPEECH

Norman H. Davis, United States delegate to the nine-power conference which opened yesterday at Brussels, outlines clearly in his introductory speech the purposes of this nation in joining with other powers to discuss means of bringing the present warfare between Japan and China to an end.

Declaring that America enters the conference with no commitments other than those embodied in treaty provisions and the principles of peace which this government has repeatedly affirmed, Mr. Davis pledges only that "The government of the United States is prepared to share in the common efforts to devise, within the scope of these treaty provisions and principles, a means of finding a pacific solution which will provide for terminating hostilities in the Far East and for restoring peace in that area."

Mr. Davis thus makes plain that the United States takes no greater responsibility for the conference than any other of the nine powers, but that this country is willing to work on an equal footing with all others toward a solution of the Sino-Japanese conflict.

It is significant that Mr. Davis confines the interest of the United States within the scope of the treaty provisions. There is a common, but mistaken, belief that the signatory nations to the nine-power treaty "guaranteed" the territorial integrity of China. The treaty merely involves an agreement to "respect" the territorial integrity of China, a far different matter.

Japan, of course, has violated the treaty by not respecting that territorial integrity, but there is no "pledge" which would commit the other signatories to protect China against depredation by the Japanese, or any other attacking power.

Mr. Davis devotes much of his speech to the theme that whatever disrupts peaceful human relationships in any part of the closely interwoven world of today directly affects the well-being of every citizen of every country. He declares that, not only for humanitarian reasons, but for economic reasons bearing directly upon the well-being of all the world, every effort must be put forth to arrive at an answer to the Far Eastern problem.

He points out that developments of recent years have affirmed the faith expressed in the nine-power treaty that China can reform and rebuild her own people without outside interference and declares that the future well-being of both Japanese and Chinese depend upon friendly co-operation between the two nations.

The American delegate's speech launches the Brussels conference upon a note of realism and understanding and, if this atmosphere can be retained, it holds forth real hope of a happy outcome to the deliberations. It is also gratifying to the United States, which is anxious above all things that this country not become embroiled with Japan, or any other nation, that Mr. Davis indicates, at least by inference, that we will not take the lead in whatever action results from the conference, but will merely co-operate on an equal footing with the other powers in any acceptable program. The United States under no circumstances will consent to play the role of cat's-paw, to take the onus of intervention in the Far Eastern dispute.

AS TO WINE AND BEER LICENSES

City council is to be commended for its action in following the recommendations of the police committee on revocation and issuance of licenses to sell wine and beer.

Georgia has legalized the sale of wine and beer under certain conditions. This move was wise and results have shown its wisdom wherever the intent, as well as the letter of the law has been followed.

By legalizing these comparatively innocuous beverages the state dealt a blow at the bootlegging industry, which, admittedly, is the backbone of organized crime in Atlanta and other cities of Georgia.

Only, however, by rigid control of establishments licensed to dispense these beverages can the full purpose of the law be realized. It is the duty of local authorities to see that sales of wine and beer are not permitted in places with bad reputation as gathering centers for undesirable characters or as bootleggers of outlawed hard liquors.

The police committee is the proper body to investigate all applicants for wine and beer licenses and to recommend revocation of the permit for cause, when advisable. City council, in accepting the recommendations of that committee, backed up with its authority a group of men who are, at best, faced with a difficult and too often thankless duty.

Legalization of wine, beer and, it is to be hoped, eventually whisky, is the best way to handle the drinking problem, but it can be successful only when adequate regulations for its control are adopted and are rigidly enforced, without fear or favoritism. The police committee now knows, by the action of council, that its work to make Atlanta a better and safer place in which to live will bear fruit and is not wasted effort, to be rendered useless at the whim of politics.

Football is a game developing initiative, enterprise and self-reliance, until the $15,000 coach rushes in a substitute with instructions.

By and large, the biggest chrysanthemums in the stadium are worn by dolls who couldn't spell chrysanthemum.

A self-locating golf ball that whistles is high on the list of needed inventions. Also a Japanese bomb that says, "Excuse me, please."

The laughable Japanese would occupy the five provinces only "temporarily." If they mean forever, why don't they say "for the duration of the emergency?"

Some say if she could get hold of a couple of good indorsers, it would be o. k. to let Japan sign another treaty.

So Germany again pledges observance of the inviolability of Belgian soil. They say history repeats itself, and a good joke never dies.

One-Third of America's Voters Call Roosevelt Power Too Great

By DR. GEORGE GALLUP,

Director, American Institute of Public Opinion.

Landon's NEW YORK, Nov. 3. Alfred M. Landon, in his recent "Fireside Chat" as titular head of the Republican party, declared that President Roosevelt has been given too much power. "What he really needs," concluded the former Republican candidate for President, "is less power—a position that will force him to take the advice and counsel of other men of both parties."

What is the attitude of American voters on this issue of personal power? Do they think the president has too much power? The results of a nation-wide "America Speaks" survey by the American Institute of Public Opinion indicate that the majority of voters are less disturbed than Governor Landon over the issue. Only one-third of those polled say Roosevelt should have less power.

But there is a striking division of opinion along economic lines. The voter who is classed as "average plus" or "average," economically speaking, is much more in favor of reducing the President's power than the poor man or the rich. This is a natural reaction in view of the fact that Roosevelt has tried to assist the "have-nots" while cracking down on the "haves" in the form of taxes and regulatory legislation.

The Institute asked voters of all parties "Do you think the president of the United States should have more power or less power than he now has?"

National Vote.
More 18%
Less 35%
About Same 47%

Economic Change
The basic cleavage in present-day politics is an economic cleavage has been shown in other Institute surveys. Here it appears again.

VOTE BY CLASSES
Roosevelt Should Have:
More Less Power Power Same

Average Plus 8% 52% 40%
Average 12 40 48
Poor Plus 17 32 51
Poor 25 27 48
On-Relief 32 21 40

Note how the percentage favoring "less power" for the President declines as one descends the economic scale.

The survey shows that Landon was undoubtedly pressing the sentiment of his 1936 backers in criticizing the President for seeking ing too much power. Republicans polled in the survey were overwhelmingly in favor of reducing Roosevelt's power, while a majority of Democrats are satisfied with things as they are.

The vote:
More Less Power Power Same
Republicans 27% 18% 55%
Democrats 27 18 57

Power Feeds
The survey results raise the question: does the public fear a Roosevelt dictatorship? New Deal opponents have been raising the dictatorship cry for several years. Landon in his radio address declared: "Power feeds on power—today just as it did in the days of Julius Caesar."

When a little over a year ago, the Institute asked voters if they thought Roosevelt's acts and policies might lead to dictatorship, 45 per cent said "yes," 55 per cent "no."

The Institute's latest survey on this question shows that fear of a Roosevelt dictatorship is declining. Today 37 per cent say "yes," as compared to 45 per cent a year ago.

The Haves, Have-Not
On this question, as on the question of personal power, sentiment divides along class lines. A larger percentage of the "haves" than the "have-nots" think the trend is toward dictatorship.

A significant preview of the future is contained in the vote by age groups. The younger generation—those persons between the ages of 18 and 24—have grown up in a period during which the power of the presidency has increased tremendously. They have apparently grown accustomed to this trend because they take an attitude quite different from that of their elders. A large majority of the young voters (68%) say Roosevelt's policies are not leading to dictatorship, whereas voters at the other end of life—55 years and over—are almost evenly divided on this question.

Likewise a smaller percentage of young voters believe Roosevelt's power should be reduced. It seems clear that the young generation looks to a different type of chief executive than the present elder generation has been accustomed to in the past.

(Copyright, 1937, by American Institute of Public Opinion. All rights reserved. Reproduction in whole or in part is forbidden, except with the written consent of the copyright owners.)

SILHOUETTES

By RALPH T. JONES

Just a touch of friendship
As we pass along the way,
Just a word of helpfulness
May save a life, today.

Clever People,
These Americans.
No one can deny the resourcefulness of the American mind—
After half a century of futile struggling to open Pullman car windows, America has solved the problem.

We have invented air conditioning for railroad trains.

Explaining
The Stock Market.
"Most everybody met during the past couple of weeks has had one question to ask:
How do you account for the fluctuations of the stock market?
It has been a most embarrassing question. For the stock market is one field in which Silhouettes frankly confesses extreme ignorance.

This column doesn't even know enough about the market to pretend to know anything. Can't even use the language of the market.

We read column after column by so-called experts. They all sound financially erudite but, somehow, when all the reading was done, ignorance still reigned triumphant on the subject.

The "experts," you see, contradict each other so freely. One will, even, contradict himself a dozen times to the column. You know. "On the other hand—"

"However, if this factor is not considered, it may be said to the contrary."

Etc., etc., etc.
Now, however, we've discovered the real cause back of all the ups and downs of the market reports.

A recent news story reveals that women now control 70 per cent of American industry. That explains it all.

Industrial stocks have gone feminine.
They can't make up their minds.

An Advertising Man
Responds to Inspiration.
John L. de Brueys, an advertising man of Houston, Texas, is a leader in this year's Community Chest campaign in that city. Pondering the problem a few nights ago, he was impelled to turn to verse to express his reactions. He sent a copy of the result for possible use to aid the Chest campaign in Atlanta.

Therefore, knowing how seriously the Atlanta campaign needs help—honestly, I'm kinder 'shamed about the situation—Mr. de Brueys' poem, a paraphrase of Rudyard Kipling's classic "If," is reproduced here.

"If"
(With apologies to Rudyard Kipling)

If you can close your eyes when all about you
The cries of hungry babies fill the air;
If you can sense the human needs that greet you
And still refuse your worldly goods to share;
If you can play the game of watchful waiting
While others do their part to help the cause,
Or with a selfish heart, keep hesitating
And still expect to win the world's applause.

Puerto Rico Fishing.
Governor Blanton Winship, of Puerto Rico, and other deep-sea fishing enthusiasts there who have been catching tuna weighing up to 100 pounds, plan to fish for giant tuna in the extremely deep water just off the coast of the island.

The Governor and his party recently caught more than a ton of tuna, bonito and other large deep-sea fish on a two-day trip.

No Rinsing Tub.
The laundry of Ebenezer, Austria, is the mountain stream which rims the main street.

FAIR ENOUGH

By WESTBROOK PUGLER.

Propbet NEW YORK, Nov. 3.—A book called "One Hundred Years of Progress of the United States," published in Hartford, Conn., in 1870, ventures some interesting predictions as to the developments of the next century. The chapter on prophecy was written by L. P. Brockett, M. D., who was described as an editorial contributor to Appleton's Cyclopaedia, and whatever may be said of the good doctor's opinion, it cannot be charged that he was afraid to go out on a limb.

"There is a strong probability, almost a certainty," he wrote of the annexation of British Columbia, "that the United States will take the whole of Mexico, Central America and the most important islands of the West Indies before the close of the present century."

He predicted that by 1890, 50,000,000 Chinese, Japanese and other Orientals would immigrate to these shores, and said that if another civil war should come it would be due to the discontent of those people over the denial of suffrage and other political rights to the proclivity of the Americans for revolutions and pronouncements. A civil war arising from the aspirations of the Oriental races among us would be a long one, he thought, and might cause a change in the form of government, but the Latin Americans would be put down in a war "short, sharp and decisive," which would put an end to their ambitions.

Oligarchy
"A more reasonable cause for concern in regard to the stability of our form of government," the doctor wrote, "may be found in the tendency of an oligarchy of wealth and political power in our great cities and the fearful corruption of the ballot which now exists. If a man of large wealth, devoid of principle, can, by alien votes, resist or fraudulent naturalization, attain to power in city, county or state, if he can bribe the legislatures, purchase influence or control the judiciary, he may not find it difficult to reach the presidency and make himself president for life, king, emperor or autocrat."

"Our greatest danger as a nation is to be found in the knavery of those railroad kings and chiefs of rings who will employ money to secure irresponsible power. Yet the checks and balances of our system are so admirable that we may fairly hope that our present form of government may be continued for a hundred years. The President then will have a hundred years under his sway. The cards will be such as few men will be able to endure, and the cabinet officers must be more fully responsible to the national legislature."

Dr. Brockett then spoke of gross intoxication in the senate and said that unless there was some change in the method of selecting senators eventually there would be enacted on the floor the scenes of folly, depravity and brutality which previously had been confined to the lower house.

Fine Lot of Of the house he further said:
Lawmakers "Within a few years it has had among its members murderers, gamblers, prize fighters, swindlers and thieves and has been named 'The National Beer Garden.' The judiciary probably will undergo less change than any other department. It would be a sad thing if the justices of the supreme court should ever come to be brawling politicians and demagogues or to the position by unworthy motive or act. It might be well, too, that they should not adhere too slavishly to precedents, but remember, there are cases where it is the duty of the judge to make precedents. Rigid adherence to precedents laid down in other countries at other times has been a great defect in our higher courts, state and national."

Dr. Brockett envisioned a great increase in the use of petroleum fuel, but his imagination didn't quite picture the automobile and airplane, although he did flicker at the use of some practical method of locomotion. He overlooked the first world war, and this country's participation and radio were beyond him.

And, oh yes, Dr. Brockett thought that the advocates of women's suffrage would overthrow their campaign and cause a reaction which for at least a hundred years would stand off the menace of this social and political degradation. Otherwise, he thought, male servants and prostitutes would be bought up and voted by corrupt leaders, young men would lose their reverence for their mothers and political bickerings in the family circle would become intolerable.

(Copyright, 1937, for The Constitution.)

One Language Enough.
The 180 distinct peoples who live in Russia and speak 150 languages today receive thousands of American tourists who speak but one language and find it adequate for getting about.

Test Your Knowledge
Can you answer seven of these test questions? Turn to want ad pages for the answers.

1. Can a person, who is not a lawyer, be appointed a justice of the supreme court of the United States?
2. Name the strait that separates Asia from Alaska.
3. What is snuff?
4. Who was Jean Francois Victor Alcaud?
5. What is another name for the American puma?
6. How many men have held the title "Lord Protector of England?"
7. Name the principal river of Nevada.
8. In what country did the game of Lotto originate?
9. What nickname was applied to James O. Blaine by Colonel Robert G. Ingersoll?
10. When did congress make "The Star-Spangled Banner" the national anthem?

Robbing a Henhouse Isn't Dangerous If the Hens Never Squawk

By ROBERT QUILEN.

If you are an ordinary American, with some knowledge of the tribulations that afflict other lands, you doubtless think yourself fortunate to be living as you are. Yet there are times when you find it difficult to be cheerful, for many things that happen to you seem unfair, unjust and unreasonable.

Suppose, then, you should discover that every injustice and every unfair burden and every mistreatment you endure is caused by the Rotter family who live upon your street. What is your reaction? Do you, upon meeting Mr. Rotter, hail him with a cheery "Good morning, sir; nice morning, isn't it?" Or do you feel a righteous wrath that impels you to join your equally mistreated neighbors in a grim effort to make Mr. Rotter and the whole Rotter family wish they never had been born?

Well, the Rotter family does, deliberately and with malice aforethought, bring upon you every unfair, unjust and unreasonable thing and your pocketbook, and what you will do about it will depend on your degree of understanding, energy, love of justice and plain spunk.

When you buy liability insurance for your car, you are charged an unholly and unreasonable rate. Do you know why? The Rotters cause it by fool driving and by faking damages to defraud the insurance companies. You pay for what the Rotters get.

You carry insurance on your home for 20 years, yet when it burns you have difficulty in collecting your due and the treatment you get humiliates and enrages you. Why? Because the Rotters have cheated the companies so often. You are punished for their sins.

Why are you charged so much for everything you buy? Because business losses are part of the overhead which is added to the price. What the Rotters failed to pay is added to your bill.

You are annoyed by customs officials because the Rotters lied about the contents of their baggage; you are kept out of places you wish to enter because the Rotters stole souvenirs or destroyed the shrubbery; you are roughly handled by the police because lawyers of the Rotter family enable criminals to laugh at policemen; you are taxed too much because the Rotters dodge their taxes; your debt grows greater because the Rotters vote for the man who will rob the treasury to bribe them; in short, what is sowed must be reaped, and the innocent suffer with the guilty, and every hurt you must endure can be traced back to the Rotter family.

It will continue, of course, while the victims remain friendly or indifferent.

(Copyright, 1937, for The Constitution.)

THIS MORNING

By JOHN TEMPLE GRAVES II.

"Once more in glory's van with me!"

Virginia cried to Tennessee.

"We two together, come what may,

Shall stand upon these works today—

The reddest day in history!"

That was at Gettysburg. The more economic and social pairings of this present day give Tennessee for company not Virginia but Kentucky, according to Howard Odum in his famous volume "Southern Regions of the United States." He sees that 11 southern states five pairs and Virginia. The paired ones are North Carolina and South Carolina, Georgia and Florida, Alabama and Mississippi, Louisiana and Arkansas, Tennessee and Kentucky. Not everyone will agree at once with the pairings—or like them. But Dr. Odum is too scientific about it to be disputed. It's all a matter of indices, and he has several hundred of them.

What interests this column about the pairings is that Virginia is odd, standing without a pair. There are those who believe that the Old Dominion, having seceded from the north in 1861, is now seceding from the south, that her economic and social interests are identifying her more and more with the east.

Listen, for example, to Nashville's famed John Crowe Ransom in "Who Owns America?"—Virginia, of all states in the Union probably the most conscious of her history, has a highly ambiguous present position. Virginia's policy, so far as one may be predicted, is unrelated to Virginia's history. The history, aggressively, self-consciously southern; and the policy? I only know that important Virginians say "Virginia really has more eastern affiliations than southern ones; we are not exactly one of your southern states." Which means to me, to the extent that this is official Virginia talk, and feeling that Virginia is bidding for a place in the imperial eastern big-business economy.

The south wouldn't be the south without Virginia. But—and let no Virginian overlook it—Virginia would not be Virginia without the south. The qualities of history and temperament and climate and geography that are endearing the state to hearts beyond the Potomac are essentially southern ones and if Virginia loses her association with the south she will lose place in those northern hearts.

Even if Virginia were no longer southern, she would be under a very practical business necessity of pretending to be. But Virginia is southern. Dr. Odum has got her on his list of indices. Science as well as sentiment claims her. She is southern not merely because of Jefferson Davis, but also because of Carter Glass, because of tobacco, because of the negro, because of temperature, rainfall, the direction of her rivers, the run of her railways, the predominance of her agriculture, the point-

Who could be more enthusiastically southern, for example, than Jay Johns, owner of James Munroe's "Ash Lawn" at Charlottesville and president of the Virginia State Chamber of Commerce. Yet Mr. Johns comes from Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.

GOOD MORNING

By LOUIE D. NEWTON.

THE RIGHT SORT OF FATHER.

Some years ago the son of the late Calvin Coolidge was approached at his work in a tobacco shed by a loafer who casually remarked, "Believe me, if I had a car and my father was President of the United States, you wouldn't catch me doing this kind of work."

Young Coolidge replied: "You would if Calvin Coolidge was your daddy."

When I read the above statement I thought, as you will likely be thinking, what a wonderful thing it would be for this country if we had more fathers like the late Mr. Coolidge. I realize that the late Mr. Coolidge, that you can have the right sort of fathers and mothers and still have the wrong sort of children, but that is the exception and not the rule.

If we had more fathers who insisted that their sons learn how to work and how to save money, we would have fewer tragedies and fewer broken hearts.

The wrong conception of the use of money has been the tragic undoing of more young people than we think—young people who are burdened with wealthy and indulgent parents who are so busy making more money and keeping up with the Joneses that they rob their children of the right to work and learn the value of a dollar.

OFF THE RECORD—By Ed Reed

Enter Ed Reed's Baby Naming Contest! $400 in Cash Prizes! Details Given Elsewhere in The Constitution.

"Remember—this arrangement is all off as soon as the duck season ends."

COMMISSION NAMES ALMAND VICE-HEAD, POST JOHNSON HELD

Special Meeting November 10 Called; New Member Will Be Seated.

Fulton county commissioners yesterday elected Ed L. Almand vice chairman of the commission to fill the post held by the late Commissioner Edwin F. Johnson and called for a special meeting of the board November 10.

The new commissioner, to be elected November 9 to fill the vacancy on the board, will be seated at the special meeting, it was said. Several important measures were held over yesterday for discussion at the called meeting.

Will Be Chairman.
Election of Almand to the vice chairmanship means that he will become chairman of the commis-

72 Roaches Found Inside Alarm Clock

MARIETTA, Ga., Nov. 3.—Pestiferous roaches have conspired to beat Father Time to a dead stop!

When a Marietta householder awoke with a start and realized with the customary concern (you've experienced it), that the usually reliable family alarm clock had failed to function, he investigated.

Inside the erstwhile faithful timepiece he found 72 (by actual count) roaches.

Upon removal of the pests, the clock resumed its regular habits.

sion with the reorganization at the first of the year. The youngest member of the commission in point of service, Almand is the only commissioner who has never served as chairman of the board.

He served as chairman of public works last year and at present is chairman of alms and juveniles committee.

Dr. C. R. Adams, finance committee chairman at present, came into the commission with Almand but has since held the chairman's post.

No mention was made in the commission meeting as to who would be elected to fill the post Commissioner Johnson held before his death as chairman of the police committee. A. L. Ragsdale, present chairman of the board, is serving as acting chairman.

A plan for an extension of the courthouse basement record room was taken under consideration by the board yesterday upon request of J. W. Simmons, clerk of superior court. Simmons read recent grand jury presentations citing a need for additional space to store court records. The recommendation was accepted for study before action is taken.

Speed Curb Mullied.
Referring to presentations of the past grand jury, George F. Longino, chairman of public works, reported to the board that the public works department has been "moving up on an inventory" of materials in the department for more than a month. He suggested that further discussion of the jury's presentations should come up at the special meeting Wednesday.

Upon request of a delegation of Peachtree road residents, headed by Mrs. John W. Grant and Mrs. Trammell Scott, the commission took under consideration plans for a strict curb on speeding along Peachtree road.

An appeal for a tract of land to serve as a camp for negro youths was referred to Commissioner Longino upon request of A. L. Myers, president of the Atlanta Boy Scouts.

Myers reported that the camp site could serve as a recreational spot for negro children and adults. He said that federal aid in developing the tract is being sought.

"Discussion of public works projects, including the metropolitan sewers system in which the city and county are co-operating with the WPA, was deferred until the special session after the election November 9.

'FRAUD' BY RINGLING DERIDED BY OFFICIAL

BRADENTON, Fla., Nov. 3.—(UP)—John W. Graham, assistant Florida attorney general, today termed as "frivolous" the charges by Mrs. Emily Buck Haag Ringling that the late John Ringling obtained a divorce by fraud.

Attorneys for Mrs. Ringling had requested Circuit Judge Harrison to hear a petition for reversal of the divorce and said they would present as witnesses Frank Tomlinson, Ringling's butler, and Miss Ina B. Sanders, Ringling's nurse.

Talmudic Tales

By DAVID MORANTZ.

(Based upon the ancient legends and philosophy found in the Talmud and folklore of the Jewish people. From time to time David Morantz will also answer questions on the religion, customs, ceremonies, institutions, etcetera, of the Jews.)

QUESTIONS I'VE BEEN ASKED.

Do you know how the Old Testament compares in number of words with the New Testament?

Personally, I've never gone to the trouble of counting them, but Dr. Thomas Hartwell Horne in his book, "An Introduction to the Critical Study and Knowledge of the Holy Scriptures," says that an anonymous writer in the eighteenth century spent three years of his life compiling much minute information of the English version of the Bible under the title of the "Old and New Testament Dissected."

According to this compiler's figures, there are 592,439 words in the Old Testament and 181,253 in the New Testament.

He has also even gone so far as to reduce it to the number of letters in each, there being, according to his figures, 2,728,800 letters in the Old Testament, as against 838,380 in the New Testament.

And since figures are fascinating to many people, he presents some most interesting ones on the number of books, chapters and verses in each as follows: Thirty-nine books in the Old Testament; 27 in the New Testament; 929 chapters in the Old and 260 in the New Testament; 23,214 verses in the Old Testament and 7,959 in the New. (If you doubt his word, count them yourself.)

He also says that the word Lord occurs 6,855 times in the Old Testament and points out that the middle chapter and the shortest one in the Bible is Psalms 117 and the shortest verse in the Old Testament is 1 Chronicles 1:25.

Also interesting to note is the fact that four verses of the 107th Psalm are exactly alike, namely, the 8th, 15th, 21st and 31st.

An attractive 195-page autographed gift volume containing 128 of the Talmudic Tales and 500 Pearls of Wisdom may be ordered from The Constitution, $1.50 postpaid.

'Never Again,' Says Atlantan of Close Shave

Constitution Staff Photo—Slayton.
J. T. Ferrell, 885 White street, S. W., is 72 years old and he has sat in a barber's chair for the first time to get a shave and a haircut. But he's made up his mind that he will not repeat the process. He likes his own method better. This is a Constitution Photo Tip.

72-Year-Old Sits In Barber Chair For First Time

After 72 years, J. T. Ferrell, of 885 White street, S. W., sat in a barber's chair for a shave and haircut for the first time Saturday—but he won't repeat the process.

"I like my own way better and I'm going to stick to it," he said yesterday.

His own way consists of shaving himself and having members of the family cut his hair for him.

"At my age I'm not thinking about looking pretty," he added, "and I feel much more comfortable if I'm holding the razor that close to my throat."

Still excited, however, over his first barber chair venture he admitted that it was somewhat of a thrill. His grandchildren, who accompanied him to the barber shop, said "grandpa was thrilled to death."

Explaining his unusual reluctance to visit a barber shop, Ferrell said, "I heard when I was quite a young man that there was always the chance that the barber might not like you for some reason. So I decided there was no use taking a chance. From the time I first started shaving until now I never went near a barber shop. When my hair needed cutting there was always someone around to give it a little clip here and there with the scissors. That was enough for me."

Since he only shaves once a week and since he treats himself to a family haircut about every four or five weeks, he doesn't feel that anyone is being overtaxed.

"It's all right to try something new every now and then, but I'll stick to the old method every time," he said.

KING'S SISTER-IN-LAW RESTS AFTER OPERATION

LONDON, Nov. 3.—(P)—The Duchess of Gloucester, 35-year-old Scottish wife of the brother of King George, tonight was ordered by four royal physicians to take a month's rest following a minor operation this morning.

She will be confined to York house, where the operation was performed, on the second anniversary of her wedding to the third son of Queen Mary next Saturday.

MORRIS PLAN IS THE PLAN FOR PROGRESS

Inside many a door marked "Executive Office" or "President" you will find a man who once needed credit to help him get there.

Many of them have used our financial service to help them go ahead. You, too, may want to establish credit; come in any time and learn about "banking for the individual."

MORRIS PLAN BANK

34 PEACHTREE ST. - AT FIVE POINTS
2 1/2% INTEREST PAID ON SAVINGS
MEMBER OF FEDERAL DEPOSIT INSURANCE CORP.
$5,000 MAXIMUM INSURANCE FOR EACH DEPOSITOR

'Stork Derby' Goes To Supreme Court

OTTAWA, Nov. 3.—(P)—Toronto's famous "stork derby" today reached the Canadian supreme court.

The case came on appeal for a final ruling on the will of Charles Vance Millar, eccentric millionaire, who left the residue of his rich estate to the Toronto mother bearing the most children in the decade following his death.

A second ruling is asked on whether illegitimate children are eligible to be counted in the race which ended October 31, 1936, with more than a half-dozen mothers presenting conflicting claims to victory.

ITALY TODAY MARKS END OF WORLD WAR

19th Anniversary Finds Rome Linked With Former Foe, Opposing Allies.

ROME, Nov. 3.—(P)—Italy will celebrate Armistice Day tomorrow with displays of her military power.

Observed a week earlier here than in other of the former allied countries, the day will commemorate the cessation of fighting on the Italian front following the victorious Piave campaign.

Newspapers today asserted that campaign "paved the way" for the later armistice on the western front.

Just as the nineteenth anniversary of Italy's World War victory finds the Rome-Berlin axis firmly established, it also finds her sharply at odds with her erstwhile allies, France, Great Britain and Russia.

The official program issued by the government for the observance was filled with patriotic exhortations and descriptions of World War valor, but did not state against whom the war was fought.

On the other hand, the press displayed attacks on France, Britain and Russia. British Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden was taken to task especially for his reply in the house of commons to Mussolini's demand for restoration of German colonies.

Charged with the fatal shooting of his next-door neighbor, John C. Dill, August 3, on North avenue, John A. Fuss, WPA carpenter, went on trial for murder yesterday before Judge Edgar E. Pomeroy in Fulton superior court.

The shooting occurred as the result of a backyard argument between Mrs. Fuss and Geneva Grier, 16-year-old niece of Mrs. Dill.

The case was adjourned late yesterday until 9:30 o'clock this morning after the defense had brought into question the character of a state's witness, allegedly for "operating a dive."

Assistant Solicitor Quincy Arnold charged city council's ordinance on dives is "null and void because the word 'dive' has never been specifically defined."

"No one could be convicted for operating or being an occupant of a dive in recorder's court if he were properly represented," he said.

Rosa Lee McWaters testified from the stand that Mrs. Fuss and the girl were fighting in the backyard and that as Dill attempted to pull the girl away, Fuss drew a gun from his shirt and shot Dill.

NEW PAPER MILL UNIT.
SAVANNAH, Ga., Nov. 3.—The third unit of the Union Bag and Paper Corporation has been completed and began operation today, James H. Allen, vice president in charge of the Savannah plant, announced.

SAVANNAH, Ga., Nov. 3.—The third unit of the Union Bag and Paper Corporation has been completed and began operation today, James H. Allen, vice president in charge of the Savannah plant, announced.

GET UP NIGHTS? FLUSH KIDNEYS WITH

Juniper oil, buchu leaves, etc. Make this simple test if passage is scanty, irregular, smart or burns, have frequent desire, get up nights or if kidneys are sluggish, causing backache. Use juniper oil, buchu leaves, etc., made into little green tablets called Bukets to flush the kidneys. Just as you would use castor oil to flush the bowels. Help nature eliminate troublesome waste and excess acids. Ask any druggist for the test box of Bukets. Locally at Jacobs Pharmacy.—(adv.)

WOMEN DEMOCRATS ELEVATE ATLANTAN

Mrs. R. L. Turman Made First Vice President of Affiliated Clubs.

SAVANNAH, Ga., Nov. 3.—(P)—Mrs. R. L. Turman, of Atlanta, was named first vice president of the Affiliated Democratic Women's Clubs of Georgia, in conference here, at a meeting of the executive board today, following the resignation of Miss Caroline Eakes, of Griffin.

Mrs. Turman was elevated from second vice president, and Mrs. Wheeler Tolbert, of Columbus, third vice president, was named to succeed her. Mrs. Louis J. Roos, of Savannah, was elected third vice president.

Among the resolution reviewed was one approving the tax and civil service program of the state administration.

The annual convention will open tomorrow.

The executive board today considered extension of club activities to all counties of the state, and obtaining a large circulation for the Digest, official publication of the National Democratic Women's organization.

Official circles said there was a possibility a resolution would be presented the convention urging the general assembly to pass a law prohibiting live stock owners from allowing their cattle to wander along highways.

A jury school for women will

Don't Neglect a Cold

Rub soothing, warming Musterole well into your chest and throat. Musterole is NOT just a salve. It's a "counter-irritant" containing good old-fashioned cold remedies—oil of mustard, menthol, camphor and other valuable ingredients.

That's why it gets such fine results—better than the old-fashioned mustard plaster. Musterole penetrates, stimulates, warms and soothes, helpful in drawing out local congestion and pain. Used by millions for 30 years. Recommended by many doctors and nurses. All druggists. In three strengths: Regular Strength, Children's (mild), and Extra Strong.

open tomorrow afternoon. Women leaders in Georgia are seeking inclusion of women on jury panels.

Speakers at tomorrow's meetings include Mrs. J. A. Rollison, of Waycross, president of the organization; Mrs. Virginia Price, of Louisville, national Democratic committeewoman from Georgia;

Mrs. A. B. Conger, of Bainbridge, president of the State Federation of Women's Clubs, and Miss Gay Shepperson, state WPA administrator.

United States Senator Walter George is scheduled to address a banquet meeting tomorrow night.

BUY NOW!

While We're Celebrating

THE Ten Millionth
PHILCO

Extra Values! Extra Easy Terms! Extra Trade-in Allowances!

Don't fail to take advantage of our celebration of radio's greatest achievement... the Ten Millionth Philco! Own a new 1938 Automatic Tuning Philco—with Inclined Control Panel—on the easiest terms ever offered. One glance... a flick of your fingers... there's your station, tuned instantly, easily, gracefully, automatically.

Free! NO SQUAT NO STOOP NO SQUINT

Philco 7XX

Now before a buy like this the Inclined Control Panel, Cone-Drive Automatic Tuning, Philco Famous Tuning System, all the latest features. Only...

$50.00 IN CASH PRIZES!

$89.95

INSTALLED

BAME'S, Inc.

60 BROAD ST., N. W. WA. 5776

FIRE NOTICE!

Due to the confusion and disarrangement following the unfortunate fire of Tuesday, our store will be closed temporarily, to permit us to rearrange our stocks and segregate our damaged merchandise.

Until further notice, therefore, we ask the indulgence of the public whose confidence and friendship we have enjoyed for many years.

We particularly desire to commend the Atlanta Fire Department whose efficiency prevented a much greater catastrophe.

Our Office, 151 Whitehall St. Will Remain Open to Receive Payments on Accounts

WATCH THE PAPERS FOR FURTHER ANNOUNCEMENTS!

CARROLL Furniture Company

THE FRIENDLY STORE

147-153 WHITEHALL STREET

High's Buyers' and Managers' Daring Sale

SMART-NEW WINTER FELTS

You'd Expect to Pay $1.49 and $1.98!

ALL COLORS

ALL HEAD-SIZES

Special today! Feature purchase of these smart new winter hats enables us to bring them to you at this tremendous, daring savings! Be early for first choice!

MILLINERY DEPT.

Basement HIGH'S

I WAS NEVER SO EMBARRASSED

-FOR I KNEW THAT ACID-INDIGESTION WAS DISTRESSING TO ME AND OFFENSIVE TO OTHERS

BUT NOW-I JUST

ALKALIZE THE EASY PHILLIPS' WAY

The quick way to alkalize is this: Take two teaspoons of Phillips' Milk of Magnesia 30 minutes after eating and drinking. Or, when among others—take two Phillips' Tablets that come in a small flat tin you carry in purse or vest pocket.—You do it unnoticed.

Relief is almost immediate. Gas, nausea, acid breath and other offensive symptoms leave.—That "stuffed" feeling and pains from "acid indigestion" cease to annoy. You feel great.

This is the way, we believe, more doctors use than any other when alkalizing upset stomach.

PHILLIPS' Milk of Magnesia

PHILLIPS' Tablets

PHILLIPS' Tablets

REV. B. F. FRASER, METHODIST LEADER FOR 50 YEARS, DIES

Funeral for Minister To Be Held Tomorrow at Wesley Memorial.

The Rev. B. F. Fraser, 77, superannuated Methodist minister, died yesterday morning at Emory University hospital after being critically ill for several days. He lived at 515 Hemphill avenue, College Park.

Funeral rites will be conducted at 11 o'clock tomorrow morning from Wesley Memorial church, with burial following in Sardis churchyard at Sardis, Ga.

The Rev. Mr. Fraser was born in Hall county March 23, 1860, and was in the ministry for more than 50 years. In Atlanta, he served at Walker Street, St. Paul, Wesley Memorial, Bethany and Grant Park Methodist churches.

Other churches he served were at Toccoa, Cave Spring, Rome, Augusta, Dalton, Elberton and Gainesville.

His last charge, before his retirement a year ago, was Bethany church, Atlanta.

Surviving are his wife, the former Miss Lula McAllister, of Toccoa; three sons, Young Harris Fraser, B. F. Fraser Jr., and Paul H. Fraser, of Atlanta; a sister, Mrs. Emma Cooksey, of Laredo, Texas, and eight grandchildren.

When COLDS THREATEN—

Used at first sneeze, this specialized medication for the nose and upper throat—helps prevent many colds.

VICKS VA-TRO-NOL

Do You Know?

... that Seventh Avenue and 50th Street, New York, was considered "out in the country" as late as 1850?

AND...do you know...?

... that today the site of the Taft is the very center of this great metropolis.

2000 ROOMS, WITH BATH AND RADIO FROM $2.50

HOTEL ALFRED LEWIS, Mgr.
TAFT
7th Ave., at 50th St.
NEW YORK
• AT RADIO CITY •

$400- IN CASH PRIZES

FOR NAMING ED REED'S "OFF THE RECORD" BABIES!

- Any person, adult or juvenile, may enter this contest. Only one set of three names will be accepted from each participant.
- Send only one set of three names for the two boys and one girl baby along with a statement—on why you are making a name—on "Why I Like 'Off the Record'."
- Literary value of letters or elaborate artistic preparation will not be considered in making awards. Just a simple statement on why you like "Off the Record" and the best sets of names will determine winners.
- Employees of this newspaper, and members of their families are not eligible to participate. This does not apply to carriers and their families.
- Prizes will be awarded for the best set of three names and 26-word statement. Winners will be announced in The Constitution December 15th.
- All entries must be postmarked not later than November 6. Winning names and statements will be selected by Ed Reed and The Constitution. Names selected to become the property of The Constitution and Tribune Syndicate.
- 104 BIG CASH PRIZES—$100 Cash, first prize; $50 Cash, second prize; $25 Cash, third prize; $10 Cash, fourth prize; fifty cash prizes of $5 each; fifty cash prizes of $1 each.

Send your set of names today to Ed Reed at
The Constitution
Atlanta

Is This the Duchess of Windsor? No, It Is an Atlantan

Mrs. J. W. Fiveash, 352 Sixth street, bears such a striking resemblance to the Duchess of Windsor that strangers are continually remarking about it to her. Very much the same size as the Duchess, she wears her chestnut hair parted in the middle and dressed in the manner worn by "Wally." But she has been wearing her hair like this for two years and doesn't think she looks like "Wally."

Woman Here Known as 'Duchess' Because of Resemblance to Wally

But Mrs. J. W. Fiveash Can't See the Likeness; Atlantan's Taste in Clothes Is Similar, But She Denies Copying Duke's Wife.

By MAXINE LAND.
Although everyone calls her "Duchess" wherever she goes and friends who haven't seen her for a number of years are amazed at her striking likeness to the Duchess of Windsor, Mrs. J. W. Fiveash, of 352 Sixth street, says she can't see any resemblance.

Much the same size as the attractive brunette who captured the heart of the world's most sought-after bachelor, her chestnut hair and blue eyes bring out more clearly the rather angular, well-chiseled features of the Duchess and hers are very much alike.

Doesn't Copy.
Though she has had her coiffure in the present style since her hair has been long, about two years, she has never tried to copy the hairdress of the Duchess, which set the style for so many American women. She said:

"I simply wear it this way because it seems to be more becoming."

Though never actually mistaken for the Duchess, Mrs. Fiveash says that everywhere she goes people come to her and tell her of her strong resemblance to "Wally." "Of course, I feel very flattered," she said. "Though I can't see it myself, I have heard it so much that I think perhaps there might be a little something to it."

Likes Simple Clothes.
"I like clothes that are simple and severely cut," she added, "just as the Duchess seems to prefer. But I like them because they are the kind of clothes most becoming to me, and not as a means of copying, though I admire her good taste in clothes. I just wouldn't look right in frills and ruffles and I know it."

The mother of two charming little daughters, Patsy, 7, and Rebecca, 4, the greater portion of her time is taken up with her home and family.

"I am certainly looking forward to seeing the Duke and Duchess when they come to Atlanta," she added enthusiastically.

Mrs. Fiveash confided yesterday that her husband had never referred to the resemblance between herself and the Duchess. "Perhaps he's never noticed it," she said.

Illness He Hasn't Got Costs Atlanta Man $4

Rheumatism—which he did not have—cost an 80-year-old man $4 yesterday.

R. M. Durr, of 297 Ormond street, S. E., told police that he was standing in front of his home at about 12 o'clock yesterday when a car with a man and four women drove up. They inquired for the address of a Mr. Miller.

While he was telling them that he knew of no Mr. Miller, one of the women asked him if he had the rheumatism. At the same time, the man got out of the car and came over to him and felt to see if Durr was a rheumatic. When the man finished his diagnosis, he told Durr that he did not have any rheumatism and departed with his companions—also with Durr's $4.

TWO SKULLS STOLEN.

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., Nov. 3.—(UP)—Two human skulls, borrowed from a hospital by a bakery

'Stand In' Opens Today At Loew's Grand

Tay Garnett, one of Hollywood's most expert directors, returns to his job (after a year's adventuring around the world in his yacht) with a story of Hollywood, an adaptation of Clarence Buddington Kelland's recent Saturday Evening Post story, "Stand-In," which starts today at Loew's Grand theater, with Leslie Howard, Joan Blondell, Humphrey Bogart, Alan Mowbray, Marla Shelton, C. Henry Gordon and Jack Carson in prominent roles.

"Stand-In" like "A Star Is Born," is at once a shrewd and sympathetic story of Hollywood, well aware of the comedy of the moving picture capital and its ways, but also appreciative of the loyalties, the humanness, and the picturesqueness of the people who make the films.

for a Halloween party, were stolen today, the bakery reported to police.

Bronchial Coughs Need Creomulsion

Just a common cough, a chest cold, or a bronchial irritation of today may lead to serious trouble tomorrow. They may be relieved now with Creomulsion, an emulsified Creosote that is pleasant to take.

Creomulsion is a medicinal combination designed to aid nature in soothing and healing infected mucous membranes by allaying irritation and inflammation and by aiding in loosening and expelling the germ-laden phlegm.

The Medical Profession has for many years recognized the beneficial effect of Beechwood Creosote in the treatment of coughs, chest colds, and bronchial irritations. A special process was worked out by a chemist, for blending Creosote with other ingredients and now in Creomulsion you get a real dose of genuine Beechwood Creosote which is palatable and can even be taken frequently and continuously by both adults and children.

Creomulsion is one preparation that goes to the very seat of the trouble to help loosen and expel the germ-laden phlegm. When coughs, chest colds and bronchial troubles—due to common colds—hang on, get a bottle of Creomulsion from your druggist, use it as directed and if you are not satisfied with the relief obtained, the druggist is authorized to refund every cent of your money. Creomulsion is one word—not two, and it has no hyphen in it. Ask for it plainly, see that the name on the bottle is Creomulsion, and you'll get the genuine product and the relief that you want. (Adv.)

Don't TRUST AN OLD TRUSS!

You endanger your chance for complete recovery from rupture if your truss is old, sagging, out-of-date. Consult our expert, Dr. Sidney Jacobs, about your case.

Complete Stocks of Trusses, Surgical Goods, Etc.

JACOBS PHARMACY CO.
WHITEHALL AT ALABAMA STREET

The paradise nut of South America grows in a big pod that holds nearly a quart of nuts.

DEKALB
Today Only
"THE ROAD BACK"
(Sequel to "All Quiet on the Western Front")

SATURDAY NIGHT AT 11:30
"VARSITY NITE" A PREVIEW OF "CONQUEST"
At Loew's Grand

WEST END THEATRE
THURSDAY-FRIDAY
"Easy Living"
WITH Jean Arthur-Ray Milland

RIALTO STARTS FRIDAY
M-G-M PRESENTS
JOSEPHINE HUTCHINSON
GEORGE MURPHY
"WOMEN MEN MARRY"
ADDED ATTRACTION
A New Community Sing
A New Screen Snapshot

COLLEGE PARK THEATRE
Thursday and Friday
"SEVENTH HEAVEN"
WITH
SIMONE SIMON-JAMES STEWART

RIALTO LAST TIMES TODAY
HARLOW
Suzy
TONE GRANT

CAPITOL Screens
Van Hefflin
Marian Marsh
—in—"Saturday's Heroes"
8 ACTS VODVIL Starts Sunday

KARLOFF
WEST OF SHANGHAI
RICARDO CORTES
BEVERLY ROBERTS
A MAX BAER PRODUCTION

Bring the Family to Dinner Tonight.

Dine Tonight on Peacock Alley's Newly-Decorated Glassed-in Terrace

Roast McEntire Turkey
With Celery Dressing, Snowflake Potatoes, New English Peas, Cranberry Sauce, Hot Homemade Rolls and Choice of Drink.

55c

PEACOCK ALLEY
Peachtree and Spring

LUCAS & JENKINS

LAST DAY
Errol FLYNN
Joan Blondell
"PERFECT SPECIMEN"

TOMORROW
CANTOR
IN ALL RABBIT GOES TO TOWN
Tony Martin-June Lang
Louise Hovick

FOX
THE SOUTH'S FINEST

LAST DAY
CHAS. (BUDDY) ROGERS
BETTY GRABLE
Mary Livingstone
in
"This Way, Please"

TOMORROW
HE PLAYED THE BLONDE MARKET
STRAUBACH
MARSHALL
BREAKFAST FOR TWO

PARAMOUNT PLUS
"MARCH OF TIME"
FEATURING IMPORTANT TOPIC OF THE DAY

HE PUT FIVE MILLION DOLLARS INTO A MOVIE STUDIO

AND WHAT A RUN HE GOT FOR HIS MONEY

He took all of Hollywood's paper assets—and turned them into a marriage license for himself, and a starring contract for the girl he loved—this milk-and-water banker who turned into a rough-riding hero man when a beautiful extra girl showed him the way around! It's exciting—it's romantic—it's grand!

WALTER WANGER presents

Leslie HOWARD Joan BLONDELL

"Stand-in"

HUMPHREY BOGART

ALAN MOWBRAY · MARLA SHELTON
C. HENRY GORDON · JACK CARSON

Directed by TAY GARNETT

Screenplay by GENE TOWNE and GRAHAM BAKER

Released thru United Artists

STARTS TODAY! DOORS OPEN 10:30 A.M. LOEW'S GRAND 25¢ IN BALCONY ANYTIME STARTS TODAY!

BRAZIL ABANDONS SEVEN-YEAR FIGHT TO 'CONTROL' COFFEE

Prepares To Pour Into World Markets Some 2,644,800,000 Pounds.

RIO DE JANEIRO, Nov. 3.—(P) Brazil ended a seven-year-old effort to control coffee prices today and prepared to pour into world markets some 20,000,000 bags of 132.24 pounds each.

At the same time she ended the attempts of more than a year to share with Colombia and other large coffee-producing nations the cost of balancing world supply with demand.

Coffee Exchanges Closed.
To prevent damaging speculation, the finance ministry ordered coffee exchanges at Rio de Janeiro, Santos and Victoria closed indefinitely while the government worked out a new coffee program. It added that the government would provide banking assistance, reduce taxes and take over remedial measures to speed the export of Brazil's huge coffee crop and assist Brazilian growers to compete favorably in foreign markets.

(On the New York exchange, Santos futures opened at 8.12 cents a pound, off a full cent—the limit of decline permitted in a day's trading.)

Little Effect Predicted.
(Observers in New York, however, said Brazil's new program probably would have little effect on the cost of coffee to the average housewife.)

(They said the cost of roasting, packaging and distributing likely would maintain retail prices around current figures, at least for some time.)

Finance Minister Arthur De Souza Costa declined to say tonight what specific measures would be adopted.

The official national coffee department said a reduction in the export tax from the present figure of $2.70 a bag to about 90 cents was "highly probable."

CRASHES KILL 4 ON FLORIDA ROADS

Man and Woman Plunge to Death Through Rail.

By The Associated Press.
Four persons died and another was critically hurt in a series of Florida accidents yesterday.

A man and woman plunged to their deaths in an automobile that went through the railing of a bridge over the inland canal near Panama City. Officers identified the man as Will Yarbrough, of the Mill Bayou section. The identity of the woman was not definitely established.

Two machines collided near Daytona Beach. A 14-year-old boy, Tommy Beach, son of an Ormond, Fla., garage operator, died of a fractured skull. John Kirby, 22, of Ormond, also suffered a fractured skull.

Frank Tomlinson, 37, of MacClenny, Fla., died near Jacksonville when a truck he was driving overturned.

COMMITTEES CHOSEN AT LUTHERAN SESSION

OGLETHORPE, Ga., Nov. 3.—(P)—The Rev. W. J. Ducker, of Macon, president, appointed several committees today at the Northern conference of the Georgia-Alabama synod of the Lutheran church, convening here. The conference opened last night and will continue until noon tomorrow. The Rev. G. H. C. Park, pastor of the Atlanta church, delivered the sermon today.

Mr. Ducker appointed the following committees: Auditing, the Rev. C. C. Hainly, of Cullman, Ala., and J. S. Wise, of Plains; letters, petitions and excuses, the Rev. E. H. Seckinger, of Plains, and the Rev. George Hart, of Atlanta; the resolutions committee, Mr. Park and A. L. Seagle, of the Atlanta Redeemer church.

FRANK ROBBINS NAMED TO NEW RAILROAD POST

Frank S. Robbins has been appointed superintendent of motive power of the Atlantic Coast Line railroad, it was announced yesterday.

Mr. Robbins, who leaves a similar position with the Florida East Coast railroad, will make his headquarters in Wilmington, N. C. For many years a member of the Southern & Southwestern Railway Club of Atlanta, and a past president of this organization, Mr. Robbins is well known in Atlanta.

FROST WITH FAIR SKIES IS SCHEDULED TODAY

Continued fair weather with frost this morning was predicted yesterday by the weatherman.

"Skies will be clear and the weather much colder. Temperatures will range between a low of 36 and a high of 58 degrees," the weatherman said. The mercury yesterday ranged between 46 and 59 degrees.

FLORIDA WOMAN NAMED.
INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Nov. 3.—(P)—Appointment of Mrs. Rupert Smith, of Arcadia, Fla., to the vice chairmanship of the national junior activities committee of the American Legion auxiliary was announced at auxiliary headquarters here.

RELIEVES HEADACHES IN SHORT ORDER

Headaches, neuralgia and muscular aches yield promptly to the quick-acting prescription-type ingredients in "BC" formula.

RESTAURANT Majestic

1026 PEACHTREE AT TENTH

All This Week Celebrate Their

8th ANNIVERSARY

GREATLY

Enlarged

FLOOR SPACE!

SPECIAL FOR TONIGHT COMPLETE TURKEY DINNER--40c

The remarkable growth of the Majestic Restaurant, which was organized during the depression in 1929, is proof that this restaurant is catering to the popular tastes of the public. Now, due to the fine patronage of the north side, we have expanded again—with increased table space—and a pleasant private dining room! Thanks, Atlanta, for making this expansion possible. May we continue to serve you!

We Use and Recommend the Following Products:

Coffee, tea, spices and extracts supplied by MOCHA COFFEE CO., Inc.
JA. 1344

We feature these fine cigars—
Garcia Grande Melba
Cortez Keep Moving
Muriel Admirer
La Azora Santaella

J. N. HIRSCH
144 Marietta St., N. W.—JA. 2976

GEO. MOORE ICE CREAM
Used Exclusively
54 Alabama St., S. W.—WA. 4968

W. O. PIERCE DAIRY
SUPPLIES USED EXCLUSIVELY.
CHAMBLEE, GA.—CH. 2213

ROY H. PETREE
602 Means, N. W.—HE. 3912
Sea Foods Always Under Refrigeration

We use "MONARCH" FINER FOODS the choicest fruits and vegetables from the world's finest orchards and gardens.

Congratulations and best wishes from
POST OFFICE DELICATESSEN
31 Marietta St., N. W.—WA. 8045

ORIGINAL WAFFLE SHOP
JOHN D. CHOTAS, Mgr.
62 Pryor, N. E.—MA. 1552

Congratulations and Best Wishes From FULTON BAKING CO., INC.
Bread, Pies, and Cakes
191 Edgewood Ave.—JA. 3880

MILBOURNE OYSTER CO.
Crisfield, Maryland
Supplies the Following Products: Chesapeake Oysters, Fresh Crab Meat, Scallops, Soft Shell Crabs, Salt Water Clams.

H. C. ROWE & CO.—Oyster Growers
New Haven, Conn.
Cultivators and shippers of Gardiner's Bay, North Sea, and Robbins Island Oysters.

Congratulations
MCCORMICK'S BANQUET
Extra Fancy—Orange Pekoe Tea

Linen Spotlessly Cleaned by ATLANTA LINEN SUPPLY CO.
429 Highland Ave., N. E.—WA. 7335

Hav-a-Tampa Cigars
J. B. WITHERS CIGAR CO.
203 Marietta St., N. W.—JA. 1800

TENNESSEE EGG CO.
189 Spring St., S. W.—WA. 6775
Poultry and Eggs Used Exclusively

Booths Furnished and Installed by FLOYD BROS., CABINET MAKERS
JA. 2366

Neon Signs and Trimmings Furnished by NEON SERVICE CO.
197 Spring, N. W.—MA. 2829

Produce Furnished by CEFALU & CO.
100 Mitchell St., S. W.—WA. 5882

Printing Furnished by ANTHONY'S PRINTING SHOP
561 Poplar St., N. W.—JA. 0342

Insect and Rodent Control
GETZ EXTERMINATORS, INC.
92 Plaza Way, S. W.—WA. 7784

SUGAR CREEK CREAMERY
Knoxville, Tenn.
Butter Used Exclusively

Paramount Wholesale Grocery Co., Inc.
145 Edgewood Ave.—JA. 1664

Fancy Groceries Furnished by H. L. SINGER CO.
MA. 2600

Bread and Rolls Furnished by ZAKAS BAKERY
195 Garnett, S. W.—WA. 6712

Now!

We Have Ample Seating Capacity To Take Care Of The Big Crowds

No More Waiting for Tables

THE BEST IN FOODS

always served at the

Majestic

Selected in person by an expert buyer, every item of food used by Majestic undergoes rigid inspection as to quality, purity and delectability.

The North Side's Eating Place of EXCELLENCE!

Majestic

RESTAURANT

1026-28 Peachtree Street

THE GUMPS—TOM TO THE RESCUE

LITTLE ORPHAN ANNIE—COME AND GET IT

MOON MULLINS—THERE BY HANGS THE TAIL

DICK TRACY—BACK SEAT DRIVER

JANE ARDEN—Job Wanted

Reg. U. S. Pat. Off.

By Monte Barrett and Russell Ross

SMITTY—PLAYING HIS CARDS

CONSTITUTION'S DAILY CROSS WORD PUZZLE

HURRICANE HOUSE

By Bruce Henry

WHAT HAS GONE BEFORE:

Gil Ferris, young engineer, inherits a rambling old house in Miami and a comfortable income on the death of his brother Morton, a fortune teller, whom he had hoped to marry in New York, but she refused him and, accompanied by her Aunt Morinda, followed Morton south. She tells Gil that Morton was kidnapping her while nursing the Everglades and tortured by enemies in an attempt to learn a secret he held. He escaped, she believes. Morton's delicious ravings, while ill, the actions of a man named Boomsa, mysterious phone calls from a woman all bear out this assumption. She declares: Gil is unconvinced. A woman claiming to be Morton's widow arrives at Gil's new home. Gil accepts Fortuna Ferris at her own valuation out of the scheme to learn Morton's important secret. Having discharged Morton's negro servant Stephen, Gil takes Fortuna out to dinner. Walter Boomsa greets her as an old friend, introduces them to Walter's wife, and they go to various night clubs. Bored, Gil suggests to Walter that they go to Nassau by plane. He's angry when he finds his friend's plan to take a girl named April, who is a friend of his, to Nassau. He tries to make love to her. He sees Boomsa, evidently eavesdropping, pistol in hand. Stephen appears, saying information he gave April sent to Nassau. He fires. Gil. NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY.

INSTALLMENT X.

"You will answer me," the man said softly, bending over her. His fingers pressed into the flesh of her shoulder. She closed her eyes, then opened them to send a blazing look of defiance at him. "Ver' well."

He strode out of her vision, and April found her whole body trembling. She must not let him break her will. She must not for a minute. He came back, stood beside the bed. In his hand was coiled a whip of plaited leather. He let it unroll slowly.

"I had hoped I would not have to use this," he said. Gil looked gloomily out into the night. The plane's motors roared too loudly to allow conversation with Captain Worley, and besides that red-faced old salt was snoring lustily in his seat as though there weren't a worry or a care in the world.

The grizzled smuggler hadn't been of much help either, Gil thought irritably. All he had known was that he hadn't received any letter from Stephen, didn't, for that matter, know Morton was dead. If he knew anything other than those negative facts, he wasn't telling more, at any rate.

Up front the young pilot slumped in what happened to be a careless pose, against the back of his seat. Now and then he moved the wheel he held slightly, or shifted his feet on the rudder bar. Whether they were traveling a hundred miles an hour or ten, Gil couldn't tell, except that the illuminated tachometer on the instrument panel swore their speed was satisfyingly high. Outside the night rushed by in Stygian cloak, unbroken by even the sight of a star. Gil stared into it impatiently, worried, harassed with anxiety for April.

Why had the little idiot gone off alone, without him, like that? She should have known better. Admittedly he hadn't been much in sympathy with her cause—though heaven knew he was gradually coming around to the realization there was more to Morton's past, perhaps his death, than met the eye—and April had not, for that reason, completely trusted him. The thought hurt. She should have. With Morton gone, it was up to him to see she was protected, kept from harm, no matter how his attitude toward her, romantically, may have changed. But had he fulfilled the obligation? If April was not, first shot out of the box he had let her get away and go highballing across the Gulf stream to what was, comparatively speaking, a half civilized island where serious complications might have sprung up. And now she had, it seemed, been drawn into a cleverly laid trap. A trip set with cunning. He was sure of that. The facts bore it out. Stephen had written a letter to Captain Worley. The captain had never received it. Yet Stephen had gotten an answer, purportedly from the captain, telling her to have April come to Nassau for a rendezvous. It all added up. Some one wanted to get April where they could.

He hated to think what might have happened to her by now. Wouldn't this confounded plane go any faster? It seemed like hours since they had coursed across the airport at Miami and leaped into the air. He pulled a cigarette but the pilot shook his head. He glimpsed the gesture in a mirror above the instrument board. Gil stuffed the package back in his pocket angrily. He'd go crazy pretty soon, at this rate.

After he got to Nassau, what then? If April wasn't at the hotel, where would he search for her? He hadn't the slightest idea what sort of people had trapped the girl into going there, nor did he know what they might do with her once they had her alone. If only Ronnie were here! After all, he knew all the tricks of crooks. A screwy lad in many ways, but when it came to guessing the next move of a crime-twisted brain, there wasn't a better guesser in the world than Ronnie. If he hadn't been born with so darn much money he'd have made a fortune anyway, tracking down criminals.

But Ronnie wouldn't be in Miami, even, until tomorrow morning. And then he'd wait, as ordered, for two days before coming to Nassau. Gil regretted not having asked his friend to follow him immediately.

"I'm imagining things," he growled to himself. "Probably we will land in Nassau to find April waiting quietly in the hotel. . . . The plane's motors slowed. They stopped altogether. The nose of the ship dipped sharply as the pilot banked. "Here we are," the young flyer called cheerfully. "I'll land on the water. It's closer to the center of town than the field."

Gil looked out and down. Below an amazing small patch of lights glittered feebly, their reflection thrown back by the calmness of the bay. Gil shook Worley's brawny arm, awakened him to yawning consciousness. Gil's hand was already on the door handle as the ship floated softly to a smooth landing and taxied across the water to the piers. He glanced at his watch. It was after midnight.

"We'll go to the hotel first," he jerked nervously at Captain Worley. For the first time since they had left Miami the old smuggler spoke. "Ain't no sense to that, son. He's drawled, stretching. "Your girl won't be there."

Gil twisted in his seat and spoke sharply. "How are you talking about? What do you know she won't?" "Why, son," the captain said softly, "I know where your girl's

AUNT HET

By ROBERT MULLIN.

UNCLE RAY'S Corner

IN SHAKESPEARE'S TOWN.

IV—Old Homes.

Among my good friends in Stratford-on-Avon is Mrs. Gertrude Asquith. For more than 20 years she has been an invalid, not able to walk, but she has kept a friendly and cheerful spirit. While I was visiting her the other day, she pointed out a picture of Shakespeare, which hangs in her room.

JUST NUTS

WILL YOU PLEASE I CAN'T STOP CHEWING UNDERSTANDING GUM WHILE IM YOU-THE KISSING YOU! LITTLE THINGS ANNOY YOU!

Shakespeare.

"Some time ago," she said, "a lady who had come to see me looked at Shakespeare's picture and asked, 'Is that a picture of your husband?' I did not tell her whose picture it was but found a photograph of my husband to show her."

Shakespeare died 321 years ago. A number of pictures of him exist, and at least one or two of them are believed to be good portraits of him, as he looked while he was alive. After he died, a "death mask" was made of his face.

Mrs. Asquith wrote a note to a friend asking that I be allowed to go through a certain house in Stratford-on-Avon. This house was once the home of Suzannah Shakespeare, one of the daughters of the famous poet. It is a private house, not open to the public. For more than three cenmost likely to be. An' if you'll just behave yourself and don't fly off the handle, I'll take you to her in no time."

Then he shook his head slowly and squinted across the city at the hill beyond. "I'm just hopin' we ain't goin' to be too late."

April had known fear in her life before, but never the soul-chilling fear that gripped her now as she lay helpless and watched with horrible fascination as the hook-nosed man moved with the whip and smiled coldly down into her hating eyes.

"In my country," he murmured, touching the lash almost caressingly, "we have a saying: 'When the woman talks too much, beat her. If she talks not enough, beat her.' It is a good saying, yes?"

April thought, "He wouldn't dare. He's trying to frighten me." And played up by masking her face with a pitiable look.

"I don't know what you mean. What do you want of me? I'm a tourist . . . a school teacher. You've got the wrong person."

The Portuguese set his lips in a thin line. "I had thought you more smart than this. You think to fool me?" He made an impatient gesture. "Enough. I wish to know everything about your friend, the unfortunate Morton Ferris. You will tell me. You will begin at the beginning and tell me what he did, what he says, where he goes, all the time you know him."

"I don't know what you're talking about!" April cried, desperately. "I don't, I tell you!"

She hardly glimpsed the whip as it flashed high. She only heard the whistle of its passage, then searing pain blotted out every other sense. She seemed to be sinking in a great morass of red, livid torture, which tore at her mind and threatened to unbalance it. Twice more the white-hot agony racked her writhing body and she heard a voice screaming . . . high-pitched toneless cries . . . it was her own.

Slowly the haze that filmed her eyes drifted away. An echo of the pain remained, angry reminder of the agony just past.

The Portuguese was grinning, his face flushed, a thick vein in his forehead pulsing rapidly. "Maybe that makes your memory more better, eh?" he chuckled hoarsely.

April could not answer. Her throat was constricted with the effort she made to keep from sobbing, from striving to hold onto consciousness.

"That is what you say, a sample," her tormentor went on, coiling the whip. "I give you time to think of what you will tell me. I go drink to the memory of your beloved. Then," he snarled, "I come back . . . and you will talk!"

He left the light on and closed the door softly behind him as if not to disturb her, chuckling as he did so.

The man was a maniac! Either that or one made desperate with lust for . . . for what? What was it he wanted to know? Morton's secret? What could she tell him? What could she manufacture to appease him, to bribe him into letting her go?

She panted, jerking at the ropes that held her down. She had to think fast, clearly. He'd be back soon, with that terrible whip. What could she tell him? She closed her eyes. Tried to think connectedly. Surely she could.

Continued Tomorrow. (Copyright, 1937, for The Constitution.)

turies, different families have been living in it. Shakespeare had two daughters and one son. The son died in childhood, but both the daughters grew up and were married.

After winning success in London, William Shakespeare returned to his native town to spend the later years of his life. His work as an actor and as a writer of plays had brought him a small fortune, as well as a great deal of fame. He bought a fairly large house to live in. It was called New Place, but it was more than 100 years old when he moved into it.

Quite a long while ago, New Place was taken down. We are told that the man who lived in it was so tired of having people come to look at it, that he ordered it pulled down from the stone. All that is left now is the foundation and the well from which Shakespeare obtained water.

In the grounds around New Place there is a beautiful garden. It is said to contain every kind of flower Shakespeare named in his plays.

The other day I talked with Mr. William Jagard who has a book shop in Stratford-on-Avon. He told me that one of his great-grandfathers (and about nine more greats), printed the first complete edition of Shakespeare's plays. He showed me a book of about 1,000 pages, which he himself had prepared over a period of 23 years. The book is composed of a list of volumes printed about Shakespeare, and of the different printings of the great poet's plays.

(For General Interest section of your scrapbook.) If you want a free copy of the illustrated leaflet, "True Adventure Stories," send me a 3c stamped, return envelope, in care of The Atlanta Constitution.

Uncle Ray

Tomorrow—Shakespeare's Grave. (Copyright, 1937, for The Constitution.)

Two methods of tanning are mainly in use today—vegetable tanning and chrome tanning. Eyeglasses for reading while in a reclining position have been designed by a German optical firm.

AT Jacobs TODAY'S LUNCH

BARBECUED PORK CHOP

Served with Natural Sauce, Green String Beans, Macaroni and Cheese, Sliced Tomatoes, Corn Sticks, Rolls, Butter, Home Baked Cakes or Ice Cream and Any 5c Drink.

30c

YOU'LL GET MORE LIGHT FROM THESE NEW G-E BULBS

THEY STAY BRIGHTER LONGER

Thanks to constant improvement and recent new development, the new, brighter G-E bulbs now offer you greater value for your money.

For these new MAZDA lamps made by General Electric not only give more light than ever before... but they use no additional current, cost no more, and they Stay Brighter Longer.

Largely responsible for this "lighting bonus" is a newly perfected, high-efficiency tungsten filament. The 60-watt size, for example, now gives 10 per cent more light than the same size lamp of a year ago, yet it costs no more.

Buy a fresh supply of these new, brighter G-E bulbs today. And be sure to include some of the larger light-saving sizes... 75, 100, and 150-watts. General Electric Company, Nela Park, Cleveland, O.

BUY BULBS WHERE YOU SEE THIS EMBLEM DISPLAYED

No increase in price! 15c
15-25-40-60 WATT SIZES
G-E also makes a lamp for 10c. It is the best lamp you can buy for the price. 7 1/2, 15, 30, and 60-watt sizes. Each lamp is marked like this.....

GENERAL ELECTRIC

FREE! FREE!

WITH ANY 6 MAZDA BULBS
A CERTIFICATE GOOD FOR $1
ON ANY I. E. S. LAMP

This free offer also good at all co-operating dealers. Look for signs in their windows offering certificates.

GEORGIA POWER CO.

BEAUTIES WILL VIE FOR BUFORD TITLES

Junior Woman's Club Will Sponsor Competition Friday Night.

BUFORD, Ga., Nov. 3.—More than 40 pair of hopeful eyes to-night rested upon two coveted titles as their owners prepared for the Buford Junior Woman's Club beauty pageant and amateur contest, to be held at 8 o'clock Friday night in the school auditorium.

The titles are those of "Miss Buford" and "Little Miss Buford." Among the entries for the former title is Miss Edna Simpson, petite and popular blonde, who will appear as "Miss Atlanta Constitution." Miss Simpson, a native of Buford, is among the most popular members of the local younger set. She stands about five feet five inches in height, weighs about 110 pounds, has blue eyes and is of pleasing appearance and personality.

Entered for the event are about 25 young women between the ages of 14 and 25, seeking the title of "Miss Buford," and about 15 potential "Little Misses Buford" between the ages of 4 and 8.

The event, in addition to the beauty parade, will feature an amateur contest, in which contestants will seek honors in singing, dancing, comedy and various other entertaining presentations. "Miss Buford" will receive a screen test and will receive expenses to the statewide contest to be held in Macon at a later date, when "Miss Georgia" will be selected.

The winner of the amateur contest will receive expenses to the state contest also, and will compete with others over the radio.

NEW ATTACK AIMED AT JUSTICE BLACK

Three Florida Oil Companies Challenge Eligibility of Appointment.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 3.—(P)—Justice Black faced a new challenge today to his right to sit on the supreme court.

His eligibility was questioned by three Florida oil companies in a petition which contended Black's appointment was unconstitutional. The petition advanced two arguments which the court recently refused to pass upon. That no vacancy existed at the time of Black's appointment, and that the justice had been a member of the senate which permitted members of the court to retire at full pay at the age of 70. The constitution prohibits a member of congress from taking an office he has helped make more remunerative.

These arguments were used previously by Albert Levitt, former federal judge in the Virgin Islands, and Patrick Henry Kelly, Boston attorney, in challenges to Black's eligibility. The court refused to consider their removal proceedings against the justice, however.

The three companies—Ryan Florida Corporation of Tampa, Income Royalties Company, of St. Petersburg, and Florida Tex Oil Company of St. Petersburg—asked the court to consider their petition in the absence of Black.

A decision may be announced next Monday.

PROGRAM PLANNED ON MODERN ARTS

Studio Club To Present Lamar Dodd, Hodgson.

The Studio Club of Atlanta will sponsor a program on modern art and music at the High Museum of Art Sunday night at 8:30 o'clock in the auditorium gallery, where now hang the modern paintings from the New York Downtown gallery.

Lamar Dodd, of the department

ATLANTA FREIGHT BUREAU OFFICIAL

Robt. C. Clonts Tells of Work to Cut Freight Cost and His Remarkable Discovery.

For twenty-four years Secretary-Treasurer of Austin Brothers Bridge Co., Mr. Clonts has for many years given a major part of his time to the work of the Atlanta Freight Bureau for the purpose of assisting and stimulating Georgia industries by securing reductions in freight rates.

"During the World War I suffered from a terrible attack of flu, and for years afterward was troubled with a persistent cough and asthma," said Mr. Clonts when recently interviewed. Continuing, Mr. Clonts said, "My physician prescribed Beechwood Creosote for me. It gave me wonderful relief, but I was unable to take it regularly because it upset my digestion so badly. Finally about three years ago I noticed a Menthon-Mulsion advertisement, and saw that it contained Beechwood Creosote, emulsified with Fig Syrup. Now I knew that Beechwood Creosote was a wonderful remedy for me, and was sure that when it was emulsified with Fig Syrup it would not upset my stomach. I knew how good Fig Syrup is, because we have never been without it in our home during the past twenty years."

"Menthon-Mulsion did for me even more than I expected. It has never upset my digestion. It always stops my cough almost immediately, and relieves my asthma better than anything else I have ever been able to find. It only costs 75c a bottle, but to tell you the truth, I would not be without it if it cost many times that amount."—(adv.)

Teach High School Pupils to Drive Safely

Constitution Staff Photo—Roton.

Sponsored by the Atlanta Motor Club, students in Atlanta high schools yesterday began receiving instruction in the proper way to drive an automobile. This is part of a course started some time ago in which teachers in the schools were given instruction. Now it's the students who are receiving "tips" from these "professor-pupils," the latter having been graduated. A Constitution staff cameraman found W. J. Ward, a "professor-graduate," giving pointers to Julian Spector, a student at Boys' High school.

of fine arts, University of Georgia, will give a talk on modern art, illustrated by colored slides.

Lewis P. Skidmore, director of the High Museum, says that Dodd's work is a great asset to the south and that he is known for his virility of style. Dodd is a native of Fairburn, Ga., and has spent many years in New York as a student and artist.

Hugh Hodson, pianist and director of music at the University of Georgia, will interpret modern musical compositions for the members of the Studio Club and the Atlanta Art Association.

METHODISTS OPEN CONCLAVE TODAY

Vote on Unification Will Feature Conference Sessions in Dublin.

DUBLIN, Ga., Nov. 3.—(P)—Ministers and lay leaders of the South Georgia Conference of the Methodist Episcopal church, arrived today for their annual meeting, opening tomorrow.

Vote on unification of northern and southern branches of the church appeared as a chief item of business to come before the conference.

Church officials at Nashville said that with eight southern conferences still to vote on the question, and with tabulation of votes at the New Mexico Conference not received, the vote stood 3,400 in favor of unification and 401 against it.

Bishop W. N. Ainsworth and his cabinet held meetings in Macon yesterday and today to draw up assignments of ministers for the next year.

He said four ministers were scheduled to retire from active service at the conference meeting: Dr. E. F. Cook, of Macon; the Rev. Robert Kerr, of Richland; the Rev. W. H. Wilcox, of Broxton, and the Rev. W. C. Rahn, of Norman Park.

Various church boards and committees held meetings here today preliminary to the conference.

Besides a vote on unification, the conference also will elect eight ministers and eight laymen as delegates to the general conference at Birmingham next May, Bishop Ainsworth said.

Bishop Arthur Moore, of Texas, will be a guest of the conference and will address a session of the meeting, Ainsworth announced.

AUGUSTA ART BUILDING WILL OPEN SATURDAY

AUGUSTA, Ga., Nov. 3.—The Augusta Art Club and Gertrude Herbert Institute of Art building will be formally opened Saturday with exercises at which Dr. Eugene Murphy, Augusta physician, historian and poet; Robert McIntyre, director of the Macbeth Galleries of New York, and Mr. and Mrs. John W. Herbert Jr., of Fort Worth, Texas, will be the principal speakers.

The building, presented to the city of Augusta by Mrs. John W. Herbert, of New York city, as a memorial to her daughter, will be presented by Carl Herbert, of New York city, her nephew, and officially accepted by Gwinn Huxley Nixon Jr.

The building is the former Nicholas Ware mansion, built in 1817 and during his regime as mayor used as the town hall.

A tea and an exhibition of portraits and articles loaned by prominent Georgia and South Carolina families will feature the opening day program.

BILLY SUNDAY'S AIDE DIES OF HEART ATTACK

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Nov. 3.—(P)—The Rev. William Asher, who once accompanied the Evangelist Billy Sunday on a trip around the world, dropped dead of a heart attack in Union Station here today.

He was waiting for a train for West Palm Beach where he intended visiting his brother, City Commissioner James Asher.

A short time earlier he had arrived from his home in Winona, Indiana.

The Rev. Mr. Asher retired 10 years ago from the Presbyterian ministry while holding a pastorate in a Brooklyn, N. Y., church.

AMES DIES AT 66, FAMED PRODUCER

Pneumonia Fatal to Former Manager of Leslie Howard, Arliss.

BOSTON, Nov. 3.—(P)—The theater lost one of its foremost exponents today with the death of Winthrop Ames, who produced plays ranging from the works of Shakespeare to those of present day playwrights.

Ames, who retired from the theatrical world in 1929 because of ill health, died in Deaconess hospital from complications arising from pneumonia. He was 66.

While he was a student at Harvard, he appeared in productions of the Hasty Pudding Club, college society. In 1904 he took up dramatic art seriously, managing Boston's Old Castle Square theater. His first undertaking in New York was management of the New theater, later known as the Century theater. When Ames became an independent producer, he managed such stars as George Arliss in "The Green Goddess" and Leslie Howard in Galsworthy's "Escape."

Say "LUDEN'S" THEY NOW CONTAIN AN ALKALINE FACTOR Building up your alkaline reserve helps you to resist colds.

5c

GET Rid OF

this

Stop going back for more anti-freeze whenever the thermometer gets jumpy.

this

Quit taking chances on boil-away and subsequent freezeup... it always means trouble... usually costs money.

this

Cut out rust-clogging, the power-thief that sends more fine motors to the scrap heap before their time than any other single cause.

NATIONAL CARBON COMPANY, INC. specifically that "Eveready" "Prestone" anti-freeze, if used according to printed directions, in normal water cooling systems, will protect the cooling system of your car against freezing and clogging from rust formations for a whole winter; also that it will not boil away, will not cause damage to car finish, or to the metal or rubber parts of the cooling system, and that it will not leak out of a cooling system tight enough to hold water.

GUARANTEES

NATIONAL CARBON COMPANY, INC. GENERAL OFFICES: NEW YORK, N. Y. BRANCHES: CHICAGO • SAN FRANCISCO UNIT OF UNION CARBIDE IDES AND CARBON CORPORATION

Play Safe This Winter

EVEREADY PRESTONE ANTI-FREEZE

IS GUARANTEED IN Writing

NEW YORK OPPOSES FREIGHT RATE CUTS SOUGHT BY SOUTH

'Serious Injury and Loss' Feared, Petition to I.C.C.
Declares.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 3.—(AP)—The Interstate Commerce Commission added the state of New York today to a list of those opposing proposed reductions in southern freight rates.

The state said in a petition for authority to intervene that the reduced tariffs from southern territory would "cause serious injury and loss to the state (New York) as a whole and to its citizens."

The southeastern governors' rate conference, petitioning for lower commodity rates, declared cheaper transportation to northern markets would encourage industrial development of the south.

NEW JERSEY MOVES TO JOIN RATE FIGHT

TRENTON, N. J., Nov. 3.—(AP)—New Jersey moved today to join New York and the New England states in opposition to freight rate reductions sought by southern interests.

Representatives of shipping and manufacturing told Governor Hoffman at a round-table conference that interference with the present rate schedule would be "unfortunate at the present time in view of the critical state of business."

NEGRO EDUCATION URGED.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 3.—(AP)—Dr. John W. Studebaker, commissioner of education, urged schools, colleges and other institutions today to give special consideration to negro education in observing American education week this year from November 7 to 13.

Text of Norman H. Davis' Address At Opening of 9-Power Session

WASHINGTON, Nov. 3.—(AP)—The State Department made public today the following text of the speech of Norman H. Davis, American delegate, at the opening of the nine-power conference at Brussels:

We have come to this conference to collaborate in efforts towards an objective for which all peoples and all governments should strive. That objective is peace.

Sixteen years ago there assembled at Washington the delegates to a conference which had been called for the limitation of armaments and to find a solution of Pacific and Far Eastern problems of international concern, and thereby to safeguard peace in the Far East. After a few months of careful consideration of the problems involved, those delegates signed a number of inter-related agreements and resolutions which, it was believed, would assure the legitimate rights and interests of all the countries represented, which provided for various concessions and reciprocal concessions and which committed the signatories to pursue policies of peace.

In that group of agreements was a treaty relating to principles and policies to be followed in matters concerning China. That treaty dealt with questions which are fundamental; it reaffirmed principles to which most of the signatories had already—some repeatedly—committed themselves; it specified not only what should be the obligations of the other powers but what should be the obligations of China; it was ratified by all of the nine powers present at the conference and it has since been adhered to by five other powers.

TREATY PROVIDED FRANK DISCUSSION

In that treaty there was a provision that, whenever a situation should arise which in the opinion of any of the parties involved the application of the stipulations of the treaty and rendered desirable discussion of such application, there should be full and frank communication between the contracting powers concerned.

It is in accordance with that express provision that we meet here today. Our present interest, however, would be real even if there were no such treaty and no such provision. The hostilities which are now being waged in the Far East are of serious concern not only to Japan and China but to the entire world.

For several decades the nations of the world have been seeking to evolve methods to achieve the two-fold objective of preventing resort to armed force and, unhappily it has been resorted to, finding means to bring the conflict to an end. Various methods have been proposed. Various instruments have been signed. In all of these there has appeared one common feature, namely, that where controversies develop solutions must be sought by pacific means. This process, 63 nations committed themselves by the pact of Paris of 1928.

PEACE HAS BECOME OF VITAL INTEREST

Peace once envisaged only by idealists has become a practical matter of vital self-interest to every nation. The day has long since gone by when the effects of an armed conflict are confined to the participants. It is all too apparent that under modern conditions the human and material sacrifices and the moral and spiritual costs exacted by the use of armed force not only fall as a heavy and often-times crushing burden upon the nations directly involved in the conflict, but have grave repercussions upon all nations of the world.

Armed conflict wherever it may occur, impairs everywhere the immeasurable value of freely negotiated treaties and agreements as effective and reliable safeguards of national security and international peace. The resulting loss of confidence in such instruments leads nations to seek safety in competitive armaments and to devote a disproportionate share of their resources thereto, thus impoverishing some nations and inexorably lowering the standards of life to all.

Not only does resort to armed force result in needless loss of human life and shock every humane instinct of mankind, but its disorganizing effects fall upon all phases of constructive human activity, national as well as international.

SCIENCE, INDUSTRY BRINGS INDEPENDENCE

As a result of the amazing developments in science and industry, there has come about an interdependence among nations as a result of which the effects of any major disturbance are felt everywhere. As our modern civilization has evolved, as it has developed new methods and processes, as it has raised the standard of living of hundreds of millions of human beings all over the world, it has become increasingly sensitive to shock. A dislocation in any part of its inter-related mechanism throws other parts out of gear. It creates need for prompt and skillful attention at the point of dislocation in order to prevent further disturbance and possible breakdown of the whole machinery.

International trade and financial relations, which are indispensable to human welfare, immediately suffer from the disorganizing effects of resort to armed force. It is through these channels that the most direct and most painful repercussions of any major armed conflict spread to the uttermost corners of the earth. Once mutually beneficial international economic relations are impaired or broken down, nations are forced into varying degrees of reliance upon their own resources and, consequently, into a further lowering of their living standards.

BREAKDOWN BRINGS THREAT TO PEACE

Unfortunately the breakdown of the processes of international trade and financial relations may occur as a result of other causes than armed conflict. For reasons which I need not enumerate here, nations may elect to embark upon policies directed toward economic self-sufficiency or toward securing immediate though narrow advantages, thus foregoing the broad and cumulative benefits which trade released from excessive restraint will yield. Such policies in themselves create conditions conducive to a threat to peace. The world has witnessed during the past few years the emergence of such conditions and the unfolding of the vicious spiral of economic warfare, political tension, competitive armaments and actual armed conflict.

In the particular circumstances with which we are confronted at the present conference, our objective is the restoration of peace and stability in an extraordinarily important region of the world. But as we seek earnestly the means of attaining these objectives, let us keep in our minds also the pressing need for constructive effort directed toward the creation of conditions which will make unthinkable the use of armed force. There should be no place for resort to arms in an orderly and prosperous world.

CHANGES OCCUR IN FAR EAST

In the Far East probably to a greater extent than in any other part of the world, there are taking place changes in the thought and the activities of vast groups of human beings. Within a few generations, Japan has undergone a great transformation and both Occident and Orient have witnessed and been impressed by admirable achievements effected by the Japanese people.

At the Washington conference, the governments there represented, after careful consideration of the situation in the Far East, adopted the view that the Chinese people possessed the capacity to establish a new order. The nine-power treaty was based on that concept. In agreeing to its provisions, the governments which became parties to that treaty affirmed their belief in the capacity of the Chinese to evolve and carry out a program of political and economic reconstruction. The signatories to the treaty undertook to regulate their relations with China and with the one another in a manner which would not interfere with his hoped-for development but would, indeed, encourage and support it. During the years which have since elapsed, especially the more recent years the Chinese have made rapid progress along a course which tends to confirm the faith in which the nine-power treaty was founded.

JAPAN AND CHINA IN CONFLICT

Unfortunately, Japan and China have come into conflict and have resorted to hostilities. These hostilities have steadily increased in scope and intensity. Not only have they destroyed many Chinese and Japanese lives and much Chinese and Japanese property, but they have also placed taken and at many places endangered lives of nationals of other countries; they have destroyed property of nationals of other countries; they have disrupted communications; they have disturbed and interfered with the commerce of practically all nations that are engaged in international trade; and they have shocked and aroused the peoples of all nations. Such hostilities are of concern not only to the countries engaged in them; they have affected and they are detrimentally affecting the whole world.

We are here with a common concern and a common purpose and our effort to deal with the situation must be constructive.

We come to this conference to study with our colleagues the problems which concern us. We have come not with the expectation of working miracles, but with the intention of appealing with other nations in urging upon Japan and China that they resort to peaceful processes. We believe that co-operation between Japan and China is essential to the best interests of those two countries and to peace throughout the world. We believe that such co-operation must be developed by friendship, fair play and reciprocal confidence. If Japan and China are to co-operate it must be as friends and as equals rather than as enemies.

PROBLEMS MUST BE SOLVED

The problems underlying Sino-Japanese relations must be solved on a basis that is fair to each and acceptable to both. It is not only in the interests of China and Japan that hostilities be promptly terminated and that the differences between them be peacefully composed, but it is in the interest of the community of nations as a whole. The longer the present hostilities continue the more difficult will a constructive solution become, the more harmful will be their effects upon Sino-Japanese relations and upon the world and the more will general peace and stability be endangered. It is important that equitable adjustment be found.

We come to this conference with no commitments except those to treaty provisions and to principles which the government of the United States has repeatedly and emphatically affirmed. The government of the United States is prepared to share in the common efforts to devise, within the scope of these treaty provisions and principles, a means of finding a pacific solution which will provide for eliminating hostilities in the Far East and for restoring peace in that area.

WPA PRODS FULTON AND CITY ON SEWER

Agency Ready To Construct 17 Miles as Soon as Differences Settled.

Immediate construction of approximately 17 miles of sewers in the metropolitan system at an estimated cost of $371,458, was considered yesterday by Robert L. MacDougall, state WPA engineer, and city and county officials.

MacDougall said the WPA was ready to place between 1,700 and 2,000 workers on the projects as soon as the city and county ironed out differences over what proportion of materials should be furnished by the county.

Since most of the sewers in the projects proposed for immediate construction are designed to serve county districts principally, it was expected the county will make every effort to co-operate.

Another $600,000 Line.
Efforts to begin work on another $600,000 sewer line also are being made, he said.

Projects that will be begun as soon as materials and equipment are furnished are:

1. The South Utoy line, 10 miles long, at an estimated cost of $197,808. This will serve sections of East Point.

2. Eagan sewer line, 16,800 feet long, which will cost about $105,724.
3. The Decatur-Druid Hills line, reaching from the northern boundary of Decatur to the Peachtree Creek sewer line. It will be 6,500 feet long and will cost $36,840.

4. The Howell Mill line, which is south of the Peachtree Creek line leading to the Clayton disposal plant. This will cost $31,086 and will be about 8,700 feet long.

Confers With Hartsfield.

MacDougall, who conferred yesterday with Mayor Hartsfield and City Commissioner George F. Longino, chairman of the public works committee, this week.

The WPA engineer said that if work on these four sewers is started soon, they can be completed by June, 1938. Each of the sewers will be lines of from 12 to 18 inches in size.

Hope for an early start on construction of the Proctor Creek line, which is estimated to cost $600,000, was expressed by MacDougall. This line will be 35,800 feet long and will join the Peachtree Creek sewer line at the Clayton plant.

RIVERS MAY CALL SESSION EARLIER

Continued From First Page.

of proposals to revise the state parole system.

It is understood the municipal association will ask that the cities be given a portion of the gasoline tax collected by the state and also will seek a clarification of the seven-month school term law.

Meets Delegation.

Tomorrow the Governor will meet with a delegation from the Association of County Commissioners of Georgia to hear its views on legislation affecting the counties. Julius McCurdy, county attorney of DeKalb and chairman of the association's legislative commission, will head this delegation.

In addition a group of county tax collectors, headed by Tom Clemmons, collector for Floyd county, will meet with Governor Rivers and Comptroller General William B. Harrison today or tomorrow regarding the present campaign to collect due and past-due taxes on intangible properties.

The Governor said yesterday that the reported collection of these taxes on 15 per cent of the value of the stocks and bonds was a matter being adjusted by the various tax collectors.

"I have had no communication with the collectors regarding the rates," he said. "It is a matter for each individual county."

YOUTH THWARTS 2 BANDITS HERE

Filling Station Attendant Is Knocked Unconscious.

Lamar Whitehead, 21, assistant manager of a filling station at 1300 Marietta street, yesterday thwarted efforts of two negroes to rob the place, according to police reports.

The negroes, one armed with a pistol and the other a knife, entered the establishment and ordered Whitehead to hold up his hands. When he was slow in raising his left arm because of an infection, one of the negroes slashed at him with a knife and the other struck him on the head with a pistol.

Before losing consciousness he locked the cash drawer which contained $30 in cash. When he regained consciousness the bandits had fled without any loot.

Surgeon General Praises Georgia For Warring on Social Diseases

State Is Keeping Step With Nation, Parran Says on Study Tour.

By LUKE GREENE.

Georgia is keeping step with the nation in marshaling her forces to fight syphilis, Dr. Thomas Parran Jr., surgeon general of the United States, said last night after a day's conference with state health officials.

On a study tour covering the greater part of the south, Dr. Parran, who is leading the crusade against syphilis, departed last night for Brunswick, Ga., where he will continue his study of the state's health problems.

Dr. Parran is credited with the new attitude toward the word "syphilis" and with causing the nation to become conscious of its social diseases. The surgeon general announced much progress is being made in the control of the disease.

Grady Work Lauded.

Praising the work of Dr. James R. McCord in giving blood tests to pregnant women at Grady hospital, Dr. Parran said the clinic is receiving national attention.

"It is in pregnant women that we have the greatest opportunity for life-saving," the physician declared. "With proper treatment the chances are 10 to 1 that a healthy baby will be born, but without such treatment the odds are strongly in favor of a syphilitic or dead child."

Dr. Parran referred to the extensive work in the control of syphilis being carried on in three counties surrounding Brunswick. A "clinic on wheels" which is completely equipped for giving blood tests and treatments is taken from place to place in rural sections for the purpose of aiding those with the disease, he said.

"The first stage in the control of syphilis is to have public understanding and the next is action," Dr. Parran declared. "We should define the problem, appraise our resources, and then find the things needed to deal adequately with the problem," he said.

Rural Need.

"Most of the cities are doing something about the control of the disease, but in rural sections where doctors and adequate facilities are often lacking, there is great need for special attention," he continued. "Whenever you begin to attack syphilis in earnest it begins to recede," he added.

Dr. Parran said he was gratified to find that 36 centers for the treatment of syphilis are being operated in Georgia. "I think it is important that we find just how big our job in the rural sections really is and determine how much it will cost to do that job," he said. "Consideration of syphilis as a disease rather than a penalty for immorality is responsible for the recent progress in fighting the disease," he explained.

1 Out of 10 Marked.

"Taking the country as a whole, 1 out of 10 adults has had syphilis or will acquire it unless something is done to check it," he said. "Out of one million men in various industries, 4.8 per cent showed signs of having the disease, and negroes and residents of mining towns show an even higher percentage," he said.

Turning from syphilis, Dr. Parran said among other disease problems confronting the state and nation are tuberculosis and cancer. He said increased appropriations for public health by the Georgia legislature will aid considerably in carrying on the work of the department. He praised the work of Dr. T. F. Abercrombie, director of the State Department of Health.

NEW BID TO JAPAN ON PARLEY LOOMS

Continued From First Page.

tee would be formed of the chiefs of the principal delegations to seek some means of mediation even without Japanese attendance.

The expected "big three" front emerged today at the opening session of the Brussels conference when the United States, Great Britain and France agreed on the course they believed it should take in seeking peace in the Far East.

The British and French delegations subscribed to the proposal of Davis that peace should be sought by direct negotiations between China and Japan.

Italy also agreed to the proposal but, fulfilling preconference predictions, expressed opposition to anything in the nature of sanctions or even "moral quarantines."

"Must Be Fair."

Davis, in outlining the position of the United States, cautioned that any peace "must be fair to each and acceptable to both China and Japan." He exhorted the Chinese and Japanese to settle their conflict "by peaceful processes."

His speech, which interpreted as a band of direct negotiations between the two countries, was regarded also as leaving the door

2 GIRLS LOSE $25 TO ARMED BANDIT

Gunman Stops Pair on Capitol Avenue; Threatens To Kill.

Two girls, about 20 years old, last night reported to police they were held up and robbed of their purses containing about $25 in cash by a white man about 8 o'clock last night.

The girls, Helene Kantor, of 973 Crew street, and Hannah Hardman, of 818 Washington street, said they were walking on Capitol avenue near Georgia when the man flourished a pistol and demanded their purses, threatening to kill them if they did not comply.

Miss Hardman said her purse contained more than $20 in cash and a pair of glasses valued at $15. Miss Kantor's purse contained about $5 in cash and also a pair of glasses.

Police immediately started a hunt for the bandit.

Finest Luggage Made Priced as low as inferior makes.

W. Z. Turner Luggage Co.
219 PEACHTREE ST.

Sufferers of STOMACH ULCERS HYPERACIDITY

DEFINITE RELIEF OR MONEY BACK

THE WILLARD TREATMENT has brought prompt, definite relief to thousands of cases of Stomach and Duodenal Ulcers, due to Hyperacidity, and other forms of Stomach Distress due to Excess Acid. SOLD ON 15 DAYS TRIAL. For complete information, read "Willard's Message of Relief." Ask for it free—

Ashby Street Pharmacy,
Cox Prescription Shop,
Hemphill Avenue Pharmacy,
Square Deal Drug Stores,
Siegars Drug Store.

QUICK FOOT RELIEF

Learn how OIL-OF-SALT does for itching, burning feet and Athlete's Foot and you'll never be without it. This soothing liquid works wonders for thousands using it for sore feet. It is wonderful relief for cuts, burns, bruises, insect bites, sunburn. Get OIL-OF-SALT today. Enjoy real relief. The druggist will return your money if you are not satisfied.

Pen SALE ALL THIS WEEK

59c THIS COUPON IS WORTH $1.91

ATTENTION

This is one of our quality pens. Do not confuse it with cheaper grade pens. It is a genuine and 59c. Entirely the Bear to one of our Genuine Indestructible $2.50 Vacuum Filler Sackles Fountain Pens. Visible Ink Supply. You see the ink. A lifetime guarantee by Manufacturer with each pen.

SIZES FOR MEN, WOMEN AND CHILDREN.

GUARANTEED LEAK-PROOF

Limit three pens to 1 coupon.

Manufactured to Sell for $2.50.

VISIBLE INK SUPPLY

Has All Seven Features Required in a Fine Writing Pen Today.

- 1—Lifetime guarantee by manufacturer.
- 2—Greater ink capacity.
- 3—One stroke vacuum fill.
- 4—Smother writing point.
- 5—Featherweight Perfectly balanced pen.
- 6—Latest laminated and pearl colors.
- 7—Full barrel visible ink supply—no more last drop futility and most important, no rubber sac.

SOLD ONLY THROUGH JACOBS MAIN STORE FIVE POINTS

MAIL ORDERS 6c EXTRA

ATLANTA CONSTITUTION

PRESENTATION COUPON

For WEBSTER'S Universal unabridged DICTIONARY

This is one of a series of 24 coupons to be used in obtaining your dictionary. Clip and save these coupons until you have the 24 differently numbered coupons. Then present them to this newspaper with

99c
COUPON No. 37

2 VOLUME DICTIONARY

MAIL ORDER COUPON

IF YOU ORDER BY MAIL ENCLOSE $1.15

To Dictionary Presentation Dept., ATLANTA CONSTITUTION. Herewith find 24 differently numbered coupons and $1.15 for which please mail the postage at the address below one Volume of Webster's Universal Unabridged Dictionary. If the deluxe edition is desired send 24 coupons and $1.97 plus 10c postage or a total of $2.07. Understand that the additional 10c is to cover cost of mailing and handling up to 100 miles. (For greater distance consult your post office for postage rate on 8 ounce weight.)

Signed

Address

City

Please state if Volume No. 1 or 2 desired

AUTO LOANS

Get a loan in 30 minutes—take as long as 18 months on repayment at lower rates. Financing and refinancing all makes, all models. Free parking in Forsyth Building Garage while applying for your loan.

PEOPLE'S BANK
2nd Floor Volunteer Bldg. WAlnut 4289

Today---One Day Only!

HAVERTY'S

Mid-week Rummage SALE

ODDS & ENDS

Floor Samples, trade-ins, repossessions, etc.—(many items as good as new)—are included in this remarkable ONE-DAY MID-WEEK CLEARANCE. Every article in our Bargain Basement is greatly reduced... BUT THE SALE IS FOR TODAY! DON'T DELAY!

Table Lamps Complete... 66c
Bridge Lamps Complete... 77c

FELT-BASE RUGS
Regular $4.95 6x9 genuine felt-base Rugs in smart, colorful new designs.
95c Cash, 50c Weekly

RADIO CLEARANCE
For quick clearance of all floor sample and reconditioned standard make Radios.
88c Cash, $1.00 Weekly

BOUDOIR CHAIRS
Upholstered occasional chairs, slightly used, to close out.
50c Cash, 50c Weekly

Hot Blast Heaters
These Hot Blast Heaters have been reconditioned. Old parts where needed.
Pay Only $1 Weekly

LOUNGE CHAIRS
Slightly used, comfortable Lounge Chairs. Ottomans to match.
95c Cash, $1.00 Weekly

Coal Circulators
These Circulators have been reconditioned. Finished in ebony finish.
Pay Only $1 Weekly

STEEL BEDS
Good, substantial all-steel Beds, reconditioned. Real values.
80c Weekly

OIL STOVES
Thoroughly reconditioned. New wicks, etc. A great value.
Pay Only $1 Weekly

5-PC. BREAK-FAST SUITE
Five-piece reconditioned Breakfast Suite. Long drop-leaf Table and four chairs. Reconditioned.
Pay Only $1 Weekly

KITCHEN CABINET
Reconditioned Kitchen Cabinets. All in original condition. Only a limited number at this price.
Pay Only $1 Weekly

2 and 3-Pc. Tapestry Living Room Suites
You'll be surprised at these good values. Some are in excellent condition; both construction and coverings.
$1.00 CASH, $1.00 WEEKLY

GAS RANGES
Four-burner Gas Ranges—with large oven and broiler. Reconditioned. One of a kind. Come early for best selection.
Pay Only $1 Weekly

ELECTRIC WASHERS
Save on one of these slightly used standard make Washers.
$1 Cash, $1 Weekly

Coal & Wood Ranges
A large six-eye Range that originally sold for $69.50. Reconditioned. Ideal value. Today only.
Pay Only $1 Weekly

HAVERTY FURNITURE COMPANY
Corner Edgewood Avenue and Pryor St.

RASHES
Irritation soothed, healing promoted by using effective, mildly medicated CUTICURA SOAP and OINTMENT.

Over 80 years in use:
the strongest possible proof of the value of Father John's Medicine as a treatment for colds and as a body builder—rich in vitamins.

Miss Betty McDuffie Weds Mr. Maddox in Anniston, Ala.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip C. McDuffie announce the marriage of their daughter, Miss Betty Philip McDuffie, to William Henry Maddox Jr., of this city, formerly of Shelbyville, Ky., the ceremony taking place November 2 in Anniston, Ala.

The bride is a popular member of Atlanta's younger society and is the sister of Miss Helen McDuffie, Philip McDuffie Jr., George and Edward McDuffie. She graduated from Washington Seminary and is a member of the Phi Pi sorority. She attended Warren Country School in Virginia and later she graduated from Sophie Newcomb College in New Orleans, where she belonged to the Pi Beta Phi national sorority.

She has traveled extensively in this country and abroad and is a member of the Junior League and the Girls' Cotillion Club. The bride made her formal debut at a reception and supper-dance given by her parents when she was a member of the 1934-35 Debutante Club.

Mr. Maddox is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Henry Maddox, of Shelbyville, Ky. His sisters are Mrs. William Gohagen, of Washington, D. C., and Mrs. C. L. Mathis, of Shelbyville, and his only brother is Thomas Wallace Maddox, of Shelbyville.

The groom is a graduate of the University of Kentucky where he belonged to the Kappa Alpha fraternity. Since coming to Atlanta for residence Mr. Maddox has been associated with the Standard Oil Company. He and his bride will visit the former's family in Shelbyville before going to New York for a wedding trip. Upon their return here they will reside in an apartment and become popular acquisitions to society's young married ranks.

Crepe Myrtle Club.

Mrs. J. H. Little was hostess recently to the Crepe Myrtle Garden Club at her home on Edwin place, Grove Park. Guests were entertained after the meeting with bingo, the following winning prizes: Mesdames Marvin Johnson, J. O. Puckett and Paul Chipman.

The attendance prize was awarded Miss Daisy Harpe. A flower naming contest was held, Mrs. J. C. Puckett winning the prize. The club meets next with Mrs. J. Y. Wilson on Marion avenue.

Attractive Visitor

Mrs. Reeves Wells, of Panama City, Fla., is spending several weeks as the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Norman T. Pool, and is being feted at a number of informal social circles. She is the former Miss Katrina Pool and since her marriage to Dr. Wells has resided in Florida, where her home, Lullwater Bluff, on St. Andrews Bay, is a rendezvous for many cultural and musical entertainments. Miss Minna Hecker and Miss Irene Leftwich, of Atlanta, were recent guests of Dr. and Mrs. Wells, and were honored at an elaborate reception after their concert, of which Mrs. Wells was among sponsors. The latter is a well-known vocalist.

Social Affairs Fete Mrs. Ben T. Comer Jr.

A series of social affairs are being given for Mrs. Ben T. Comer Jr., a recent bride who was before her marriage Mrs. Laura Jones. Today Mrs. Ben T. Comer Sr. entertains at a tea at her home on Rock Springs road in her honor.

On Saturday Mr. and Mrs. David E. Miller entertain at an appetit party for Mr. and Mrs. Comer and the following day the young couple will be central figures at the appetit party at which Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Hollingsworth will be hosts. On November 9 Mr. and Mrs. E. Stanton Hale give a buffet supper at their home on Rumson road.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Paul Wells give an appetit party on November 20 for Mr. and Mrs. Comer and the evening of the same day, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Timmons entertain at a buffet supper.

West End Garden Club Holds Flower Show.

The West End Garden Club's fall flower show was held recently at the clubhouse of the West End Golf Club, with Mrs. L. E. Franklin, flower show chairman, in charge.

The sweepstakes ribbon was awarded to Mrs. T. A. Slaughter, with Mrs. L. E. Williams winning the horticultural ribbon.

Mrs. J. D. Abbercromby and Miss Geraldine Cottongim presided at the punch bowl. Blue ribbons were won by Mesdames J. D. Abbercromby, J. T. Callaway, L. E. Cottongim, W. W. Dudley, L. E. Franklin, Frank Harper, M. R. Loveless, C. D. Swint, T. A. Slaughter and L. E. Williams. Red ribbons were won by Mesdames L. E. Williams, M. R. Loveless, T. A. Slaughter, C. D. Swint, J. D. Abbercromby, J. T. Callaway and L. E. Cottongim. White ribbons were won by Mesdames C. D. Swint, J. T. Callaway, L. E. Cottongim, T. A. Slaughter, M. R. Loveless, Frank Harper and L. E. Williams.

The October meeting was held at the home of Mrs. J. T. Callaway on Rogers avenue, with Mrs. L. E. Williams as co-hostess. The guest speaker, Mrs. J. J. Nickolson, gave a talk on tulips, after which a delicious luncheon was served.

Mrs. Adams Given Birthday Party.

A birthday party was given by I. L. Adams, recently in honor of his wife, Mrs. Adams. In the center of the table was a beautiful birthday cake encircled by orange and black tapers. Contests prizes were awarded Kenneth Murphy and Mrs. Hubert Broadwell. Refreshments were served by Mesdames Minnie Adams, Raymond McClain and Mrs. M. W. Bolton. Invited were Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Bolton, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond McClain, Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Broadwell, Mr. and Mrs. Buck Rawlings, Mr. and Mrs. Terry Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh White, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Thomas, Mesdames Minnie L. Adams, John F. Myers, Misses Fannie White, Martha Ivy, Clementine Osburn, Tooles Ivy, Dorothy Wilson, Willoughby Adams, Jo Ann Adams, Kenneth Murphy, Neal Wilson and Douglas Johnson.

Get Comforting Relief From Watery Head Colds
Just put 2 drops of famous Penetro Nose Drops in each nostril and get comforting relief with every breath you take. Penetro Nose Drops are "delightfully different." That's because they contain ephedrine (opening-up action) and other "balanced medication." Don't suffer the misery of a watery head cold or the discomfort of sinus congestion. You'll feel relief as these soothing drops help shrink swollen membranes, soothe the inflamed area, make breathing easier. 25c, 50c, $1 bottles at all druggists. Pure size, only 10c. Demand Penetro Nose Drops.

Rich's Thrift Thursday

PRICES ONE DAY ONLY!

14.95 Simplex 5-Tube Radios

One Day
Only!

11.95

Substantial walnut cabinet, most compact: 11 1/2 x 5 1/2 x 7 1/2 in. With illuminated dial and dynamic speaker. Limited!

Rich's Sixth Floor

2.98 Brief Case

One Day Only!

1.89

Genuine leather brief case in black, brown and tan, with 3 pockets.

3.98 Fitted Case

One Day Only!

2.79

Men's fitted toilet case, genuine leather. 10-pc. set of fittings. Balcony, Street Floor

One Day Only!

SCATTER RUGS

2.19 to 4.25 Values

1.98

Axminsters, 27x54-in. scatter size. Chenille Rugs, large 2x4 ft. scatter size.

Rugs

Rich's Fourth Floor

Reg. 3.98 Log Carrier

One Day
Only

2.89

A timely bargain! Hammered antique brass finish. Rich's Sixth Floor

6.50 Universal Electric Iron

One Day
Only

4.69

Automatic Standard size. Chromium. Extra cord. Rich's Sixth Floor

2.75 Full Size Carpet Sweeper

One Day
Only

1.89

Cleans thoroughly! Rubber bumper. Ball bearing. Rich's Sixth Floor

3.45 Wagner Chicken Fryer

One Day
Only

2.49

Cast aluminum. No. 8 size. An all-time low price! Rich's Sixth Floor

1.50 Mixing Bowls—3 for

One Day
Only

89c

Rainbow striped earthenware. No. 6, 8, 10 sizes. Rich's Sixth Floor

3.98 Clothes Hampers Now

One Day
Only

2.89

Bench or upright style. Green, orchid, black tops. Rich's Sixth Floor

1.69 Velox Enamel, 1/2 Gal.

One Day
Only

1.44

Washable. 10 colors. For walls, woodwork. Special! Rich's Sixth Floor

2.98 Cosmetic Travel Kit

One Day
Only

1.29

Dark travel toned moire. Fitted with 5 jars! Rich's Street Floor

1.98 "Children's Story Bible"

One Day
Only

59c

Old and New Testament. Beautifully illustrated! Rich's Sixth Floor

1.00 Fountain Pen Set

One Day
Only

79c

Black pen, gold or silver stand. Squirrel motif! Rich's Street Floor

Special Group FUR COATS

Regularly 99.50-$125

For Thursday ONLY!

$88

Pony

Caracul

Blocked Lapin

Pony Paw

Northern Seal

ONLY 35 in this give-away group, so it's wise to be here on the dot of 9! Every outstanding style in these best-favorite furs: Swaggers—full-length fitted types!

Rich's Third Floor

1.00 Slipper Satin

One Day Only!

yd. 77c

White, pink, turquoise, wine, brown, green, black. For evening dresses, house coats and evening jackets!

25c ABC Percale

One Day Only!

yd. 19c

Specially priced for Thrift Thursday! The newest fall prints for making smart school and house dresses!

Rich's Second Floor

Thrift Thursday Only! Reg. 1.29 Stamped Pillow Cases

One Day
Only!

pr.

69c

Stamped for cutwork on fine quality linen finish tubing! Every pair perfect, taken from our regular stock! Free from dressing.

Rich's Second Floor

THE HOUSE OF HATS

ANNOUNCES

DRASTIC REDUCTIONS

ELLA BUCHANAN GUNN

297 OXFORD PL., N. E.

King

HARDWARE COMPANY

53 Peachtree Street

One of the Best Values

We've Ever Offered!

63-Pc. Set Genuine Noritake China

Complete $21.95
Service for 8

8 Dinner Plates 8 Bread & Butters
8 Cream Soups & 8 Saucers
8 Fruits 8 Cups & 8 Saucers
Cream Sugar with Top
Platter Gravy Boat
Oval Vegetable Dish
Divided Vegetable Dish

55-Pc. Set (Same Pattern), $18.95
With Coupe Soups instead of Cream Soups.

A beautiful, transparent china, excellently glazed. Center of white and palest cream, border in robin's egg blue with pink, blue and yellow posies... finished with narrow gold band. It is as pretty as any pattern we've ever seen... and the quality compares excellently with sets you've seen at twice this price! Buy now—deposit will hold it for you until Christmas.

Have You Tried the Convenience of a Charge Account at King Hardware?

Just see the manager of your nearest King Hardware Store... a charge account at one store is good at any other! It's so convenient to telephone and say "please charge it and deliver." (And there's never a cent charged for delivery service!)

KING'S CHINA AND CRYSTAL SHOP, 2ND FLOOR

New Winter Fashions Allow No Waistline Bugges—You Must Be Slim

Cuddle Toys Nice Gifts!

Household Arts by Alice Brooks

Two Pieces
Form Each
Toy

PATTERN 5972

The three little pigs are dancing at the very thought of being selected as Xmas gifts! They're thinking of the joy they are going to bring to some wee person. You'll like them, too, for they are quickly made—each pig is in two pieces. And the removable clothes? Just odds and ends—a gay check or print will do. Youngsters enjoy moving the floppy arms. In

SALE

"Suede"
SHOES

EVERY SIZE... EVERY STYLE... $8.95

Murray! We haven't had back a pair of new fall sueded —By Now!

CANTILEVER
SHOES

"Bartwood"
Smartly styled beautifully made suede shoes with all the Cantilever comfort. Only suede shoes included in this sale.

VANCE
Cantilever
SHOE STORE
120 PEACHTREE ARCADE

Your Figure, Madam

By IDA JEAN KAIN.

WAISTLINE CONTINUES TO BE CENTER OF ATTENTION.
By this time you know that you have to do something about your waistline. Not in years has style been so insistent on the slim waist. Even the girls who always considered their figures pretty good are alarmed about the fashion tuck in the waistline. To reconcile your figure to the new mode you must take steps to firm and slenderize this mid-section of the anatomy.

If you are ambitious, two weeks can work wonders on the wayward waistline. Knowing exactly what you can expect out of exercise helps you to get the most out of it and you can expect the inches to vanish most speedily on a combination of stretching, twisting and bending. Stretching pulls the bulges apart, twisting squeezes the fat pads, and bending reflexly contracts the abdominal wall. Never permit the abdominal muscles to go lax as you bend and twist.

Try this rotary twist:
Position: On knees on the floor, knees slightly apart, arms stretched straight out from the sides.
Movement: Twist and bend to the left and touch the floor in front of the left knee with the right hand. Return to position and bend to the right, touching the left hand to the floor in front of the right knee. Perform the exercise for 20 counts, swinging to one side, then the other. Don't let your trunk muscles slump as you do this exercise.

This exercise pulls out the waistline bulges.

Now for another bulge! Lie on the floor on the back, arms stretched out on the floor at the sides. Flex the knees, and holding the feet together off the floor, roll sideways from the waist until the side of the left leg is resting on the floor. Pause a second and roll

Home Institute

AMUSE YOURSELF AND FRIENDS, TOO, BY LEARNING TO READ PALMS

PALMS ANSWER YOUR THREE BIG QUESTIONS.

The way Madge does it, palmistry is as easy as it's exciting. "Yes," she says mysteriously to Jim, "in your palm I'll find the answers to three big questions—what will your romance be? Will you be lucky? What sort of person are you?"

The answer to the first question Madge finds in Jim's marriage line—that little horizontal line below the little finger—and in the heart line, the top line across his palm.

Do your own lines, mounts, and fingers have different quirks? In our 40-page booklet, PALMISTRY AND ASTROLOGY, the secrets of palmistry are clearly explained. Read your own palm easily and your friends' palms, too.

Send 15c for our booklet, PALMISTRY AND ASTROLOGY, to Home Institute, The Constitution, Atlanta, Ga. Write plainly your name, address, and the name of booklet.

Federation Observes Education Week.
The attention of the American nation is focused upon education during American Education Week, November 2-13. As chairman of the Department of Education of the Atlanta Federation of Women's Clubs, Mrs. George H. Slapney has requested each chairman of education and those activities which come under education, as special projects, in every local Atlanta federation club, to observe the first week in November as American Education Week in some way.

Atlanta Federation chairmen coming under the Department of Education will be glad to aid any local club in the motivation of any phase of special interest. They are: Adult education, Mrs. W. S. Kell; library service, Mrs. Murdoch Walker; character building and conservation of youth, Mrs. E. W. Klein; gift scholarship, Mrs. F. S. Callahan and Mrs. F. S. Dumas; kindergarten, Mrs. John M. Douglas; illiteracy, Mrs. Cecelia L. Ranta, and Mrs. Swaney, former chairman of education, is now co-chairman throughout the state.

Beshers-Swaney.
The marriage of Mrs. Valria Cox Beshers to Julius T. Swaney, of Savannah, formerly of Atlanta, was quietly solemnized in Savannah October 27, by Judge Emanuel Lewis.

Mrs. Swaney is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Cox, of Atlanta, and Mrs. Swaney is the son of Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Swaney, of College Park.

The bride wore an attractive model of navy blue with accessories to match. The couple are residing at 122 E. Taylor street, in Savannah.

Balanced Reducing Menu.
BREAKFAST—
Orange juice, 1-2 cup 50
Poached egg on toast 150
Coffee, 1 tsp. cream 30
1 rounded tsp. sugar 250

LUNCHEON—
Tomato bouillon, 1 cup 50
Chopped meat sandwich 250 mustard and pickle 50
Stewed fruit 100

DINNER—
Lamb stew with vegetables 275
(1 cup)
Head lettuce with Roquefort cheese dressing, 100
1 1-2 tbsp. 100
Butter, 1-2 pat 50
Glass of buttermilk or 50

WHEAT IS HARVESTED OR PLANTED SOMEWHERE IN THE WORLD EVERY DAY OF THE YEAR

THE TOP-GRADE SOFT RED WINTER WHEAT THAT IS MADE INTO OMEGA FLOUR IS PLANTED IN THE FALL AND HARVESTED IN EARLY SUMMER. THE TENDER GLUTEN OF THIS SPECIAL WHEAT IS ONE REASON WHY OMEGA GIVES EXTRA LIGHTNESS AND FLUFFINESS. HARD WHEAT FLOURS HAVE TOUGH GLUTENS.

HEALTH TALKS

By DR. WILLIAM BRADY.

SOFT, SMOOTH AND CLEAR.
A dry, rough, irritable and lustreless skin (xerosis, xeroderma) is generally improved by the regular application of a suitable skin oil.

While freshly made cold cream (the directions for making have already been given) is standard for the purpose, many victims of xerosis prefer the daily use of some simple neutral bland oil such as olive oil, almond oil, coconut oil (obtained from the meat of the coconut, fruit of the coconut palm), cacao oil (commonly known as "cocoa butter," the yellowish fat obtained from the seeds of the cacao tree, called "cocoa beans" or "cocoa nibs," from which chocolate is obtained) and sesame oil.

Sesame oil (officially Oleum Sesami, commonly called teal oil, benne oil or oil of til) is expressed from the seeds of the benne plant which grows in the southern states and in India. It is as nutritious and digestible as olive oil. The oil has two properties that give it pre-eminence in cosmetology—it keeps long without becoming rancid and it does not clog the skin as do other oils. A few drops daily of the following preparation will be found an excellent conditioner for the skin:

Skin Oil.
Heat moderately for three hours in a double boiler or water bath four ounces of sesame oil with 20 grains of powdered benzoin. Then add 20 drops of 100 proof alcohol, stir well and finally filter or strain through silk.

Xerosis or xeroderma is known as ichthyosis (fishskin disease, alligator hide) when it is so pronounced as to have a scaly appearance. Back of the elbows, outer surfaces of knees and calves are common situations of ichthyosis. The skin in the affected areas is dry, harsh, rough, scaly, and in some instances shows a further, acous desquamation or peeling of dry scales. It is most troublesome in winter and in colder climates.

The daily application of Skin Oil, and avoidance of soap and other irritants, controls the trouble in mild cases. In more obstinate cases ichthyosis requires medical treatment, regulation of faulty function of ductless glands, alkaline baths, sunbaths and an optimal ration of the sunshine vitamin (vitamin D).

The addition of 30 grains of salicylic acid to the four ounces of skin oil as already described, makes a more effective application for patches of "alligator hide" about elbows or knees.

Skin Oil (without the salicylic acid) is suitable to apply sparingly to the scalp to correct excessive dryness of scalp and hair after a shampoo—part the hair here and there and rub a few drops of the scalp with the tip in contact with the scalp. Sesame oil has been used for centuries as a skin oil by the Persians and the Egyptians. Only they have never had such an elegant preparation of it as you have in Skin Oil.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS.
Floating Kidney.
What causes floating kidneys? Doctor said I would have to wear a belt to keep it in place. (Mrs. H. E. C.)

Answer—Chief cause is emaciation, loss of larding or fatty tissues that normally embeds and supports kidneys. Lowering of viles, from nutritional deficiency, is another cause, more or less operative in most cases. Many persons have movable or "floating" kidney, stomach, etc., and no particular trouble, until they learn their organs are "displaced."

Whenever I have a tooth extracted it bleeds away into the night. Would calcium lactate tablets help this? (Miss S. L.)

Answer—Perhaps. At least stands between him and you, his father. Remind her that there are three other sisters and their husbands who should share the responsibility and the burden of caring for their mother and that you think it only fair for M-I-L to spend part time with them.

If your wife has any suspicion she will be quick to see the justice of your position and she will co-operate with you in removing the old lady from the scene, temporarily at least. If she has no suspicion and no foresight she will continue to defy you and then you may have to resort to the fear method. Just stand on your hind legs, give notice that at the end of 30 days mother-in-law must be out.

Arthritis.
My sister has been almost incapacitated for months with what seems to be rheumatoid arthritis. Answer—Send 10 cents coin and stamped envelope bearing your address, for booklet "The Ills Called Rheumatism." (Copyright, 1931, for The Constitution.)

Boys' High Club Gives Hay Ride.
The Boys' High Hi-Y Club will hold a hayride this evening to the farm of R. W. Davis, faculty advisor of the club, near College Park. The hayride is being given in honor of the newly elected members of the club.

Miss Ella Merriam is the popular sponsor of the club, and Jack Hark is president. Other officers are: Helen Jones, Allie Malone, Margaret Parker, Sylvia McConnell, Thelma Cagle, Allen Finch, Edna Davis, Lorraine Layton, Elaine Bond, Marjorie Bloom, Susan Garret, Della Grooms, Anna Bord Burnett and Georgia Rauchenberger.

Others: Brodnax, John Roberts, Pyndee, Harry, Brodnax, John Roberts, Pyndee, Griffith, Albert Bayle, Kenon Edwards, Charles, Edna Davis, Lorraine Layton, Mack Dugger, David Johnston, Julian Thomas, Chester, Bob Becht, Joe Trammell, Odon Olin Fanning, Bruce McDuffie, James Barrow, Griffith, Arnold, Carl Lindebach, Jimmie McEach, Sidney Isenberg, Roger Stokely, Van Burgh, Milton Edgerton, Stephen Epstein, Furry Blackshear, Carlisle Phillips, John Yost and Count Gibson Jr.

If Skin Trouble Torments You
Get relief with famous, 20-year-old Black and White Ointment. A scientific formula with a proven dependable record. Trial size, 10c. Large size, 25c. Be sure to use Black and White Skin Soap first. Sold by all dealers everywhere.

MY DAY

By Eleanor Roosevelt

HYDE PARK, N. Y.—Election day is always an exciting day with us. The fact that our chief interest this year is in local candidates makes it all the more exciting, for it is hard to elect Democrats in this district to local offices and therefore the element of real struggle enters into the campaign.

I have always felt that for local offices in a small place, where everybody knows everyone else, the vote should be more a question of the man than one of party allegiance. When you have a good man, running of your own party, however, it certainly is more fun trying to win votes in a district which is normally on the opposite side of the political fence.

A young Democrat was elected supervisor here last time and I think has made an exceptional record. I know he impressed me very much when I heard him speak one night, not because of his oratory, for he is a very shy young man, but because he told me so many things about local government which I had never known before, and pointed out so much that could be done.

One of the leading Democratic political workers, in talking to me yesterday about a candidate, made a very amusing comment.

"I want to get around and tell them that he has been in exactly the same position since he went to work," he said. "We don't want a man in office who is contented to stay just where he began."

Rather a good criticism and a better reason for voting against a person than many of those which one hears.

I can imagine that in big cities all over the country, especially in New York city, the tide of excitement will run high, but I think that our own local elections create just as much interest in this neighborhood, and that is as it should be.

We drove up to the polls in an open car about noon and the usual collection of photographers and newsreel men were present. As it is the last full day we will have in the country for some time, I am very pleased to be able to enjoy it out of doors. It has become milder and the air is soft. When I was a child we would have said that weather like this in early November was Indian summer, but lately people seem to think that Indian summer comes earlier. I have often wondered about the origin and I think I must try to find out why we talk about Indian summer at all.

Someone who knew about trees looked thoughtfully across our big field and casually mentioned that the way the oak trees grew established the fact that those fields had been cultivated by the Indians. I have felt there were many interesting facts which I had accepted all my life without in the least understanding them!

(Copyright, 1931, for The Constitution.)

FRIENDLY COUNSEL
By CAROLINE CHATFIELD.

problems of general interest submitted by readers will be discussed in this column. Correspondence invited. Your name will be confidential. Write Miss Chatfield care The Atlanta Constitution.

DEAR MISS CHATFIELD:
I have a problem that is driving me nuts. Who's supposed to be the head of a home, anyhow, the man or his mother-in-law. I haven't a thing to say around here—not even permitted to reprimand my own son without having wife's mother warn me not to punish him. He's old enough to understand and there I am helpless. I have told her a time or two that she must keep her nose out of my business but that hasn't helped matters. I have told my wife that if the old lady was going to stay I wasn't. My wife isn't the only child; there are three others whose husbands make far more than I do, but here I am tied hand and foot with no say-so in my own home yet expected to bring home the bacon. What shall I do?

ANSWER: Brother, before you go completely nuts and are incapable of using your head in a crisis, get this thought clearly established in your mind. There are just two ways in which a man can manage his wife: one is for him to make her love him so much that her first, last and only desire is to please him; the other is for him to make her afraid to defy him. It takes a good man to do either. In last analysis your problem is management of your wife, for the old lady takes her cue from daughter.

Then try the love method first. Instead of scolding and threatening your wife and cursing her mother, have a nice cozy heart-to-heart talk with her in which you point out that your little family would fare much better and live more normally and happily if you were alone. Show her how the little boy is growing up without discipline because his grandmother stands between him and you, his father. Remind her that there are three other sisters and their husbands who should share the responsibility and the burden of caring for their mother and that you think it only fair for M-I-L to spend part time with them.

If your wife has any suspicion she will be quick to see the justice of your position and she will co-operate with you in removing the old lady from the scene, temporarily at least. If she has no suspicion and no foresight she will continue to defy you and then you may have to resort to the fear method. Just stand on your hind legs, give notice that at the end of 30 days mother-in-law must be out.

TAKE WEIGHT OFF TIRED FEET

Less Fat The Easy Way—Without Starvation Diets, or Back-Racking, Bending and Rolling Exercises.

If your feet and ankles feel tired and ache all over—because you are carrying too much fat—do something about it. Try the treatment that has helped millions to reduce excess weight.

There's a reason why so many people find dieting slow and often times futile in reducing. The reason, doctors say, is often because a little gland is not working right. All the blood in your body goes through this tiny gland sixteen times every day. If it doesn't pour into the blood stream about one and one-half drops of vital fluid every 24 hours, many people take on up to 50 pounds of extra fat.

This gland helps Nature to "burn up" excess food and fatty tissue in much the same way as a good "draft" acts in a furnace. Now, physicians combat this condition by feeding this gland the substance it lacks—and millions of pounds of excess fat has been wiped out in this way.

Marmola Prescription Tablets are based on the same method used by doctors. Do not waste your time or money striving to reduce with starvation diets or back-breaking exercises. Start with Marmola today that millions have used successfully to get rid of excess fat. The formula is in every box so you know just what you are taking. Don't wait—get a box of Marmola today from your druggist.

So easy to serve

..so refreshing

Coca-Cola

White's GRANDMOTHER SAUSAGE

Pure Pork

OMEGA flour

THE SOUTH'S FINEST PLAIN OR SELF-RISING

White's GRANDMOTHER SAUSAGE

Pure Pork

Sarah Lewis Carries Bouquet Marked by Unusual Sentiment

By Sally Forth.

WHEN Sarah Lewis made her formal bow to society yesterday, her bouquet was an important part of her costume for two reasons. First, it completed the perfect picture Sarah made in her yellow taffeta gown, its wide swing skirt appliqued in bow-knots in deeper tones of yellow. And second, it held unusual sentiment, for it was an expression of devotion from a club of young girls, all of whom grew up with Sarah and have been her closest friends throughout her short span of years.

Charmingly old-fashioned and encased in a lace paper frill, the bouquet was centered with four exquisite purple orchids with deep red throats. Surrounding the orchids were rows of yellow rosebuds, the first row of pale yellow and the successive rows of deeper hues, repeating the tones in Sarah's gown. A fringe of valley lilies outlined the bouquet which was tied with yellow satin streamers caught with sprays of valley lilies.

The group of devoted friends who begged permission to send the bouquet were Sarah's classmates, first at E. Rivers school, and later at high school. Many of the number are away at college for the winter, but it is a safe bet that today their thoughts turn happily homeward to Sarah and her coming-out party. The group includes Frances Sprattin and Jane Leach, who are at Northwestern University; Helen Clarke, Dorothy Harris, Rosalie Brooks, Louise McKie and Rennie Geisler, all of whom are students at Georgia; Charlotte Ripley and Lillian Broward, who attend Oglethorpe; Mary Kerr and Blanche Knapp.

Sarah's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Morgan, presented her to the married contingent of society at an afternoon reception, and last evening her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward S. Lewis, were hosts to the younger contingent at a cotillion. Both affairs were held at the Driving Club, where the elaborate decorations featured a garden motif suggested by the nursery rhyme about "Contrary Mary." The debutante and the hosts received in a perfect bower of floral tributes sent Sarah by her countless friends, and placed at the far end of the ballroom. A charming effect was gained by a simulated garden, outlined by a white picket fence, which served as a background and occupied one entire end of the room. Yellow chrysanthemums nodded their bright heads over the fence, and potted fir trees stood guard at the posts. Huge clusters of brilliantly tinted autumn leaves topped the columns ranging the length of the ballroom and further created the effect of a garden. The buffet tables were outlined in garlands of yellow button chrysanthemums, and banked in the center with roses and chrysanthemums in autumn shades.

But wait till you hear about the lovely favors presented to the guests! Sarah led the cotillion with Arthur Clarke, and during the figure just preceding supper, the girls were given small silver bells and the men received pouch shells containing whistles—just like the silver bells and the cockle shells that grew in "Contrary Mary's" garden, you know. Other favors were bonnets and aprons in pastel shades for the ladies, with walking canes and big chrysanthemums for the men.

Of course no party is complete now without the "Big Apple," and following supper a big red apple was brought to the ballroom floor to serve as focal point for the latest dance craze. When opened, the apple revealed small cotton apples and bags of gay confetti which added merriment to the occasion.

Receiving with the debutante both in the afternoon and the evening were her lovely visitors, Mary Lewis, of Albany, and Cora Lewis McGee, of Greenville, Miss. Mary, who is Sarah's cousin, you remember, wore pinkie blue taffeta, and Cora was gowned in white crepe embroidered in gold.

Mrs. Morgan chose for her granddaughter's debut a handsome gown of dark blue velvet, fashioned with a sequin-embroidered jacket. Her flowers were orchids. Mrs. Lewis wore brown net embroidered in gold, the Y neckline bordered in pink. A cluster of bronze orchids adorned her shoulder.

Of course Barney called the cars for both parties. Which seemed particularly appropriate on this occasion, for it was Barney who officiated in the same capacity when Mrs. Lewis made her debut as Elizabeth Morgan, and again when she became the bride of Mr. Lewis.

Presented at Reception and Dance

Constitution Staff Photo—Roto.

Miss Sarah Lewis as she appeared in her debut gown when presented to Atlanta society by her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Morgan, at a reception yesterday afternoon, and by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Lewis, at a ball last evening. Both affairs were held at the Piedmont Driving Club and assembled several hundred members of fashionable society in the afternoon and again in the evening.

Except in those days he called carriages instead of motor cars.

WHEN Mount Vernon Seminary celebrates its 100th anniversary next week in the national capital Atlanta will be represented by Mrs. Richard Hull and Mrs. Joseph W. Cooper Jr., two of the city's socially prominent young matrons. Mrs. Hull, the former Nora Glancy, and Mr. Cooper, who was formerly Tatie Howell, were members of the same class at Mount Vernon and their visit to the school next week will be the first made since that important day when they received their diplomas.

Society Events

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 4.

Miss Martha deGollan gives a tea at her home on Howell Mill road for her guest, Miss Marion Butler, of Roanoke, Va., and Misses Laura Hill, Marianna Adair, Emmakate Vreeman, Ida Akers and Anne Atkins, debutantes.

Mrs. Clarence F. Coppedge gives a luncheon at her home on Lombardy way for her niece, Miss Anne Wallace Coppedge, debutante.

Mrs. Walter Scott Askew and her daughters, Mesdames Lyman Johnson and John Bonan Jr., give a tea at 4:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Askew on Peachtree road honoring Misses Nisbet LeConte and Ellen Rhodes, brides-elect.

Mrs. E. W. McMurria gives a luncheon at the Atlanta Athletic Club for Mrs. Richard Lawton, of New Orleans, and Mrs. Mason Lovance gives a tea at her home on Ponce de Leon avenue, and this evening Mr. and Mrs. Homer Carmichael entertain at their home on Piedmont avenue for Mrs. Lawton.

Mrs. Ben T. Comer gives a tea at her home on Rock Springs road for her daughter, Mrs. Ben T. Comer Jr., recent bride.

The executive board of the Emory University Hospital Auxiliary entertains at 10:30 o'clock at a "coffee" in the nurses' home.

The Presidents' Club has a luncheon and round-table in Rich's at 12 o'clock.

Mrs. W. W. Daniel entertains the Atlanta Woman's Rural and Mountain Circle of Georgia at tea from 2:30 to 4:30 o'clock at her home, 1705 Pelham road, at which Rev. William Rice, missionary, will be guest of honor.

Surgeons' Week in Chicago and Madison he attended the University of Wisconsin Clinical program.

Miss Nettie Asher and her brother, Abe Asher, left yesterday by motor for New York where they will spend 10 days.

Mrs. J. P. Redding, of Albany, is visiting Mrs. W. C. Messer in West End.

Miss Angela Courter has resumed her studies at St. Mary's College in Notre Dame, Ind., after undergoing a recent operation.

Hamby Barton, a student at Oxford this year, spent the week end with his parents, Rev. and Mrs. J. H. Barton.

Harold Edwards has resumed his studies at Mercer University after spending the week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Edwards, in West End.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Q. Snow, Mrs. Charles M. Manston, Miss Bessie

PERSONALS
Miss Ann Brumby leaves tomorrow for Chattanooga to visit her uncle and aunt, Dr. and Mrs. Charles R. Henry. She will attend the Junior League dance there tomorrow evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Russell Powell, of Augusta, announce the birth of a son on November 2 at the University hospital. The baby, who has been named Henry Russell Jr., is the grandson of Mrs. Joseph S. Reynolds and Mrs. Henry Russell Powell, of Augusta. The baby's mother is the former Miss Mary Reynolds, of Atlanta and Augusta.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Paul Brandewie, of Cincinnati, Ohio, will arrive Monday for a visit of two weeks with their brother and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Clyde Drummond, on Argonne avenue. With their visitors, Mr. and Mrs. Drummond will motor to Mobile, Ala., to spend the following week and with their brother and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Crawford.

Mrs. Ruth Hinman Carter left yesterday for New York where she will attend the National Book Fair.

Mrs. Inman Sanders and Mrs. George W. Forrester left Sunday for New York. Mrs. Forrester will be the guest of her sister, Mrs. W. C. Jarnigan.

Mrs. John M. Wright and Miss Annette Maziar are in New York city.

Miss Elizabeth Scrivenen, of Winchester, Ky., is visiting her brother and sister, Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Scrivenen.

Mrs. Green Dodd is the guest of Mrs. Sterling Elder at her home on Eleventh street.

Miss Nora F. McMahon has returned from Jacksonville, Fla.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Fields announce the birth of a son on October 30 at Crawford W. Long hospital who has been named Alvin McKinnon. Mrs. Fields was before her marriage Miss Marion McKinnon.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Daniel Jr. announce the birth of a daughter on October 27 at Piedmont hospital who has been named Willie Singer, for her paternal grandmother. Mrs. Daniel was before her marriage Miss Evelyn Lowndes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Holland Lowndes, of San Antonio, Texas. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Daniel are the paternal grandparents of the baby.

Mrs. Gillespie Sadler left yesterday for Charlotte, N. C., to spend several days with her sister, Mrs. Lawrence Dodsworth.

Dr. and Mrs. Forrest Barfield have returned from a visit to Detroit, Mich., and Chicago, Ill. In the latter city Dr. Barfield attended a meeting of the American College of Surgeons.

Dr. and Mrs. T. J. Collier returned Monday from Chicago and Madison, Wis. Dr. Collier attended the 16th annual Congress of Anesthetists of the United States and Canada during Congress of

Returns From Extended Trip

Ben Art Photo.

Mrs. J. M. Holmes, accompanied by her husband, recently returned from a trip to Denver, Chicago and points of interest in Canada. In Chicago, she was the guest of Mrs. Ed Clancy.

Cook and Jo Anne and Marilyn Smith spent Sunday in north Georgia.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Leach were recent guests of Mrs. O. C. Robbins, in West End, en route to Macon after a visit in New Orleans. Mrs. Leach is the former Miss Edna Robbins.

Mrs. Beulah D. Manston has returned from a visit in Virginia.

Miss Edna Barton has returned to the Georgia State College for Women after a visit at her home in Decatur.

Surgeons' Week in Chicago and Madison he attended the University of Wisconsin Clinical program.

Miss Nettie Asher and her brother, Abe Asher, left yesterday by motor for New York where they will spend 10 days.

Mrs. J. P. Redding, of Albany, is visiting Mrs. W. C. Messer in West End.

Miss Angela Courter has resumed her studies at St. Mary's College in Notre Dame, Ind., after undergoing a recent operation.

Hamby Barton, a student at Oxford this year, spent the week end with his parents, Rev. and Mrs. J. H. Barton.

Harold Edwards has resumed his studies at Mercer University after spending the week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Edwards, in West End.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Q. Snow, Mrs. Charles M. Manston, Miss Bessie

PERSONALS
Miss Ann Brumby leaves tomorrow for Chattanooga to visit her uncle and aunt, Dr. and Mrs. Charles R. Henry. She will attend the Junior League dance there tomorrow evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Russell Powell, of Augusta, announce the birth of a son on November 2 at the University hospital. The baby, who has been named Henry Russell Jr., is the grandson of Mrs. Joseph S. Reynolds and Mrs. Henry Russell Powell, of Augusta. The baby's mother is the former Miss Mary Reynolds, of Atlanta and Augusta.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Paul Brandewie, of Cincinnati, Ohio, will arrive Monday for a visit of two weeks with their brother and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Clyde Drummond, on Argonne avenue. With their visitors, Mr. and Mrs. Drummond will motor to Mobile, Ala., to spend the following week and with their brother and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Crawford.

Mrs. Ruth Hinman Carter left yesterday for New York where she will attend the National Book Fair.

Mrs. Inman Sanders and Mrs. George W. Forrester left Sunday for New York. Mrs. Forrester will be the guest of her sister, Mrs. W. C. Jarnigan.

Mrs. John M. Wright and Miss Annette Maziar are in New York city.

Miss Elizabeth Scrivenen, of Winchester, Ky., is visiting her brother and sister, Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Scrivenen.

Mrs. Green Dodd is the guest of Mrs. Sterling Elder at her home on Eleventh street.

Miss Nora F. McMahon has returned from Jacksonville, Fla.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Fields announce the birth of a son on October 30 at Crawford W. Long hospital who has been named Alvin McKinnon. Mrs. Fields was before her marriage Miss Marion McKinnon.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Daniel Jr. announce the birth of a daughter on October 27 at Piedmont hospital who has been named Willie Singer, for her paternal grandmother. Mrs. Daniel was before her marriage Miss Evelyn Lowndes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Holland Lowndes, of San Antonio, Texas. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Daniel are the paternal grandparents of the baby.

Mrs. Gillespie Sadler left yesterday for Charlotte, N. C., to spend several days with her sister, Mrs. Lawrence Dodsworth.

Dr. and Mrs. Forrest Barfield have returned from a visit to Detroit, Mich., and Chicago, Ill. In the latter city Dr. Barfield attended a meeting of the American College of Surgeons.

Dr. and Mrs. T. J. Collier returned Monday from Chicago and Madison, Wis. Dr. Collier attended the 16th annual Congress of Anesthetists of the United States and Canada during Congress of

Women's Meetings

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 4.

"How to Make American Education Week a Success" will be discussed before Atlanta P.-T. A. Council this morning at 9:45 o'clock.

Fourth District of the B. W. M. U. of the Atlanta Association, will hold a mission study rally at 10 o'clock at Gordon Street Baptist church.

The board of management of the Atlanta Chapter, D. A. R., will meet at 10:30 o'clock with Mrs. Thomas C. Mell at her home, 2499 Peachtree road.

Board of the Atlanta section of the Council of Jewish Women meets at 10:15 o'clock at the Standard Club.

Capitol View Garden Club meets with Mrs. A. L. Harwell, 1450 DeSoto avenue, S. W.

W. M. S. of the Grant Park Christian church meets at the church at 2:30 o'clock.

Auxiliary-Guild of St. John's Episcopal church in College Park meets at 3 o'clock.

Woman's Relief Corps, G. A. R., meets at 2:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. W. Howard Smith, 690-A Spring street, N. W.

Daddies' night will be held in Center Hill school auditorium at 8 o'clock.

Fathers will be honored by Central Park P.-T. A. at 7:45 o'clock in the school auditorium.

Study group of the Cascade Garden Club meets for a covered dish luncheon at 12 o'clock, followed by the study period.

Mrs. I. H. McElreath, Mrs. Sam Pierce, Mrs. H. N. Garner, Mrs. H. E. Durham, Mrs. W. B. Jones and Mrs. P. E. Ivie will entertain the executive board and group captains at 661 Brownwood avenue for the Home-Makers' Class of the Moreland Avenue Baptist church at 10:30 o'clock.

Fifty-Fifty Study Club meets at 10:45 o'clock with Mrs. W. T. Mooney at her home at 1570 Gordon street, S. W.

Executive board of the Joseph Habersham Chapter, D. A. R., meets at Habersham Hall at 270 Fifteenth street, N. E., at 10 o'clock.

St. Charles Club meets this morning with Mrs. O. H. Wilson at 819 St. Charles avenue and at 2:30 o'clock the club sponsors a benefit bridge.

First Aid Class meets at Morningside school at 10 o'clock.

Do As Your Dentist Does—when he cleans your teeth

Use POWDER

All Cleansing Properties
No Acid, No Grit or Pumice
Cannot possibly injure or scratch
Costs Less to Use

NOTHING else cleans and polishes teeth more quickly and leaves them more naturally white—than POWDER.

That is why your dentist, when cleaning your teeth, as you know—almost always uses powder.

As it is only the powder part of most dentifrices that cleans, a dentifrice that is all powder just naturally cleans effectively. Dr. Lyon's Tooth Powder is ALL POWDER—all cleansing properties.

For over seventy years many dentists everywhere have prescribed Dr. Lyon's Tooth Powder because normal teeth simply cannot remain dull and dingy looking when it is used. Dr. Lyon's cleans and polishes the teeth in a harmless and practical way that leaves them sparkling with natural brightness. It leaves your teeth feeling so much cleaner, your mouth so refreshed and your breath so sweet and pure.

Dr. Lyon's Tooth Powder is a special dental powder developed for HOME USE by a distinguished practicing dentist. Free from all acids, grit or pumice, it cannot possibly injure or scratch the tooth enamel as years of constant use have shown. Even as a neutralizer in acid mouth conditions, Dr. Lyon's is an effective antacid.

Brush your teeth with Dr. Lyon's Tooth Powder regularly—consult your dentist periodically—eat a diet rich in minerals and vitamins, and you will be doing all that you can possibly do to protect your teeth.

Dr. Lyon's is more economical to use. In the same size and price class it outlasts tooth pastes two to one. Even a small package will last you for months.

DR. LYON'S TOOTH POWDER

NOVEMBER CLEARANCE!

412 dresses Were 14.95 and 17.95 .. Now $8
Were 17.95 and 22.95 .. Now $12

110 French Room dresses One-of-a-Kind Greatly Reduced!

40 Exclusive Costume Suits One-of-a-Kind Greatly Reduced!

53 Tweed Suits Were 22.95 .. Now $10

28 Fur-Trimmed Suits Were 79.50 to 98.75 .. $50

Second Floor

J. P. ALLEN & CO.
"The Store All Women Know"

Jackets Scrimmage on Offense, Defense; Rimmer Stars

BULLDOG BACKS WILL BE TESTED IN FLORIDA TILT

Sophs Must Handle Attack Due to Numerous Injuries.

ATHENS, Ga., Nov. 3.—The brunt of Georgia's attacking machinery has been dumped into the laps of the sophomores for the terrific November stretch due to the injury toll.

Groomed the first of the season by coaches for understudy roles, the first-year men now must step into heavy duty fire. Whether the flashy sophomore backs are mere flashes in the pan will be brought out in this all-important drive which begins Saturday against Florida.

GOOD SHOWING.
The boys in question were responsible for another good offensive showing this afternoon, including runs by Dooley Matthews and Ben Ehrlich. They were responsible for all of the varsity's eight touchdowns against the freshmen.

On defense they cracked up, however. They lack experience, height, shiftness and surefire tackling ability. A mixed Red Devil and freshman team scored two touchdowns on runs of 50 and 20 yards this afternoon.

HRILICH STARS.
Ben Ehrlich, the scrappy former Boys' High star, has been showing unusually good ground-gaining ability recently. Jim Cavan, right halfback, now has a charley horse which is giving Ehrlich more of a chance to shine. Tommy Haygood missed practice today due to tooth trouble.

Today's lineup follows: Thomas and Towns, ends; Wilhite and Badgett, tackles; Tinsley and Troutman, guards; Lumpkin, center; Miller, quarterback; Mims and Cate, halfbacks; Fordham, fullback.

MISS KING WINS A BLUE RIBBON

NEW YORK, Nov. 3.—(AP)—The eight-day contest among the country's finest equine bloodbreds of the show ring got under way in Madison Square Garden today with three sportswomen from widely separated sections of the nation throwing out strong challenges for blue ribbon honors in the National Horse Show.

Judy King, of Atlanta, Ga., third last year; Mrs. Louisa Long Combs, of Kansas City, returning to the National after an absence of two years; and Mrs. John Hay Whitney, of Upperville, Va., and New York, gave warning that they will be in the running for the title left undefended by Frances Dodge, of Rochester, Mich.

Miss King scored her victory at the expense of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Dick's Dicksfield farm, of Gurnee, Ill., which was runner-up last year. The southern sportswoman's Highland Cardinal took the measure of Dicksfield's Stonehedge Temptation in a two-horse contest for three-year-old hackney ponies.

Riverside To Face G.M.C. at Gainesville

GAINESVILLE, Ga., Nov. 3.—Football fans of this section are looking for the greatest prep grid contest of the year when Riverside's Blue Battalion resumes hostilities with Georgia Military College here next Friday. The game, originally scheduled as a night encounter, has been moved up to Friday afternoon on Riverside's Vaden field, and a large number of out-of-town fans are expected, particularly since there are no major college games in this section this week end.

Interest in the game, already intense, has further increased since both teams emerged last week from crucial tests with overwhelming victories. In last week's go Coach "Red" Sanders' Tigers handed a 25 to 6 defeat to Knoxville Central High which was in its third successive victorious season and had yielded no scores in this year's play. The Cadet backfield combination of Harrison and Hughes effectively wrecked the Tennessee record, while G. M. C. on the preceding day just as decisively routed "Red" Barron's formidable Argies, 25 to 9.

HEELFLY SICK.
LOS ANGELES, Nov. 3.—(AP)—Heefly, prized race horse of the T. P. Morgan stable, was reported sick today en route here from the east where he placed second to the great War Admiral in the $15,000 Washington handicap last Saturday.

BUILD UP LOWERED VITALITY

Try Quick-Acting Sandox Tonic Tablets

If you aren't as strong and as vigorous as you were 5 or 10 years ago—if you're run-down, tired, easily fatigued—if your pep is gone and your vitality lowered—try the original formula of a well-known New York physician called SANDOX TONIC TABLETS. They contain essential vitamins, concentrated in adequate doses, plus quick-acting vegetable tonic stimulants. SANDOX tablets are guaranteed not to contain Nux Vomica (strychnine) or any other condition when taken as directed on label. Ask for Sandox Tonic and save money. Refuse substitutes. Remember Sandox is an original formula. There's nothing like it on the market. Sold and guaranteed by Taylor's Drug Store, Peachtree and Cain.

EARL MANN

Mr. Earl Mann, president of Those Crackers, looked like the picture the patent medicine people used to use to depict the acute misery and weariness people needlessly suffered by not taking a few of their pills.

"What's the matter?"
"I went to Florida for a rest," he said.
"For a rest?"
"Yes. I went to Daytona. There wasn't much going on there, so I moved on to Panama City. Then I started south for some fishing and then I got a call from Judge Bramham. He said to be in Chicago for a meeting of the executive board of the national association. So, I went to Chicago."

Mr. Mann, threatened by pneumonia, had been sent out of town at the conclusion of the baseball season to recuperate. He had driven an automobile several hundred miles daily and then jumped to Chicago by train.

"What about a little baseball news?"
"Say, that must have been quite a ball game Tech played," he said. "I don't know any baseball news. Was that a tough catch Bill Jordan made? I had a letter from Paul Richards. He is working on that paper. I'll bet Vanderbilt was ill."

"So, Manager Richards is spreading the light?"
"Yes, on the Waxahachie Light. He is sports editor." "Is he guessing at the football scores?"
"Yes, he is."

"Then he isn't spreading much light."
"We hear you are interested in Jimmy Hitchcock, a new shortstop."

"It's news to me. Once he wrote me saying he wanted to see me. But I've never seen him. We wanted to sign his brother, Billy Hitchcock, but he wants to sign with a major league club when he does sign."

"Do you know anything else?"
"What about Georgia and Florida?"
Not knowing, and having only an idea, I left Mr. Mann. He needs a rest very badly after going to Florida for a rest.

"THEESA JIM" LONDOS.
"Theesa Jeem" Londos, pride of old Hellas, has scrambled right back to Greece, to speak in the vernacular. And thereby has created something of a mystery.

The story was that the Athenian athlete had come back to this country and was going into a shooting match with the boys and regain his title.

There are wars and rumors of wars in the wrestling game. Something must have happened to cause "Jeem" to quit his avocado and orange ranches in California for the hills and valleys of Greece.

It is really too bad. I had planned to have the histrionic hero here to formally dedicate the grand opening of the A. & G. buffet by tapping Mr. George Hanjaras lightly over the head with a bottle of retsina wine while the crowd shouted "To Kalon," which, freely translated, means "To the Beautiful." The reference, of course, would be to the A. & G., and not to Mr. George Hanjaras.

Retsina is specially suited for such dedications or for any encounters where bottled goods are to be used as weapons. Retsina wine, being well flavored with resin or turpentine, would flow from the broken bottles and act as a healing agent.

It is too bad Rancher Londos went back to Greece. He had promised to wrestle for our Mr. Frank Speer. The crowd was yearning to see him. Here is a mystery.

TECH AND GEORGIA.
Lewis Hardage went back to Gainesville and told Josh Cody that Georgia was determined to tee off against Florida again this fall. He reported Bill Hartman as saying, when the team met Harry Mehre in the dressing room at Knoxville last week, "Well, coach, we'll take this out on Florida."

Last year the Georgia team did just that.

It started with Florida and didn't lose another game, beating Florida, Tulane, tying Fordham and winning from Georgia Tech. It would be very gratifying to Georgia people if this year's team could find itself, become organized and go on to win. The boys didn't quit in the Tennessee game.

Tech remains a favorite to beat Clemson. For some reason football fans persist in remembering Clemson as a minor team. Which Clemson isn't. Particularly sinister is the fact that the publicity man there this year is named Sherman. Somehow I do not like for anyone named Sherman to come to Atlanta. Tech ought to win. But Clemson will be tough. The game should be one of the best of the year.

A SIDE-LINE NOTE.
I am shocked to learn that a newspaper would mention the heat of last Saturday in connection with the football game here in Atlanta. But it seems one paper did. If, of course, the following letter is correct:

Dear Sir:
I note from the Nashville Tennessean of November 1 that it was actually so hot in Atlanta that one McElreath had his face blistered while playing in the game Saturday.

Now, just for fun, I looked in the Tennessean to see how hot it was in Nashville Saturday, and found that at 3 p. m. it was 86 and Atlanta's high was only 80.

It is fortunate for the Vanderbilt team that they were not playing in Nashville Saturday if they are affected so by the heat.

Yours truly,
A SIDELINER.

There are several excellent sunburn lotions on the market and I am sure they are for sale in Nashville drug stores. Meanwhile, no one envies Tennessee and Alabama with Vanderbilt on the schedule.

MR. JOHN DODD.
Last week Mr. John Dodd, one of the esteemed gentlemen in our advertising department, came up on Thursday with his three upsets of the week. They were Rice to beat Auburn, Tech to beat Vanderbilt and Georgia to win from Tennessee. Mr. Dodd was very, very sour on one but picking two out of three was quite an accomplishment.

This week Mr. Dodd has two all-star specials. They are, Tulane to win from Alabama and Auburn to beat Tennessee. The latter hardly would be classed as a real upset but Tennessee is the actual favorite.

If Mr. Dodd pulls the Tulane-Alabama game out correctly he will be added to Five Points and there firmly implanted in concrete to remain as a permanent monument to expert picking.

CLEMSON HOLDS LONG PRACTICE FOR TECH GAME

Neely Stresses Offense; Willis Out With Charley Horse.

CLEMSON, S. C., Nov. 3.—(AP)—Clemson's Tigers were put through a long offensive scrimmage today in preparation for the Georgia Tech game Saturday.

The Tigers started with a pass offense drill and shifted over to a long defensive session for the backs against Georgia Tech aerials.

Midway in the afternoon Bob Bailey and Watson Magee engaged in a punting duel between the first two teams.

As darkness caught them, Coach Jess Neely ordered the floodlights turned on and the first two teams pounded away at a stubborn third-team defense.

Only Don Willis, 200-pound regular halfback, was out of the practice. He has a charley horse.

Cody Drills 'Gators Secretly for Georgia.
GAINESVILLE, Fla., Nov. 3.—(AP)—For the third day Coach Josh Cody put his University of Florida football team through secret practice today.

The coach and the squad were silent on the plays rehearsed for the 17th meeting with the University of Georgia, slated for Saturday in Jacksonville.

Watson Ramsey, end, and Charles Krejcler, tackle, were said to be recovered from their injuries and ready for Georgia. Walter Mayberry, back, was reported in top form.

Moore To Start Two Soph Ends.
BATON ROUGE, La., Nov. 3.—(AP)—Two first-year men will start at ends for Louisiana State University in the football game here Saturday against Mississippi State.

Coach Bernie Moore said tonight that Larry King, 195-pound junior college transfer student, will start in the place of Jack Gormley, regular end. Ogden Baur, sophomore who won a first-string assignment earlier this season, will hold down the other terminal position.

Soph Kenmore Stars In Auburn Drill.
AUBURN, Ala., Nov. 3.—(AP)—A stiff scrimmage today ended Auburn's rough work in preparation for the Tennessee game in Birmingham Saturday.

Kenmore, sophomore left halfback, who was one of the stars of the Rice game, continued his fine play, punting and passing especially well. Stencil Whitley, sophomore, looked good on the receiving end of Kenmore's tosses.

Alabama Continues Light Practices.
TUSCALOOSA, Ala., Nov. 3.—(AP)—Alabama's football squad continued on a light work diet today in preparing for Tulane at New Orleans Saturday.

Three Vol Elevers Drill on Tiger Plays.
KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Nov. 3.—(AP)—Coach Bob Neyland used three complete teams in a scrimmage against Auburn plays today in preparing for the Tennessee Vols for a shot at the Plainsmen in Birmingham Saturday.

Varsity Center Joe Little suffered a blood clot as the result of a blow on the leg; however, he is expected to be ready to start against Auburn.

For another skirmish tomorrow before leaving Friday for their fourth conference game.

Sasse Thinks L. S. U. '3 Touchdowns Better.'
STATE COLLEGE, Miss., Nov. 3.—(AP)—Engaging in their next to last drill before enroute Thursday night for Baton Rouge for their Saturday skirmish with Louisiana State, Coach Ralph Sasse's Maroons concentrated on blocking today as they rocked and socked each other for a full hour.

"They look three touchdowns better than my club," the former Army coach declared.

Vandy's '7 Strong Men' Undergo Rough Drill.
NASHVILLE, Tenn., Nov. 3.—(AP)—Vanderbilt's seven regular linemen were paced through a rough workout today for the first time since last Saturday when the Commodores bowed to Georgia Tech.

Although no scrimmage was held behind the locked gates of Dudley field this afternoon, Coach Ray Morrison sent his charges through a long session.

The Seniors tallied first when in the second quarter George Cooper took a 40-yard pass from C. A. May for the touchdown.

Only score for the Sophs came when Burgess passed to Joe Hall to climax a great 60-yard drive. Arthur Wood place-kicked the extra point.

Mrs. Donaud Wins In Women's Tourney
Mrs. Albert Donaud won first honors in the Atlanta Women's Golf Association flag tournament yesterday at the Forrest Hills Club. Mrs. W. L. Wooten was second and Mrs. Ford H. Pratt finished third.

Kid Brown, club pro, and Mrs. Brown, proved exceptional hosts, treating members of the association to a delightful day. The Browns entertained at a buffet luncheon after the matches.

Films Have Tech Scoring 3 Times
Movies shown yesterday at Georgia Tech showed Fletcher Sims scored a third touchdown for the Yellow Jackets in the Vandy game last Saturday. Sims clearly drove across the line before being shoved back.

There was no criticism of officials by the Georgia Tech coaches.

Alert line judging is necessary on the part of officials to catch touchdowns at any time. The movies indicate clearly they missed this one. Had officials called it, Tech would have won by at least 20 to 0.

SPORTS

RALPH MCGILL, Sports Editor
Grantland Rice • Jack Troy • Melvin Paul • Ray White • Thad Holt • Alan J. Gould
PAGE SIXTEEN THE CONSTITUTION, ATLANTA, GA., THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 4, 1937.

The Giant Killer of Georgia Tech's Line

J. L. (Shorty) Brooks has become the Giant Killer of the Georgia Tech forward wall. Weighing only 160 pounds (soaking wet), the little warrior outlasted and outcharged the heavier Vanderbilt linemen in Saturday's upset. He's ready for Clemson.

War Admiral Takes 8th Straight

PIMLICO RACE TRACK, BALTIMORE, Nov. 3.—(AP)—War Admiral, cocky little son of Man o'War, ran away from his field of three today to win the $7,500 added Pimlico special, taking the lead on the final turn.

Masked General was second and War Minstrel third, Bottle Cap, victor over War Admiral in a sprint last year, bringing up the rear.

It was a hard-earned victory for the 1-to-20 favorite in the betting. Masked General leading until the final turn, where he went wide.

The race was worth $5,680 to the Glen Riddle farms.

War Admiral's backers collected only $2.10, $2.10 and out; Masked General paid $3.30 and out, and War Minstrel out.

War Admiral, carrying 128 pounds, ran the mile and three-sixteenths in 1:58 4-5.

It was his eighth straight stake victory and brought his earnings to $166,500.

EMORY SENIORS TROUNCE SOPHS

Emory's Seniors defeated the Sophomores, 12-7, yesterday to go into the lead of the intramural football league.

It was a break in the fourth period that gave the Seniors their important victory. Ben Burgess, Soph back, fumbled a punt on his 20-yard line, and the Seniors recovered. Three plays later Springfield carried the ball over for a touchdown.

The Seniors tallied first when in the second quarter George Cooper took a 40-yard pass from C. A. May for the touchdown.

Only score for the Sophs came when Burgess passed to Joe Hall to climax a great 60-yard drive. Arthur Wood place-kicked the extra point.

Clemson Dinner Set Friday Night
Clemson alumni announce a dinner and pep meeting for the Atlanta Athletic Club Friday evening at 7 o'clock, at which time there will be many interesting features.

All old grads and team followers are urged to attend.

On the list of speakers are Jesse Neely, Tiger coach; Dr. W. Sikes, president of the school, and Dr. D. W. Daniels, dean of men.

Movies will be shown of past Clemson games with Army, Wake Forest and South Carolina, and ways and means of defeating Tech a second year in succession will be enthusiastically discussed.

GLENN CUSHING IS LIKELY OUT FOR SATURDAY

Roberts, Reserve Tackle, Is Injured in Drill at Grant Field.

By JACK TROY.
Coach Alex shifted the Engineers' base of operation from the Rose Bowl to Grant field yesterday and sent the varsity squad through a long afternoon and early evening program of defensive and offensive scrimmages.

The sudden shift was likely brought about by the fact that the lights at the regular field are better than those at the Rose Bowl.

The Jackets needed this added illumination because after they got through hammering away at Clemson plays as executed by the Bees, they turned around and trained their offensive guns on the subs.

GOOD AND BAD.
There were good and bad features about the work of yesterday. The two varsity teams were not particularly impressive against Clemson plays for the second straight day. Earl Wheby again gained at length in the role of Don Willis.

And the Bee line was on its toes opening the kind of holes he needed to show off his shiftness and drive.

Glenn Cushing, who has been handicapped by an injured ankle, was a target. The Bees directed their power at his tackle and soon Cushing came out, the worse for wear.

CUSHING DOUBTFUL.
It is to be doubted that he can play Saturday. He suffered a recurrence of a shoulder injury and that, coupled with his bad ankle, places him on the extremely doubtful list.

Red Roberts, reserve tackle, was injured in the scrimmage. He received a cut over the right eye that necessitated taking four stitches.

The work was, necessarily, of a strenuous nature as Coach Alex drove to get the boys ready for a tough encounter with Clemson Saturday.

One of the real features was the work of Walter Rimmer, who replaced Cushing when he was hurt. Rimmer stood out both on offense and defense.

He did one particularly fine piece of blocking on a long run made by Koon Konemann.

Up and down the sidelines the boys—that is, the players themselves—were talking about the great work Rimmer was doing in there.

"He's a real football player," they were saying.

It's not often you hear them pick out a lineman and boost his stock to the skies. Usually it's the fellow who's toting the ball.

GETS CREDIT.
But Rimmer was making it possible for the fellow carrying the ball to look good. And he was getting all the credit for it.

There was a lot of scrimmage yesterday but it is not expected that the heavy work for Clemson will end with that drill.

Coach Alex was not at all pleased with the team's defensive work and he may throw another scrimmage in today. The Jackets are still showing the effects of the Vandy game.

Coach Alex does not want to witness a recurrence of last year when the players came up to the Clemson game a bit stale and

Continued on 2nd Sports Page.

Closeout Sale

WE ARE QUITTING BUSINESS FOR GOOD

We Must Sell Over $25,000 In Quality Goods

TIRES, TUBES, ACCESSORIES AND PARTS SACRIFICED!

After 44 years of friendly service we are quitting business—and we don't mean maybe! Tires, tubes, spare parts and accessories—our entire stock is being offered at GIVE-AWAY PRICES. Come in today, Mr. Motorist, for auto needs which are top in quality—rock bottom in price.

GOLDEN EAGLE CO.

2 STORES
285 PETERS ST. 741 MARIETTA ST.

Marist, Petrel Frosh Will Play Today

SMITHIES MEET ASHEVILLE HIGH FRIDAY EVENING

Boys' High in Crucial Game With Lanier
Team at Macon.

By ROY WHITE.
Marist College will play the Oglethorpe freshmen at 3 o'clock this afternoon at Ponce de Leon park in the first of five prep games here this week. It is the first afternoon game to be played this season, and one of three to be played in the sunlight this season. Another afternoon game will be played Friday between Fulton and North Fulton at Buckhead and the third between Tech High and Boys' High on November 19.

Meanwhile, Tech High, Boys' High, Commercial, G. M. A. and the remainder of the high school teams will hold light drills in preparation for Friday night games.

"REVENGE GAME."
The Smithies play Asheville High Friday night at the ball park in a "revenge game." Tech High has lost two straight to the North Carolina eleven and with Coach Gabe Tolbert back on the job after several weeks of illness due to a heart attack, the Smithies are more than anxious to give the veteran coach a welcome victory.

Boys' High journeys to Macon to battle the Lanier High Poets, state champions. It will be one of the deciding games of the 1937 prep race, with the winner going into the finals against Tech High later in the season. The Poets are undefeated and untied.

G. M. A. journeys to Knoxville to battle Knoxville High, Commercial plays Richmond Academy at Augusta Decatur, plays La Grange at Decatur, and plays Gainesville at East Point in other Friday night games.

BEATS ROME.
Marist, after several years in the weaker class, has come along fast this year and Coach Vanden has one of his best squads in recent years. The Ivy Street Cadets opened the season with a 7 to 7 tie with Richmond Academy and then lost to G. M. A. and Commercial in class games. R. E. Lee was beaten at Thomasville, but Lanier, defending its state championship, gave Marist another defeat.

Last Thursday night Marist came back strong on the rebound and beat a fine Rome High team, 29 to 0, at Rome.

Maupin, Hendley, Wasser and Ryckley in the line, and McDonald and Cumberland in the backfield, have been outstanding for Marist all season.

Marshall Beats Zaharias; Roche Replaces Greek

When Everett Marshall spilled George Zaharias all over an Indianapolis arena Tuesday night he momentarily upset some well laid plans of Frank Speer, local matchmaker, who had arranged for the champion and the Greek here in his headline next Tuesday night at the Atlanta theater.

However, Speer fortunately was able to land Dorsey Roche, the tiger of the mat, to oppose Marshall and this is perhaps a more enticing struggle than a Marshall-Zaharias match since Roche is faster than the Greek and a better wrestler.

"I didn't know Zaharias and Marshall were meeting at Indianapolis, or I would never have billed them here," explained Speer. "I understand Marshall gave George quite a shellacking, just as he did Orville Brown a few days earlier at Columbus, Ohio."

$100,000 Is No Item When Henry Ford Changes His Mind

CHICAGO, Nov. 3.—(P)—Henry Ford paid $100,000 for option rights to sponsor the broadcast of the last World Series, but declined to exercise his option, it was announced today.

Major league baseball, however, did split up the motor magnate's $100,000.

Ford, it became known, contracted for the option last summer, but at the last minute declined to exercise it.

The sum he paid, however, swelled the series receipts to $1,085,994. The players' pool, as a result, was $459,305.97.

Jim Wilson's Team Wins Dinner Meet

Jimmy Wilson and his "Reds" ended a long time argument and grudge match with a 24-to-20 victory over the Druid Hills golf course. All square at nine, the Reds played steady on the back nine to win out as darkness hovered over the course.

The winners were guests at a dinner Wednesday night at the club. In the blind borey, Dr. George Fuller, Frank Boyce and W. H. Hester, shared first prize. Concession prizes went to W. C. Vines, H. M. Hubbard, Ad Harbort, Dr. J. R. Childs, Dr. George Fuller and George Tinsler.

Map Plans for Oglethorpe's Home-Coming Game

Claude Mason Jr., left; Coach John Patrick, center, and Joe Murphy, right, are mapping plans for a gala home-coming game Saturday week when Oglethorpe plays Mississippi College at Hermance field. Mason and Murphy are enthusiastic alumni supporters and are playing chief roles in a ticket-selling program calculated to bring a crowd to the Petrel stadium. The G. M. A. band will furnish music for the game. Tech plays Alabama at Birmingham and Georgia meets Tulane at Athens that day. There will be no counter-attractions in Atlanta. The Oglethorpe-Mississippi game will be a thriller.

PETRELS BATTLE CHOCTAWS NOV. 13

Big Homecoming Crowd Sought; Rollins Crow
Tomorrow Night.

Joe Murphy, president of the Oglethorpe Alumni Association, and Claude Mason Jr., both staunch supporters of Petrel athletics, yesterday outlined plans for getting a real crowd to Hermance stadium for Oglethorpe's homecoming game Saturday week.

The Stormy Petrels play Rollins College at Orlando, Fla., this Friday night and next Saturday evening Mississippi College at Hermance field.

It's the Mississippi game that the alumni body is pushing down on Messrs. Murphy and Mason hope to see a crowd of at least 1,500 at Hermance field for homecoming.

At a luncheon yesterday at the A. A. C., they pointed out that from a sporting standpoint, the game would well be worth the $1 admission to be charged. This includes tax.

The G. M. A. band will furnish music.

"Advance sale is going good," the alumni body said yesterday, "and we have every reason to believe that a real crowd will turn out for homecoming."

Ted Weems Lost To Oglethorpe.

Oglethorpe's Stormy Petrels received another blow to their chances of defeating Rollins at Winter Park, Fla., Friday night when they lost the services of Ted Weems, outstanding tackle, due to the death of his father yesterday.

Already riddled with injuries, the squad took only a light workout yesterday, Coach Patrick taking no chances of losing more men.

A squad of 24 men will leave this afternoon for Friday's game.

Four veterans will be left because of injuries. They are Bob Murphy and Elmer George, halfbacks; Bill Bailey, tackle, who will not return to school, and Weems.

Captain Bot Owens, stellar end and the team's outstanding punter, will make the trip but will not be used unless absolutely necessary.

BULLDOGS PICK 'GATOR AS VICTIM'

Continued From 1st Sports Page.

big man. They are not howling as in former years.

Simply because the Gators have been taking on tough opposition and, while losing, have been making a very creditable showing. They've lost a couple of tough ones by one point, a terrific contest by 19 points and another by six points.

And if Cody could manage to beat either Georgia or Tech, the Florida people would have a case of rather wild hysteria.

But if Cody fails to win either of these games, they won't complain. For Florida is looking to next year as the year. The Gators are building now.

On the other hand, Florida players will try to win the Georgia game as they have no other game all year.

LAST FOR MAYBERRY.
It's Captain Walter Mayberry's last chance. Mayberry is a great back—a triple threat who does everything well. He has been bottled up by Georgia ever since he started playing.

But this Saturday one may expect Mayberry to give the greatest performance of his career. If Georgia succeeds in holding him in check again, then there will be the no small matter of stopping Willis and Mullins.

This may develop into an even tougher game physically for Georgia than was the Tennessee game. Because the Bulldogs are going to find the Gators, led by Mayberry, aroused to fever pitch.

The Florida boys would like to win this one for their captain, who is one of the most popular players the school has ever had. That's an important angle Georgia can count on. Florida will play inspired football and gamble everything in an effort to win.

In addition to meaning a great deal to Mayberry, it would be a feather in the felt of Coach Josh Cody.

A capacity crowd at Fairfield stadium won't be disappointed, in any event. For whatever happens, the prospect is very pleasing.

Bulldogs and Jackets Picked By Williamson

Auburn will nose out Tennessee at Birmingham Saturday and Georgia will have a shade the best of things against Florida at Jacksonville, according to Williamson's Rating System. However, in each game, Williamson sees the strong possibility of a tie.

In other games Georgia Tech is given a definite edge over Clemson and Alabama is picked handsily over Tulane.

In the big intersectional game of the day, Pittsburgh is selected to defeat Notre Dame.

EXPLANATION: Figure after each team is its rating according to the current Williamson Football Rating Table. In "Predict" column: 1, means win for No. 1 team; 2, means possible tie; 3, means possible loss or close outcome; R, means prediction contrary to ratings. No. 1 team plays at home. X, Friday afternoon; Y, Friday night; Z, Saturday night.

(Copyright, 1937, by United Feature Syndicate, Inc.)

PREDICTION SCHEDULE FOR WEEK ENDING NOVEMBER 7.

INTERSECTIONAL.

TEAM NO. 1—x-Presbyterian 46.3
y-Geo. Washington O. 57.4
Century 58.4
Furman 71.3
Georgia Tech 94.5
Kentucky U. 68
Manhattan 83.7
North Dakota 94.1
Oklahoma U. 91.8
Southwestern 43.5
Syracuse 69.9
Temple 66
Tulane 90.8
Villanova 95.9

TEAM NO. 2—
Mercer 71.3
Mississippi U. 88.2
T. C. U. 89.9
Suckwell 75.2
Clemson 88.8
Iowa State 83.3
Detroit U. 90
Pittsburgh U. 97.7
West Reserve 75.5
Johns Hopkins 46
Michigan State 92.3
Michigan 90.1
Marquette 90

EAST.

Carnegie Tech 85.8
Army 91.8
Clemson 88.8
Rutgers 75.7
Furman 71.3
Tulane 90.8
Georgia Tech 94.5
Kentucky U. 68
Manhattan 83.7
North Dakota 94.1
Oklahoma U. 91.8
Southwestern 43.5
Syracuse 69.9
Temple 66
Tulane 90.8
Villanova 95.9

MIDDLE WEST.

Case 64.5
Cincinnati 59.8
Iowa U. 80.4
Michigan U. 89.7
Northwestern U. 86.3
Ohio State 94.9

SOUTH.

Stetson 64.8
Oglethorpe 59
Miss. 59.7
Tenn. U. 94.7
Birmingham South. 73
Georgia 88.8
Miss. State 79.9
Alabama 97.3
Arkansas 63.3

SOUTH ATLANTIC.

N. Carolina U. 94.3
Wake Forest 79.3
Clemson 88.8
V. M. I. 74.8
Maryland 81.5
Virginia U. 73.8
Hamp. Sydney 55.8

SOUTHWEST.

Texas U. 85.5
Arkansas 63.3
S. M. U. 83.5

MISSOURI VALLEY.

Kansas U. 77.3
Chicago 48.4
Missouri U. 90.8
Omaha U. 59

PACIFIC COAST.

Wash. U. 93.8
California 99.8
Oregon U. 81.1
Oregon St. 90.4
So. Calif. U. 90.3

BERKELEY.
Berkeley 10.13
Portland 6.3
Corvallis 14.7
Los Angeles 14.7

CLASHING DOUBTFUL STARTER SOUTHWEST.

Continued From 1st Sports Page.

never did generate the drive of which they were capable. He's stressing team speed.

Coach Jess Neely's Tigers have been laying back waiting for the Tech game. And he has the sort of line and backfield, and line and backfield reserves, to make it tough for any team that isn't on its toes.

Up Clemson way they're saying the Tigers are in a vengeful mood, not because of last year's game, of course, but because of the fact that two Southeastern conference foes already have clipped them. The Tigers lost to Tulane and Georgia earlier in the season.

TENNIS EXHIBITION.

As a sportfeature of Emory's annual parents' day program freshmen tennis stars will stage an exhibition match Friday afternoon. Two singles matches and one doubles contest are scheduled. Bob Warnock, Bob Wakefield, John Cotten and Walter Beckham will be the participants.

gia can count on. Florida will play inspired football and gamble everything in an effort to win.

In addition to meaning a great deal to Mayberry, it would be a feather in the felt of Coach Josh Cody.

A capacity crowd at Fairfield stadium won't be disappointed, in any event. For whatever happens, the prospect is very pleasing.

gia can count on. Florida will play inspired football and gamble everything in an effort to win.

In addition to meaning a great deal to Mayberry, it would be a feather in the felt of Coach Josh Cody.

A capacity crowd at Fairfield stadium won't be disappointed, in any event. For whatever happens, the prospect is very pleasing.

gia can count on. Florida will play inspired football and gamble everything in an effort to win.

In addition to meaning a great deal to Mayberry, it would be a feather in the felt of Coach Josh Cody.

A capacity crowd at Fairfield stadium won't be disappointed, in any event. For whatever happens, the prospect is very pleasing.

gia can count on. Florida will play inspired football and gamble everything in an effort to win.

In addition to meaning a great deal to Mayberry, it would be a feather in the felt of Coach Josh Cody.

A capacity crowd at Fairfield stadium won't be disappointed, in any event. For whatever happens, the prospect is very pleasing.

gia can count on. Florida will play inspired football and gamble everything in an effort to win.

In addition to meaning a great deal to Mayberry, it would be a feather in the felt of Coach Josh Cody.

A capacity crowd at Fairfield stadium won't be disappointed, in any event. For whatever happens, the prospect is very pleasing.

gia can count on. Florida will play inspired football and gamble everything in an effort to win.

In addition to meaning a great deal to Mayberry, it would be a feather in the felt of Coach Josh Cody.

A capacity crowd at Fairfield stadium won't be disappointed, in any event. For whatever happens, the prospect is very pleasing.

gia can count on. Florida will play inspired football and gamble everything in an effort to win.

In addition to meaning a great deal to Mayberry, it would be a feather in the felt of Coach Josh Cody.

A capacity crowd at Fairfield stadium won't be disappointed, in any event. For whatever happens, the prospect is very pleasing.

gia can count on. Florida will play inspired football and gamble everything in an effort to win.

In addition to meaning a great deal to Mayberry, it would be a feather in the felt of Coach Josh Cody.

A capacity crowd at Fairfield stadium won't be disappointed, in any event. For whatever happens, the prospect is very pleasing.

gia can count on. Florida will play inspired football and gamble everything in an effort to win.

In addition to meaning a great deal to Mayberry, it would be a feather in the felt of Coach Josh Cody.

A capacity crowd at Fairfield stadium won't be disappointed, in any event. For whatever happens, the prospect is very pleasing.

gia can count on. Florida will play inspired football and gamble everything in an effort to win.

In addition to meaning a great deal to Mayberry, it would be a feather in the felt of Coach Josh Cody.

A capacity crowd at Fairfield stadium won't be disappointed, in any event. For whatever happens, the prospect is very pleasing.

gia can count on. Florida will play inspired football and gamble everything in an effort to win.

In addition to meaning a great deal to Mayberry, it would be a feather in the felt of Coach Josh Cody.

A capacity crowd at Fairfield stadium won't be disappointed, in any event. For whatever happens, the prospect is very pleasing.

gia can count on. Florida will play inspired football and gamble everything in an effort to win.

In addition to meaning a great deal to Mayberry, it would be a feather in the felt of Coach Josh Cody.

A capacity crowd at Fairfield stadium won't be disappointed, in any event. For whatever happens, the prospect is very pleasing.

gia can count on. Florida will play inspired football and gamble everything in an effort to win.

In addition to meaning a great deal to Mayberry, it would be a feather in the felt of Coach Josh Cody.

A capacity crowd at Fairfield stadium won't be disappointed, in any event. For whatever happens, the prospect is very pleasing.

gia can count on. Florida will play inspired football and gamble everything in an effort to win.

In addition to meaning a great deal to Mayberry, it would be a feather in the felt of Coach Josh Cody.

A capacity crowd at Fairfield stadium won't be disappointed, in any event. For whatever happens, the prospect is very pleasing.

gia can count on. Florida will play inspired football and gamble everything in an effort to win.

In addition to meaning a great deal to Mayberry, it would be a feather in the felt of Coach Josh Cody.

A capacity crowd at Fairfield stadium won't be disappointed, in any event. For whatever happens, the prospect is very pleasing.

gia can count on. Florida will play inspired football and gamble everything in an effort to win.

In addition to meaning a great deal to Mayberry, it would be a feather in the felt of Coach Josh Cody.

A capacity crowd at Fairfield stadium won't be disappointed, in any event. For whatever happens, the prospect is very pleasing.

gia can count on. Florida will play inspired football and gamble everything in an effort to win.

In addition to meaning a great deal to Mayberry, it would be a feather in the felt of Coach Josh Cody.

A capacity crowd at Fairfield stadium won't be disappointed, in any event. For whatever happens, the prospect is very pleasing.

gia can count on. Florida will play inspired football and gamble everything in an effort to win.

In addition to meaning a great deal to Mayberry, it would be a feather in the felt of Coach Josh Cody.

A capacity crowd at Fairfield stadium won't be disappointed, in any event. For whatever happens, the prospect is very pleasing.

gia can count on. Florida will play inspired football and gamble everything in an effort to win.

In addition to meaning a great deal to Mayberry, it would be a feather in the felt of Coach Josh Cody.

A capacity crowd at Fairfield stadium won't be disappointed, in any event. For whatever happens, the prospect is very pleasing.

gia can count on. Florida will play inspired football and gamble everything in an effort to win.

In addition to meaning a great deal to Mayberry, it would be a feather in the felt of Coach Josh Cody.

A capacity crowd at Fairfield stadium won't be disappointed, in any event. For whatever happens, the prospect is very pleasing.

gia can count on. Florida will play inspired football and gamble everything in an effort to win.

In addition to meaning a great deal to Mayberry, it would be a feather in the felt of Coach Josh Cody.

A capacity crowd at Fairfield stadium won't be disappointed, in any event. For whatever happens, the prospect is very pleasing.

gia can count on. Florida will play inspired football and gamble everything in an effort to win.

In addition to meaning a great deal to Mayberry, it would be a feather in the felt of Coach Josh Cody.

A capacity crowd at Fairfield stadium won't be disappointed, in any event. For whatever happens, the prospect is very pleasing.

gia can count on. Florida will play inspired football and gamble everything in an effort to win.

In addition to meaning a great deal to Mayberry, it would be a feather in the felt of Coach Josh Cody.

A capacity crowd at Fairfield stadium won't be disappointed, in any event. For whatever happens, the prospect is very pleasing.

gia can count on. Florida will play inspired football and gamble everything in an effort to win.

In addition to meaning a great deal to Mayberry, it would be a feather in the felt of Coach Josh Cody.

A capacity crowd at Fairfield stadium won't be disappointed, in any event. For whatever happens, the prospect is very pleasing.

gia can count on. Florida will play inspired football and gamble everything in an effort to win.

In addition to meaning a great deal to Mayberry, it would be a feather in the felt of Coach Josh Cody.

A capacity crowd at Fairfield stadium won't be disappointed, in any event. For whatever happens, the prospect is very pleasing.

gia can count on. Florida will play inspired football and gamble everything in an effort to win.

In addition to meaning a great deal to Mayberry, it would be a feather in the felt of Coach Josh Cody.

A capacity crowd at Fairfield stadium won't be disappointed, in any event. For whatever happens, the prospect is very pleasing.

gia can count on. Florida will play inspired football and gamble everything in an effort to win.

In addition to meaning a great deal to Mayberry, it would be a feather in the felt of Coach Josh Cody.

A capacity crowd at Fairfield stadium won't be disappointed, in any event. For whatever happens, the prospect is very pleasing.

gia can count on. Florida will play inspired football and gamble everything in an effort to win.

In addition to meaning a great deal to Mayberry, it would be a feather in the felt of Coach Josh Cody.

A capacity crowd at Fairfield stadium won't be disappointed, in any event. For whatever happens, the prospect is very pleasing.

gia can count on. Florida will play inspired football and gamble everything in an effort to win.

In addition to meaning a great deal to Mayberry, it would be a feather in the felt of Coach Josh Cody.

A capacity crowd at Fairfield stadium won't be disappointed, in any event. For whatever happens, the prospect is very pleasing.

gia can count on. Florida will play inspired football and gamble everything in an effort to win.

In addition to meaning a great deal to Mayberry, it would be a feather in the felt of Coach Josh Cody.

A capacity crowd at Fairfield stadium won't be disappointed, in any event. For whatever happens, the prospect is very pleasing.

gia can count on. Florida will play inspired football and gamble everything in an effort to win.

In addition to meaning a great deal to Mayberry, it would be a feather in the felt of Coach Josh Cody.

A capacity crowd at Fairfield stadium won't be disappointed, in any event. For whatever happens, the prospect is very pleasing.

gia can count on. Florida will play inspired football and gamble everything in an effort to win.

In addition to meaning a great deal to Mayberry, it would be a feather in the felt of Coach Josh Cody.

A capacity crowd at Fairfield stadium won't be disappointed, in any event. For whatever happens, the prospect is very pleasing.

gia can count on. Florida will play inspired football and gamble everything in an effort to win.

In addition to meaning a great deal to Mayberry, it would be a feather in the felt of Coach Josh Cody.

A capacity crowd at Fairfield stadium won't be disappointed, in any event. For whatever happens, the prospect is very pleasing.

gia can count on. Florida will play inspired football and gamble everything in an effort to win.

TS

PS

heavy

SUN

ing A

sion

(Co.) 80
 Bonds
 84.5
 85.4
 84.4
 85.9
 99.2
 100.7
 82.3
 106.2
 93.3
 (P)— and 2 roopliens elling erates elieve ture.

 jority with ne of nes.
 the-rent-in the egged a but vy li-share

 erages
 int to ndus-
 98.7
 .6, up tailed pared

Receipts, quiet;
quota-good strict ct low strict
y. 2.58. r than d.
Prev.
Close.
4.49
4.54
4.54
4.56
4.58
4.80
4.82
4.83
4.84
4.85
4.86
4.88

[illegible]

A vertical strip of a document page, showing a binding edge with a metal clip and a series of holes. A large, dark, curved mark is visible on the left side.

36-7

